BEYOND CLOSED DOORS -

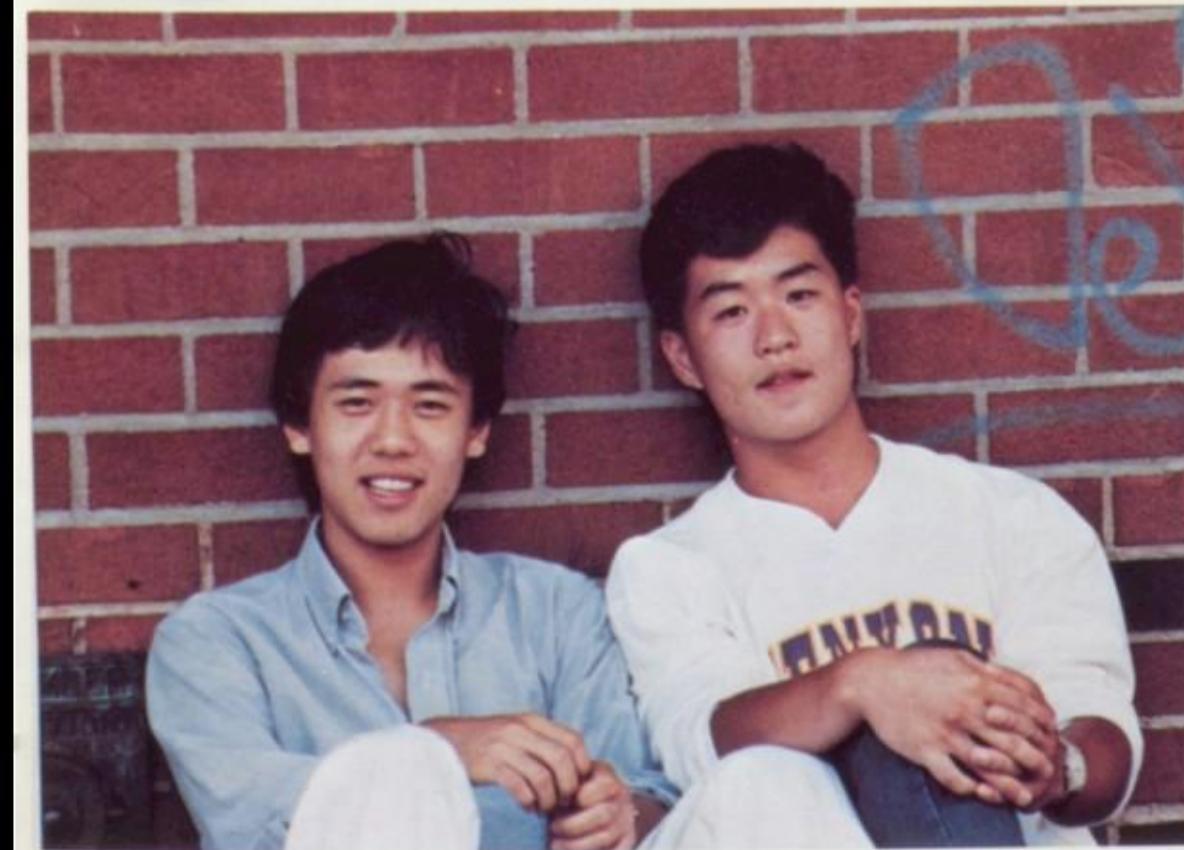

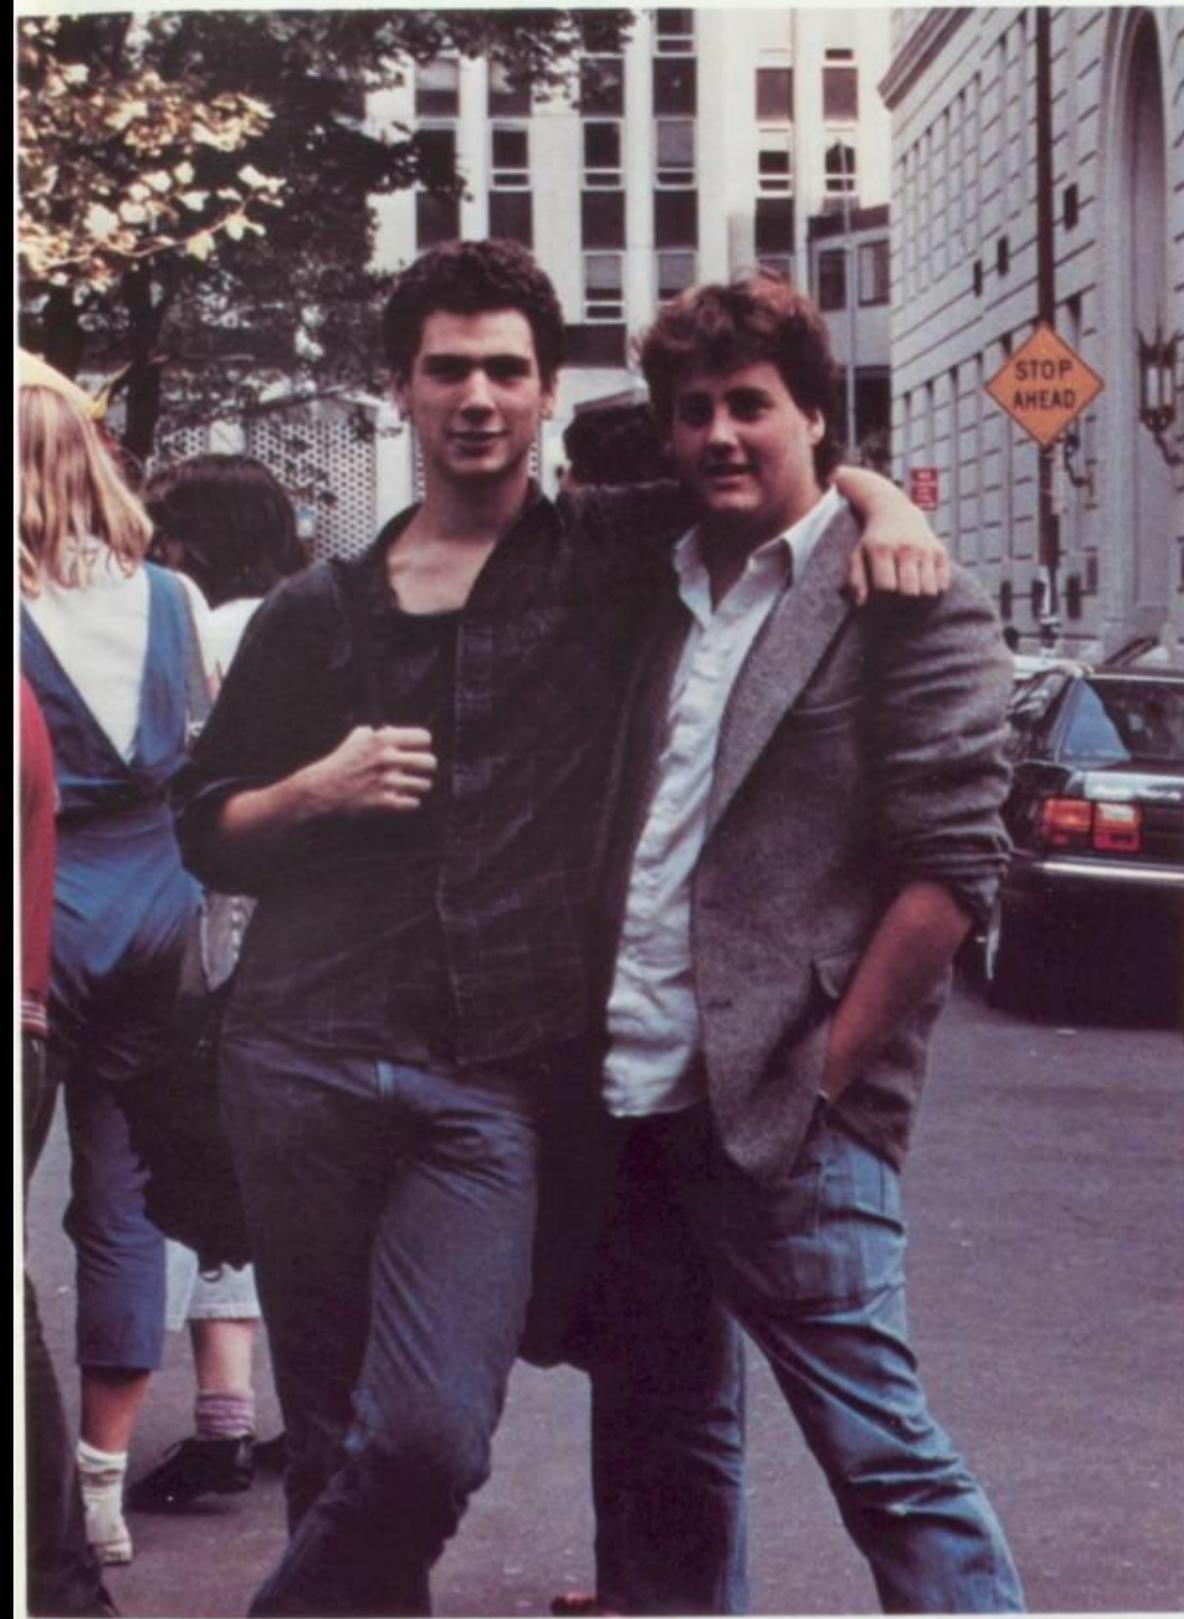

1986

"And you must remember you will be attending not just the best school in the city, or the country . . . but the finest high school
in the entire world."

But at last came a knock
And I thought of the door
With no lock to lock.

—Robert Frost

College? I have to go to college?

I'll never get in.

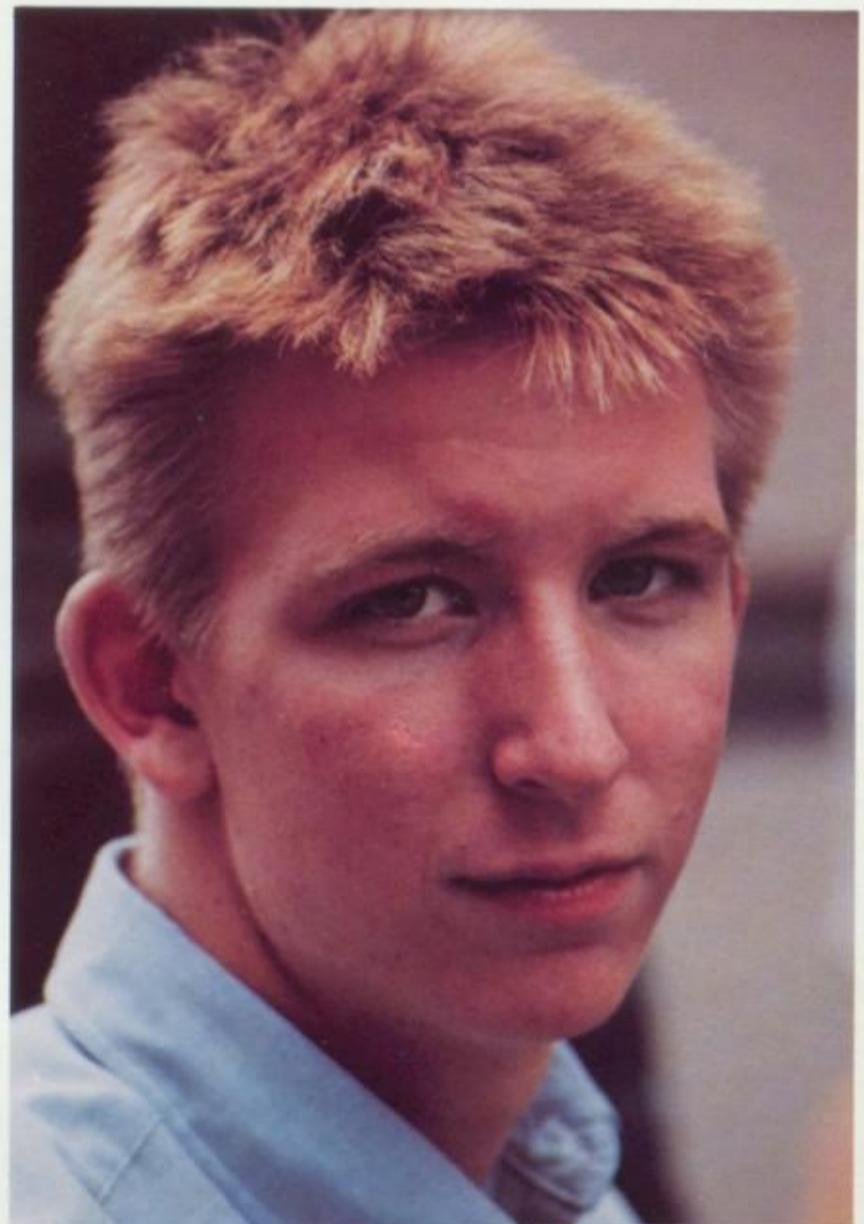

My S.A.T.'s are terrible and my average is awful.
Well, at least they don't rank us. But do they see our first term grades? And what's the difference between early decision and early action?

Which one means I don't have a choice?
And all those forms to fill out. SSR's. Essays.

Recommendations. What form goes in what envelope?

How many stamps do I need? What's my high school code number? Should I lie for financial aid?
And what if they reject me after they accept me
when they see my first term grades?

When people are free
to do as they please,
they usually imitate
each other.

—Eric Hoffer

I went to the bathroom and I wrote a whole story about my life on the wall

I wanted it to be stuck somewhere forever.

"Did you read it?"

I got some answers
but nothing I couldn't tell myself.

Sometimes I go in there and I see it and I remember.

It sounds dumb but
Why do only girls write on bathroom walls?

She sat in the third row,
third seat, and I knew her name.
I kept looking over there the whole period
and when she'd look at me,
I'd turn away quickly.
But every so often I couldn't hold it back,
I'd close my eyes and take a deep breath.
I was the attendance monitor,
just to find out her number.
But I never called
Back track. Delaney cards,
I looked at them a lot,
an awful lot.

High school is closer to the core of the American experience than anything else I can think of.

—Kurt Vonnegut Jr.

"Okay! We're having a test! Take everything off your desk and get ready to draw an octagonal prism."

"Wait! Can I borrow a T-square?"

"Now draw the depth at  $\frac{3}{4}$ ."

"Wait! Does anyone have a 3H pencil?"

"Next — draw the length at 4."

"Wait! I haven't taped my paper down yet."

"Draw the width at 3."

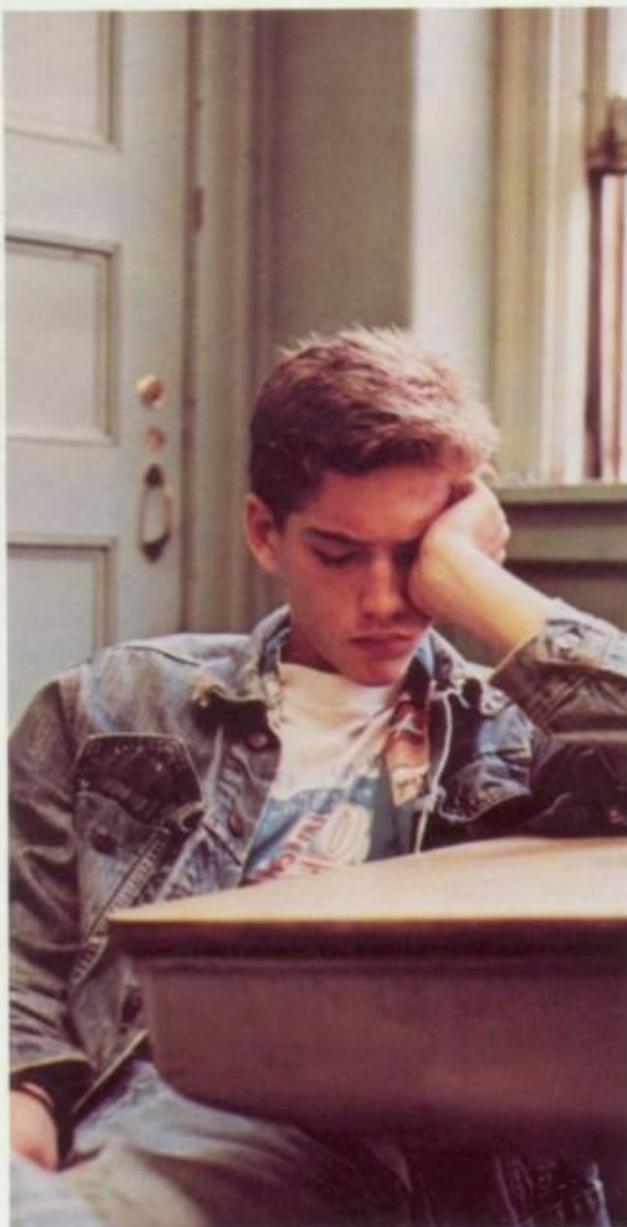

"Wait! I can't find my ruler."

"So now locate your vanishing point."

"Does anyone have a 3H pencil?"

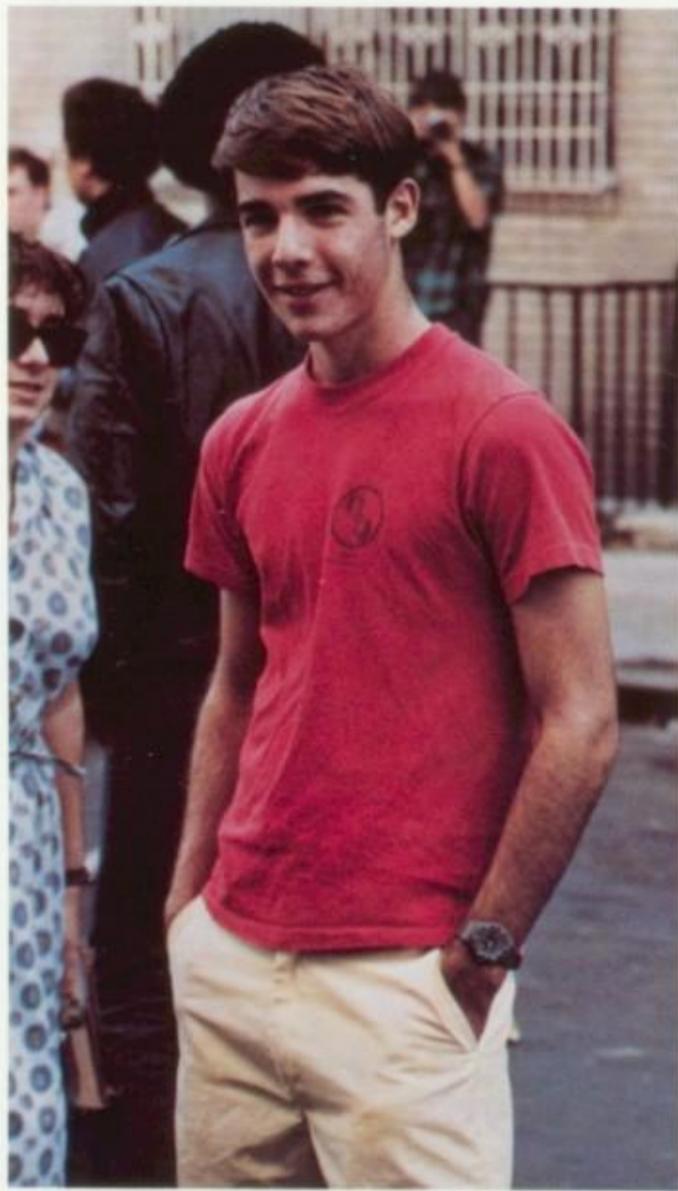

"Okay. Times up! Put your pencils down."

"Does anyone have a 3H pencil?"

A crooked street goes past my door,
entwining love of every land.

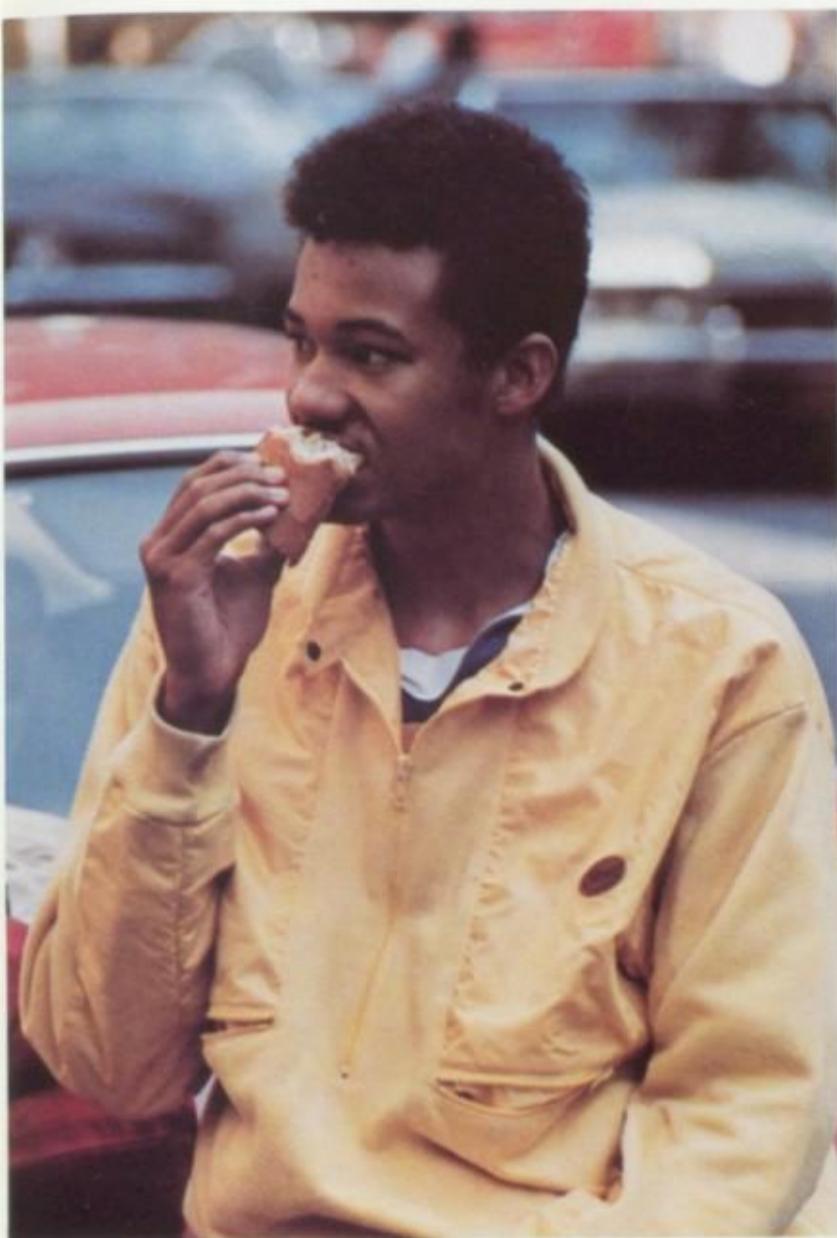

—Charles Divine

All the children on the street
Come running out their front doors
Running out their back doors
Flying on their feet.

—Paul Simon

I thought about memorizing multi-syllabic vocabulary words everyday, maybe 15, and getting myself prepared.

But I couldn't.

Instead the parents nagged as the hysteria began and I shelled out the five hundred to become a financial intellectual.

But it didn't accomplish much.

I still walked in on May 4, sat down, filled in hundreds of little ovals, trying to avoid the Joe Bloggs.

But I couldn't.

They said, "Don't eat chocolate before the exam, the middle of the exam you get a down."

So I followed their advice.

But it didn't accomplish much.

I know, I really know, that I made every one of those stupid mistakes as I filed away my college career under S. S for S.A.T.

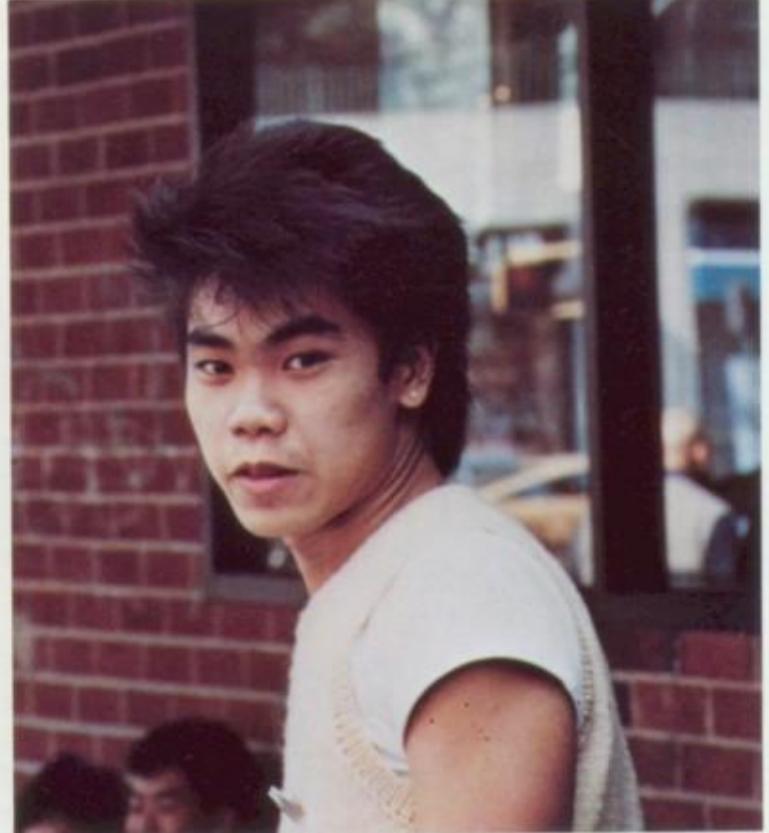

One wonders, wonders one.
—Jack Irgang

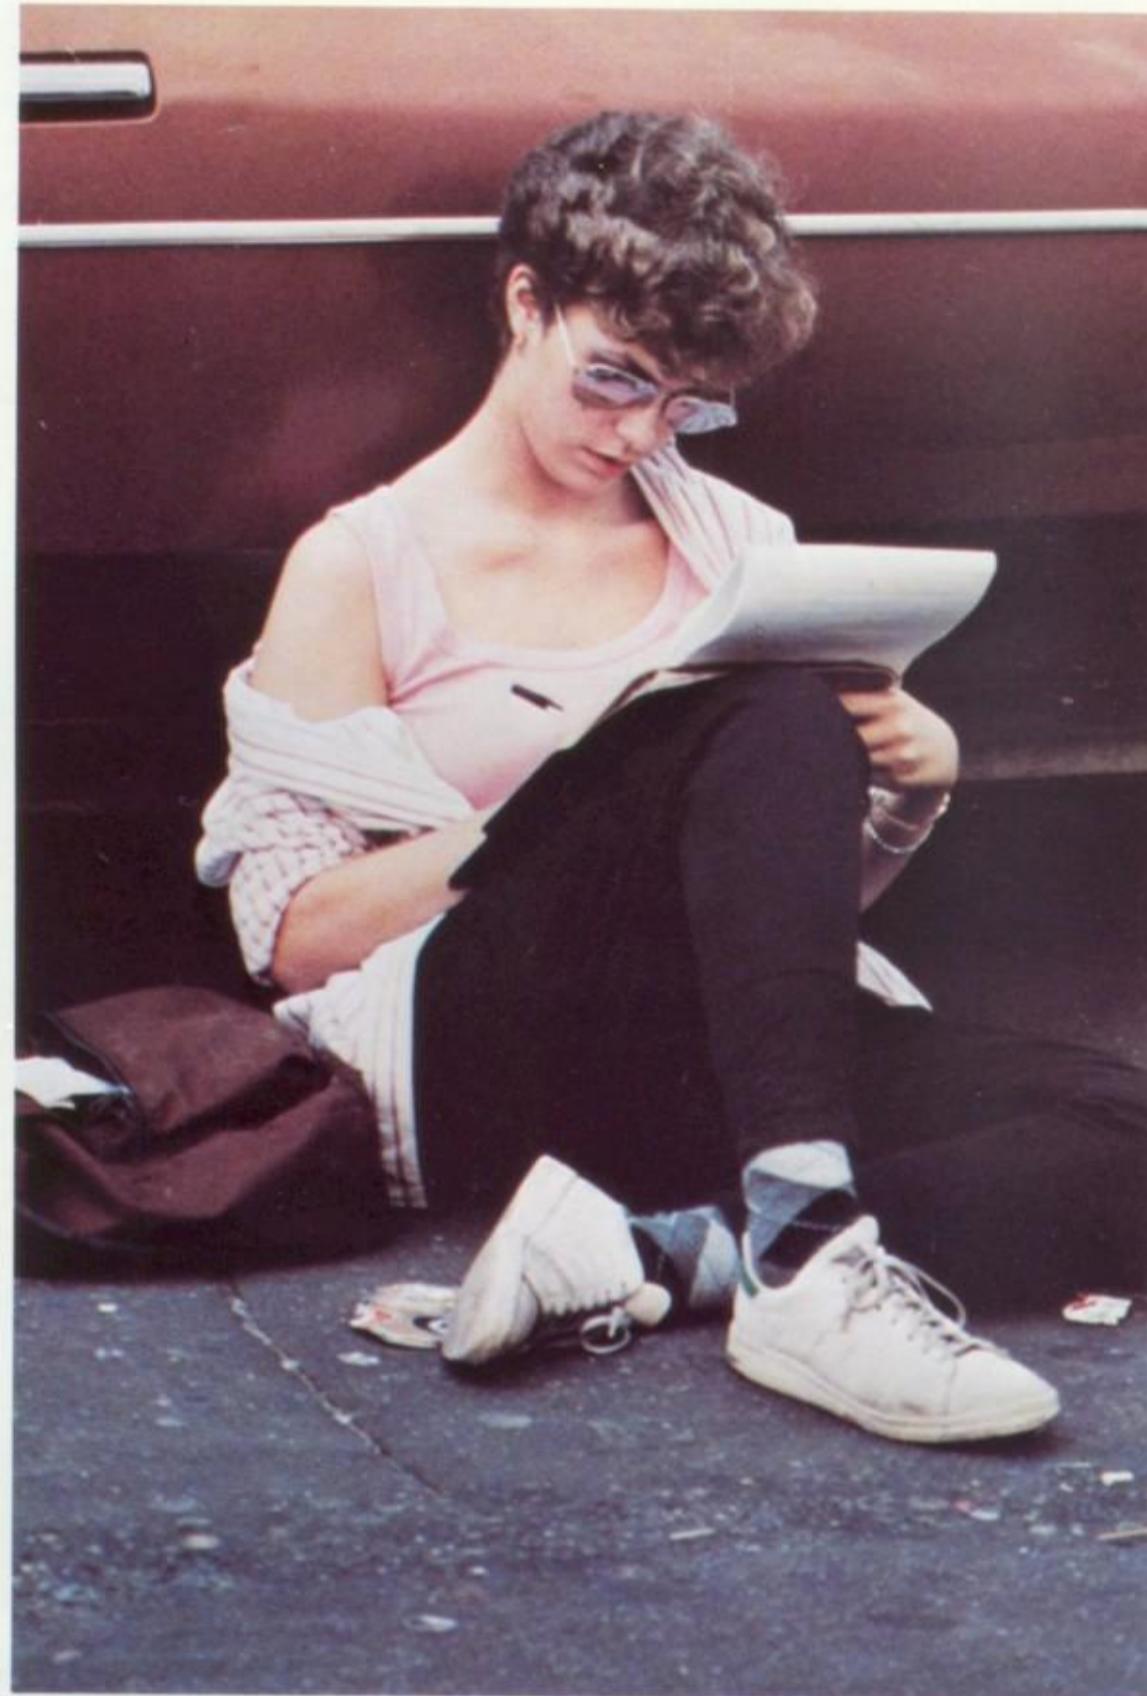

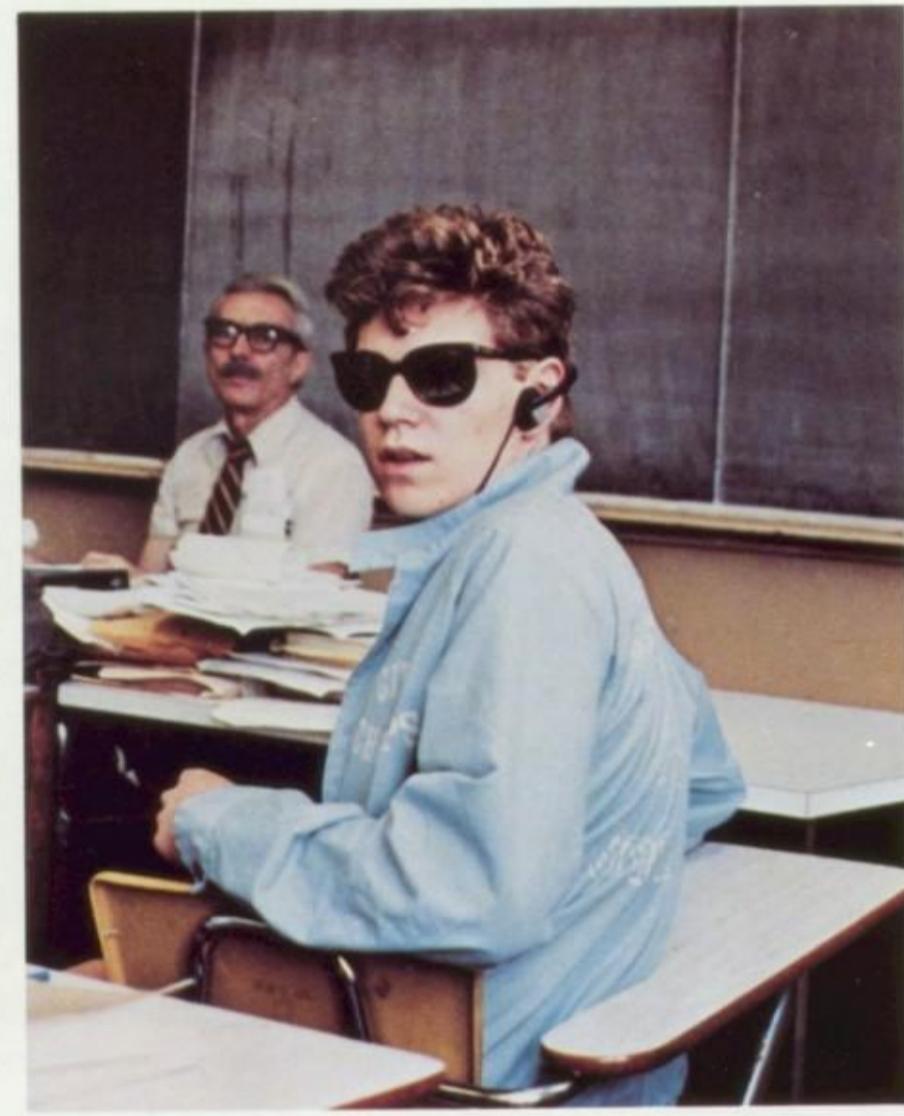

I want to thank her.
We sat in her office
and looked over my scantron
(I failed that test badly)
She asked me what was wrong.
I thought I had a block,
“I really am trying.”
She put away the scantron,
we didn’t talk about it anymore,
(Or all the times
I didn’t go to class).
She left the door open,
I cried a little.
O.K. I cried a lot.
I didn’t have a block,
I left her office knowing . . .
the door still open behind me.

Suddenly,
It's long black coats and sunglasses.
The school is enveloped in the wave of dark tweed,
and gets lost in the blindness
of dark shades.

We live for those trendy trenches and especially, our black Ray Bans.

In homeroom on the very first day
They said we should be friends
Because we had the same birthday

I loved the way you smiled and decorated your term papers
We switched you into my second term chem class
When programs were still fixable
and in the spring
We sat by the window
We sat in the sunshine

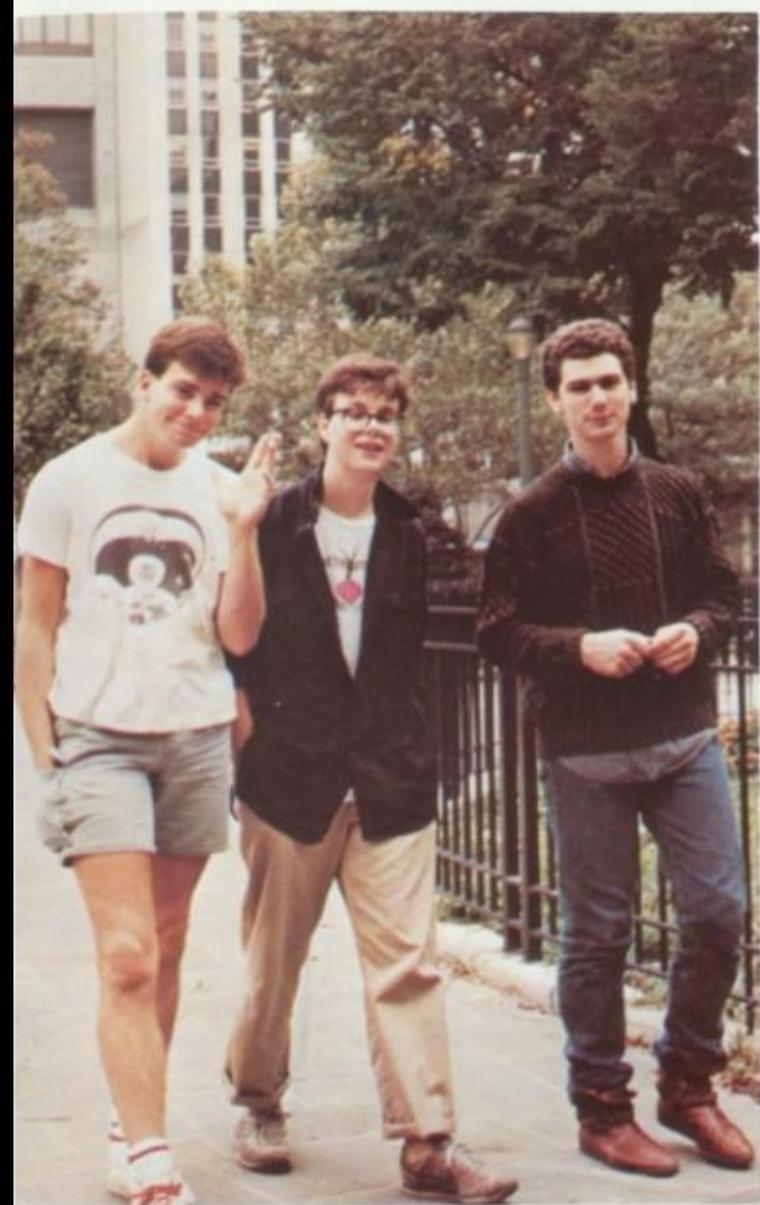

We sat on the train
I was angry and you didn't care
"Leave my life to me," you said
I wanted so badly to help you
Make you stop hurting yourself
Juniors don't have to misbehave

Why can't I remember when the break started cracking?

I look back on the important moments
The trivial details crystalize cataracts

I glance at our picture in the yearbook
Taken for the deadline — no memories at all
The memories are in your eyes
I glance at them and together we pretend
No remembrance at all

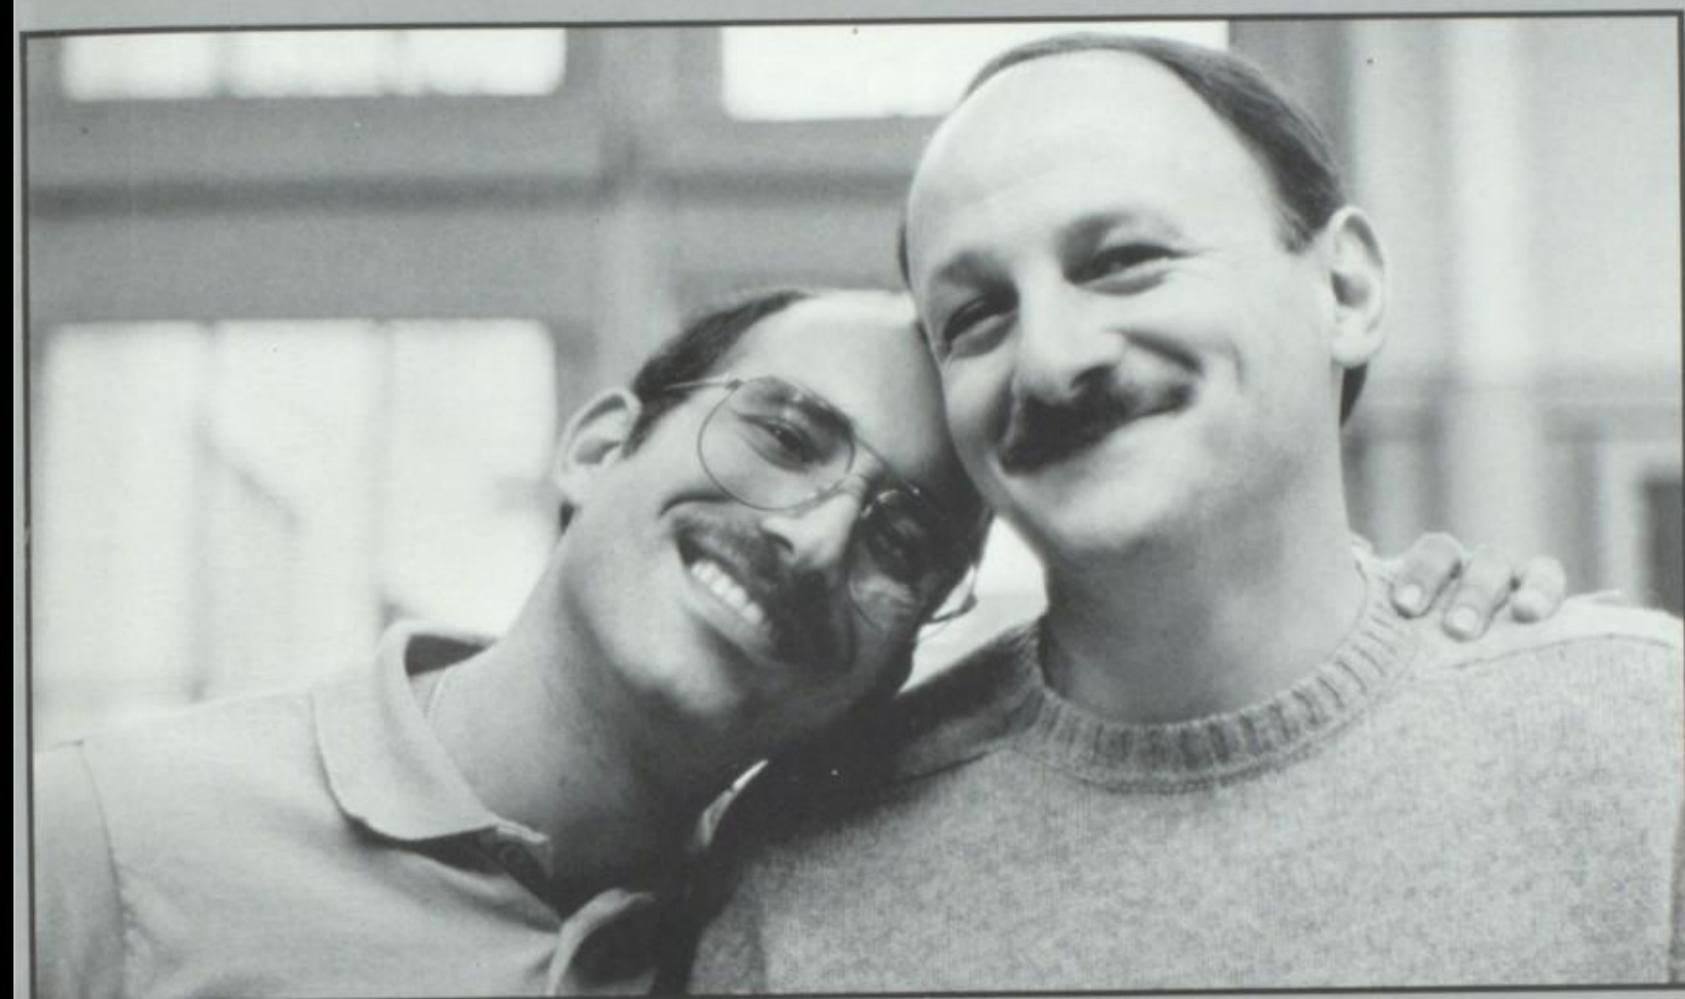

"Grey skies are gonna clear up. Put on a happy face."

Dear Graduates,

The class of 1986 has been a unique class among the scores of classes which have left their mark on Stuyvesant High School. Your achievements have been as remarkable and as noteworthy as those of any of your predecessors and, in some respects, exceeded many.

The football team had an undefeated season and won the Division Championship. The number of Westinghouse projects submitted was the greatest in the history of the school and involved more than 20% of the entire Senior class. These, and a host of other achievements which would take many pages of this volume to list, are an important part of what the Class of 1986 represents.

However, more important than all of the remarkable things you have done is the spirit and comradery evinced by this class. The sincere and profound sense of collegiality which each of you has manifested in the years you have been here, mark this class as a most special group. You will linger long in the memory of those of us who remain and who had the privilege of knowing you.

You helped to make Stuyvesant High School a place filled with memories which each of us and all of you will cherish.

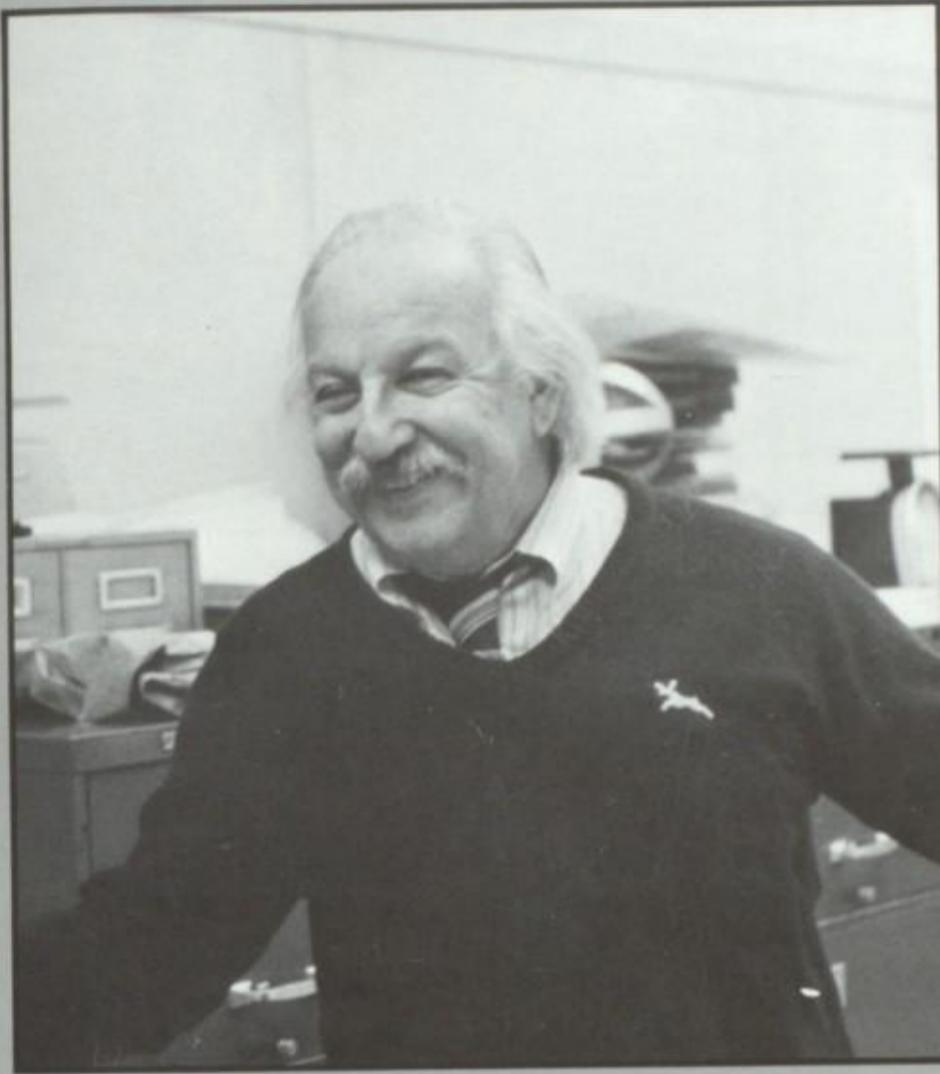

The theme of this Yearbook involved "Doors" which open to new opportunities, old vistas, and new visions. As Lewis Carroll, the mathematician and author of Alice in Wonderland noted in his delightful work, Alice opened doors in a magical way and discovered new worlds of logic and illogic. The lesson which Alice learned was remained a part of our literary legacy ever since. Just as Stuyvesant has attempted to direct each of you to "doors" of extraordinary variety of excitement, only you, as did Alice, can open them. And even more to the point, only you can pass through these doors into the world beyond. In Alice's case, she opened the doors and could not decide "who was it that dreamed it all." I trust that the dreams you envision as you open the doors to the future will be your dreams, fully realized. And I hope that you will remember the part that Stuyvesant played in the drama.

We shall remember you always as a class which contributed much to the life and spirit of our school. We hope you will look back with much joy to the time you spent here. You will always be a part of the history and tradition of Stuyvesant.

We wish you all good luck and good fortune.

Abraham Baumel
Principal

ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS

To the Class of 1986:

The theme of Indicator is DOOR. The images which are brought up by this four letter word — a place for entering and leaving —

— Enter the 15th Street door and take the test for Stuyvesant

- Enter the official class and meet all those new people
- Enter the classrooms and learn new material
- Enter 215A and try to learn how to change programs
- Enter the gym doors for the first dance
- Leave the school in June for that summer vacation
- Leave that interview room knowing that you won't go to Harvard

— Finally — leave the doors of Stuyvesant to enter those new doors to your future.

We are all looking to you to open those new doors of success, learning, knowledge, and to make our joint world a better place.

Murray Kahn
Assistant Principal

Dear Graduates:

We always remember our parents telling us, when we were children, "Whatever you do, do NOT open that door . . ." Although we were permitted to open a wider variety of doors as we matured, there always seemed to be a few more beyond our reach.

When you first arrived at Stuyvesant, our doors may have seemed imposing, perhaps, even a bit frightening, but once through the portals of 15th street, you learned that their purpose was not to keep you out, but rather to usher you in. For what lay beyond those doors were . . . more doors, and the rare opportunity to open each and every one of them.

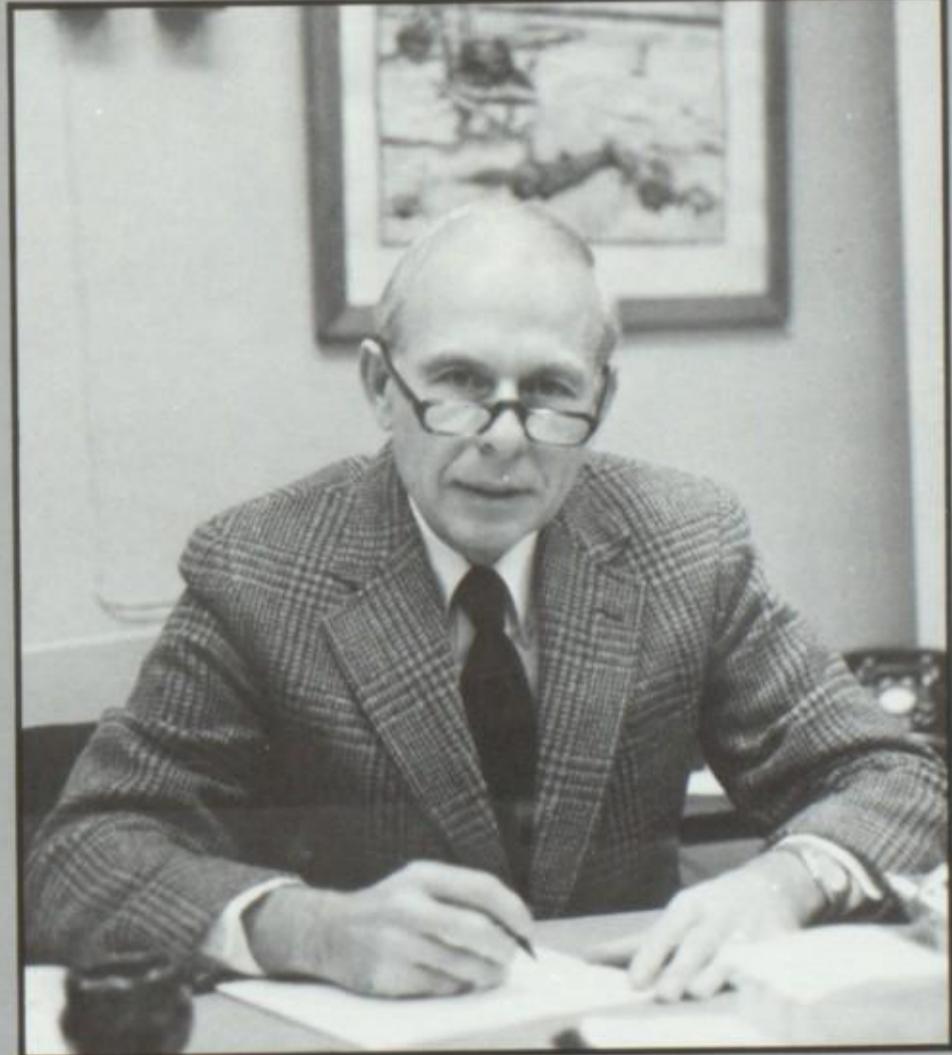

Soon, you will be passing through our doors bound for the outside world (but do come back to visit, for "our doors will always be open to you"). I hope that you take with you the same curiosity for what "lies beyond" that you brought to this school when you entered. I know that you will find that after a Stuyvesant education, the doors that seemed out of reach a few years ago, are now just an arm's length away.

Good luck and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Harold W. Lehrman

door (dōr, dōr) n. 1. A movable, usually hinged, panel used to open or close an entranceway. 2. An entranceway or passage. 3. A means of access. 4. The theme of Indicator '86.

A DOOR IS:

Transition — Moving from one environment into another: coming from sunbeams into the electric lit halls of school, from the safety of the auditorium to the severity of a classroom, the final connection as we balance growing old and growing young.

Escape — The possibility to flee: from last chances to the hope of new opportunities, slamming doors on term papers and failing grades, hiding in the shelter behind a locked door.

Separation — Physical barriers that divide and restrict: a rift between friends while a door closes quietly, a divergence of opinion as abstract doors complicate, pulling away from the past to hide it in closet darkness.

Choice — The ability to distinguish: opening storybook doors that lead to different endings, pleasing your parents while struggling to please yourself, . . . choosing the Right door.

It was another sunny day at Clown University. All the clowns were happy except for Joe. The students proceeded to kill him, and went on to their classes.

My parents always used to tell me to lower my music or I would damage something. They were right. One day I turned up my stereo really loud and the walls of the house fell in.

I put my mom in traction at the age of three because I had stepped on a crack on the way home from school.

Thoughts

If you ever travel in a time machine don't stick your elbow out the window, it might get taken off by a bus.

I remember Mr. Jones used to nail those jellybeans onto the floor and jump around saying "Jellybeans for everyone." We all thought he was crazy but then again we had a lot of growing up to do.

Kids really love a good joke. Tell them you're going to go to Disneyland, but instead take them to an old burnt-out farm and say "Here we are." They will probably start crying but deep down you know they think it is funny.

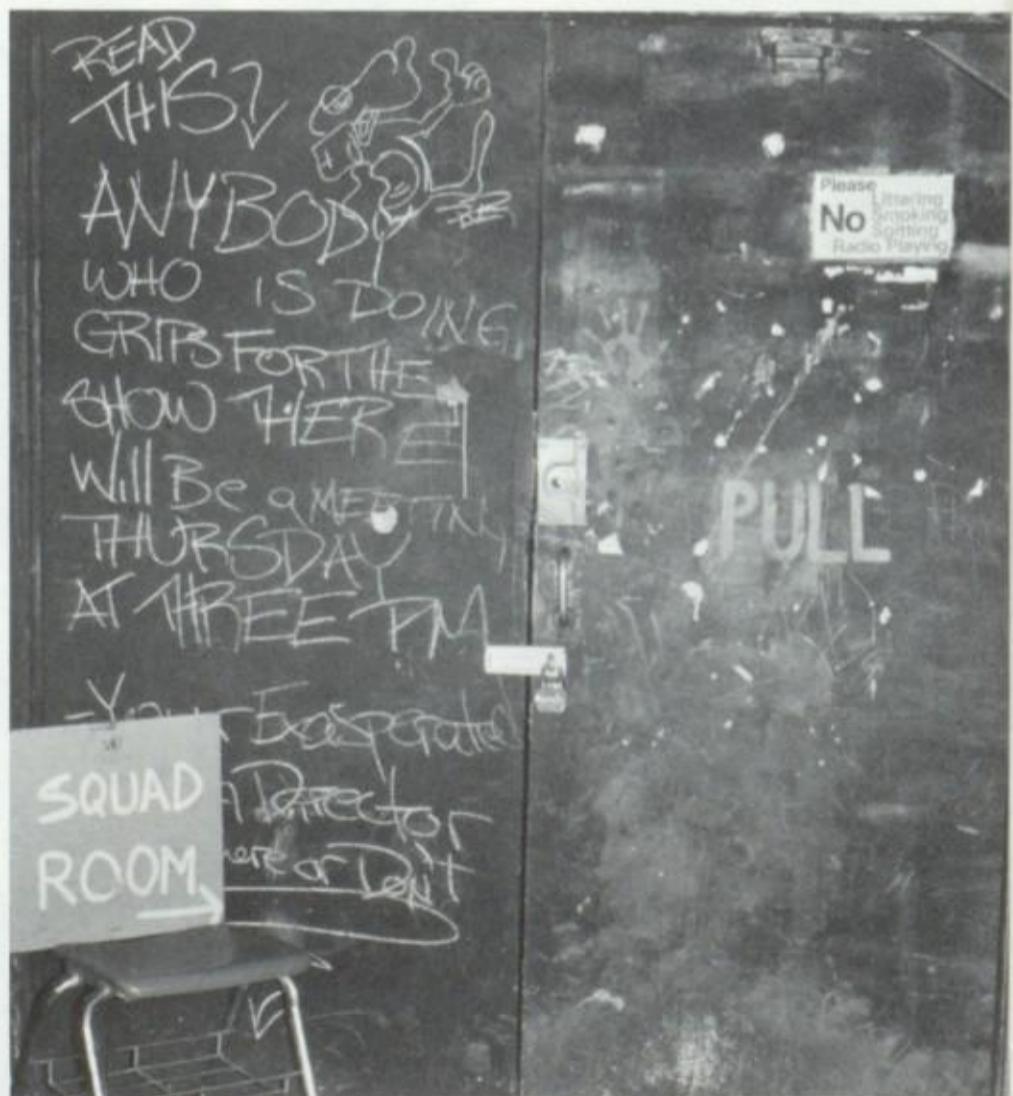

If you were a caveman wouldn't it be embarrassing if your friends evolved and you didn't.

She said "I really love these beets." I replied "Why don't you go into the bedroom and make love to the beets?" They didn't, but maybe they will one day, and I can watch.

My parents always said that there was nothing in the dark that wasn't there in the light. One night I turned on my light in the dark. They were wrong . . . But now we're all friends.

He had been raised by monkeys, but now it was time for him to move on . . . would it be MIT or Harvard . . . ?

Have you ever tried to smash a bottle over your head . . . it hurts a lot.

... so literary dumped sports on us because they were "too busy"; we thought maybe "too lazy" was more like it. Anyway, we tried warning them that we didn't know much about sports. We're not the type to document jock history but then we started thinking about these fabulous muscles and all those sweaty workouts and they did remind us we are their staff and we do want our names: Gina Marie, Danielle and Candy, listed in the yearbook. So we went out and got sporty outfits 'cause we didn't have a thing to wear and we figured, "You wanna do the job, you gotta dress the part."

"Is it true what they say about tall guys?"

"C'mon, let's concentrate on basketball."

"I wonder if the girls team drools too?"

"No, stupid. It's called dribbling."

"Don't call me stupid. All you know about basketball is that you have to score touchdowns."

"Boy, you two are really out of it. Even I know you don't score touchdowns in basketball. You score goals."

"Well, I do know that you gotta respect those girls, especially captains Jenny Wolsk and Alexa Eldred, for their great sacrifice to basketball."

"What sacrifice?"

"They actually cut their nails to play."

"Wowww."

BOYS BASEBALL

"Do guys on baseball teams chew tobacco?"

"Where d'ya hear that, Danielle?"

"I think I saw this guy do it on T.V. once."

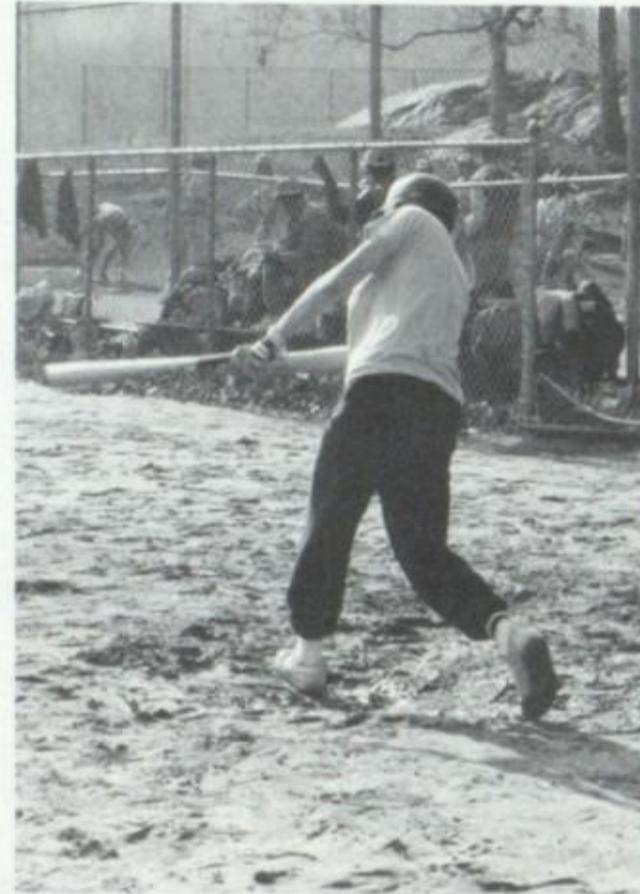

"I've never seen Matt Edwards, the captain, with a wad of tobacco in his mouth but if you actually watched a game then you're the expert."

"All I remember is that I thought it was the cruelest sport in the world. This guy stands on a small hill and throws a ball at a player as hard as he can. I think he gets points if he hits him. What's worse is that the player only gets a little stick to defend himself with."

"God! That's horrible!"

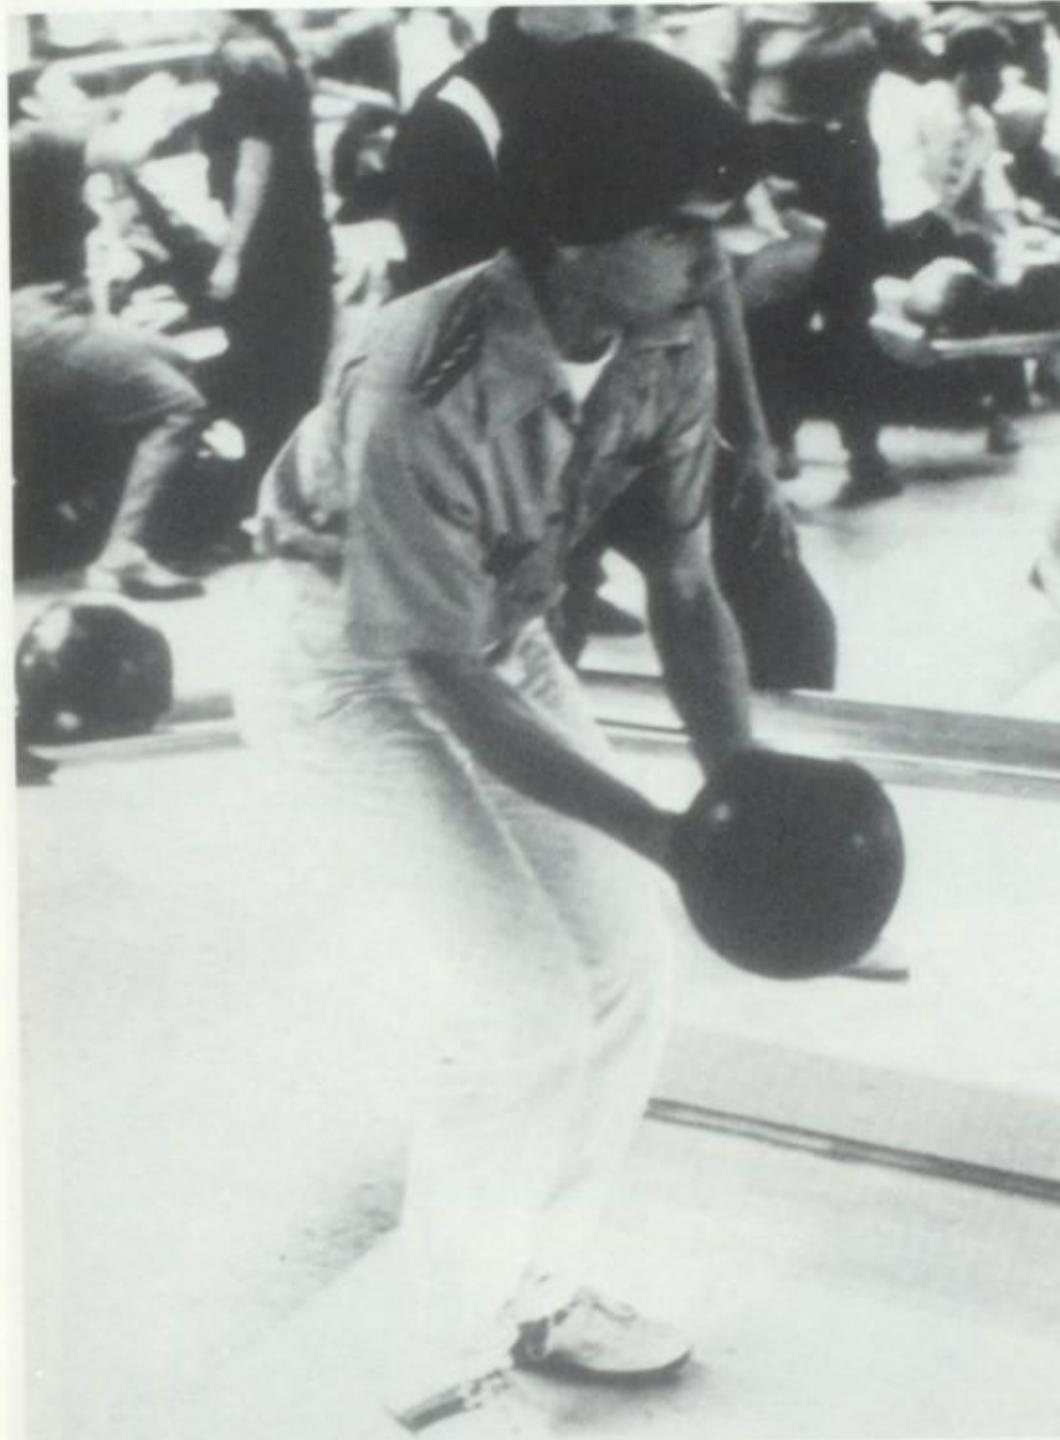

"Yeah, it's the most violent sport of all."

"Worse than even football."

BOWLING

"It's really nice the team's letting us practice with them today, huh, Candy?"

"But I've never played bowling before."

"Don't worry about it. At least you're wearing a really trendy bowling shirt."

"But, Gina Marie, why do I have to wear these shoes? Can't I use my own? These smell really bad and I'm gonna get some gross disease."

"Stop whining and go get a ball."

"I'm really worried about covering the boy's cross country team. Does this mean we have to go all the way to California?"

"Good. I've always wanted to go to California. I need a tan."

"Sorry to tell you this but the farthest the boy's cross country goes is Central Park."

"Well, I've been to Central Park before."

"Hell, I've been all the way to New Jersey!"

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

First Row: Becky Margulies, Jee Lian Yap, Jee hoon Yap, Doris Kwong, Amy Ma; Second Row: Gail Tieh, Elizabeth Miketich, Regina Rawner, Olivia Wong, Nancy Yung; Mr. Mason; Absent: Keir Peebles

"Well, I guess the girl's team doesn't go to California either."

"So you mean all they do is run around in circles?"

"I guess so."

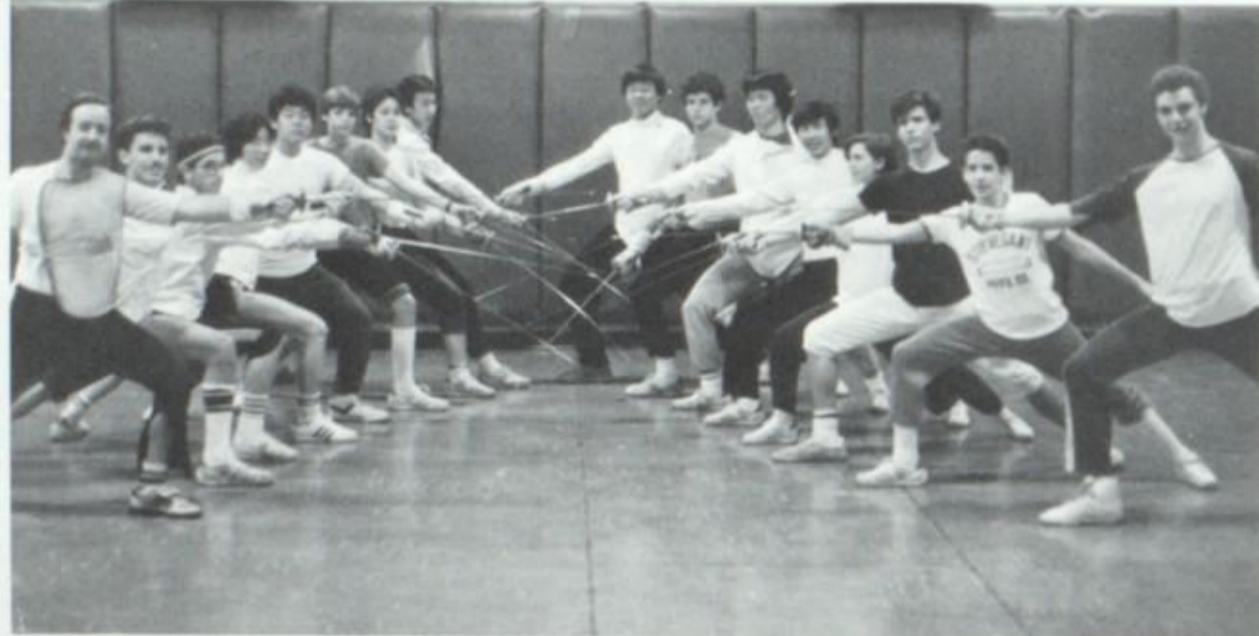

"Then, what's the point?"

"Yeah, what's the point?"

"Well, what about the idea of personal achievement, setting goals and reaching them, testing yourself to the outer limit —"

"Shut-up Candy."

FENCING

Left row: Herb Cohen (Coach), Eric Chasser (Capt.), Alex Asianov, Dodson Ng (Mgr.), Charles Yun, Mark Pavese, Tzu Moy (Capt.), Kazutushi Tominaga; Right row: Spartacus Shapiro, Ben Atkins, Stephen Purcell, Samantha Jory (Mgr.), Theodore Hsueh, Raymond Kong, Sean Woods, David Hom.

"Doesn't fencing have something to do with the Three Musketeers?"

"You mean the candy bar?"

"No, you idiot. I'm talking about those strange guys in leotards with French accents."

"I think a French accent is totally cute and men in tights turn me on."

"No way!"

"Well, anything's better than the clothes these people are wearing."

"Their uniform must be really hard to take care of. All white is so delicate."

"I don't think the fencing team really cares, Candy. They're division champs and Tzu Moy is like a national champ or something."

"They're that good! Boy, I'm impressed."

"Yeah, Y'know. Those candy bars . . . an unbeatable strategy."

FOOTBALL TEAM

Eric Altschuler, Horace Anderson, Joseph Applebaum, Robert Ayala, Daniel Belmonte, Avi Berg, Daniel Bowman, Irving Chin, Steven Ching, William Cody, David D'Alleva, Paul DeMartino, Lee D'Esposito, Andrew Erlich, Duane Felix, Josh Fischer, Bruce Frankle, Horacio Gutierrez, Greg Haluska, Alexander Hopkins, John Hughes, Mikhail Itkis, Michael Jacobs, John Jimenez, Jin John, Kyu Kim, Michael Kim, Jonathan Lawrence, HoJeung Lee, Philippe Leong, Steven Louie, John Madero, Berwyn Martinez, James Massa, Eric Math, Danny Min, Lincoln Ng, Matthew O'Brien, Sam Pack, Joshua Price, Richard Reyes, Kirk Russell, Christopher Ryan, Siwviel Sabravi, Robert Simon, Victor Thomas, Darryl Toler, Richard Velasco, Jonathan Winslow, Regan Yau, John DiSanto; Managers: Andrea Schneider, Sari Halper, Kristine Hirsch, Diana Lew, Cindy Lee, Meredith Hightower, Alice Kim, Esther Lastique, Steven Shaw, Christopher Cowon

"Where are we going?"
"You'll see. We're almost there."
"This better be worth missing General Hospital."
"It will be. Here we are."
"The Football team?"
"Yeah! We can watch them practice!"
"Why would we want to?"
"Are you kidding? How many opportunities do you usually get to watch 80 guys in tight pants?"
"Why are they all wearing eyeliner so far below their eyes?"
"That's not eyeliner idiot, that's to prevent the sun from reflecting into their eyes."
"Why don't they just wear ray-bans?"
"Oh yeah! They'd look so cute!"
"Will you two shut up. I'm trying to watch some serious hunks"
"Oh MY GOSH!
"What?"
"Th, th, that's Jon Lawrence! He's in my English class. Is he on the football team? WOW."
"I told you this would be worth it."
"I think Joey Applebaum is the cutest. He's such a good player. Look how fast he can run!"
"They're all great. They were division champs this year. They work great together Jon and Joey and Berwyn Martinez — he's got the cutest little calves — and Matt O'Brien."
"I could really get into watching the football team practice."

BOYS GYMNASTICS

"Oh my Gawd, I can't believe that boy over there is doing a split."

"He's on the boy's gymnastics team. They're supposed to be doing splits and all those weird exercises."

"Boys shouldn't be able to do things like that. It's just not fair!"

"Why's that?"

"Well, I can't even do a split."

"Don't worry, it's a very small team."

"I hope so. I have enough competition from girls without having to worry about boys."

Absent: Sandy Ganzell, Amy Butel

GIRLS GYMNASTICS

Maria Dimartino, Amy Lee, Orly Seumuelly, Pamela Madrid, Inchi Choi, Vilma Egan, Natalie Wojharowski, Paulinier Lee, Patty Yuen, Melissa Caldwell, Karen Onishi, Erika Irish

"What's going on?"
"I think it's a gymnastics meet."
"Gymnastics? Oh yeah — like all those gorgeous guys in the olympics — sigh — I didn't know girls did it too."
"Of course they do it stupid. Didn't you know?"
"Are you going to wear those funny parts the guys wear?"
"No! They wear Leotards. Gawd."
"Oh I see. My gosh, I could never be on this team. Those leotards would totally clash with my eyeshadow."
"I know. Besides they're too plain. They need ruffles or something classy."
"I couldn't be on this team — I think I'd break my back."
"They're so good. How do they do that? Check out that girl."
"That's captain Erika Irish. She's amazing."
"Wow. How does she do that? Is she wearing panty-hose?"
"Who cares if she's wearing panty-hose?"
"Well; you're not going to tell me the whole team competes bare-legged?"
"Oh gross."
"Who cares? They're not thinking about their legs."
"I would."
"But then you don't have the legs that Jessica Robinson or Orly Sammuelly have!"

BOYS SOCCER

"All right guys, let's go do boy's soccer."

"I hear the soccer team works really hard."

"What would you know about working hard, Candy?" The only work you do is making sure your nail polish doesn't crack."

"Okay. But what would you know about soccer?"

"Well, Patricio Meneses, the captain, told me that last year they won the Manhattan Division "B" title."

"So? What happened this year?"

"Stop being so critical, Candy. Look how cute they are in their little striped shirts."

"Anyway, now they're in the more competitive "A" division. I think soccer players in the "A" division are, like, faster and stronger and kick harder. That's why the team works so hard."

"I love a man who struggles."

GIRLS SOCCER

Margaret Lutfey, Sue Lee, Hannah Liebman, Stephanie Vroom, Reisha Gorig, Zoe Reiter.

"You know, I bet playing soccer is really hard on a girl's legs. Scratches and bruises and cuts. They must really love it."

"But think of the benefits. Strong, toned, angular legs. That's what all the fashion magazines are showing this spring."

"I've heard strange things about the girls soccer team."

"What d'ya mean?"

"Well, look at what they call their two captains — Zoe 'Mr. Ed' Reiter and Stephanie 'Zim-Boom' Vroom. And they've got a coach named Pepe."

"Why Pepe?"

"They tell him he's too short — oh m'god, look!"

"Hey, they're having a water fight!"

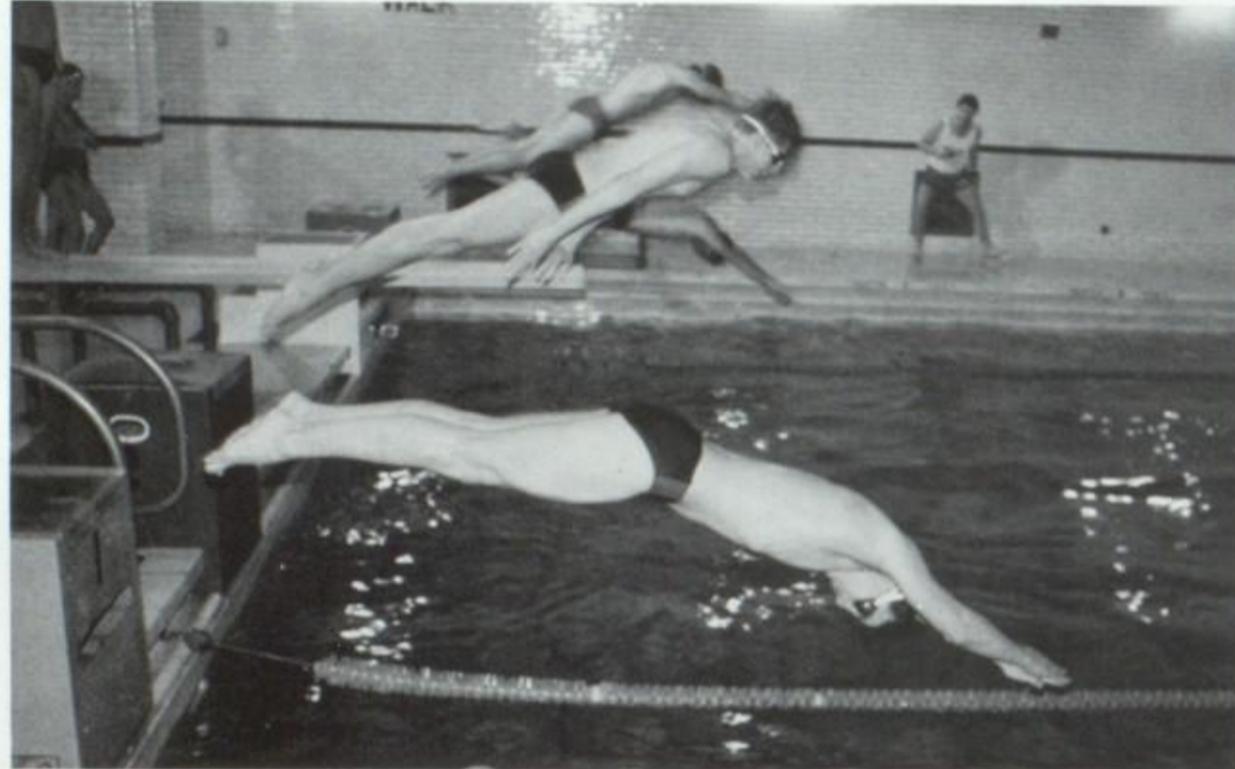

"Boy, they're pretty rowdy for a bunch of girls."

"It looks like fun."

"Gina Marie, you can't do that. Come back! Oh no, they're throwing their coach in the water fountain! Gina Marie, that's crazy."

"Yeah! Isn't the girls soccer team great!"

BOYS SWIMMING

"Boys swim team, Great! I love dripping wet men.
It looks like their oiled!"

"Danielle, stop talking like that, or we'll leave right now"

"But when I'm looking at lean, mean guys like John McCaffrey and Sam Shapiro, I can't help myself!"

"The team is more than just a bunch of pretty faces. They just missed repeating as City Champs this year."

"Sure that's important, but what I want to know is how they fit into those tight little bathing suits."

"Or why they swim something called 'the Butterfly'."

"Ooh that's a pretty name."

"Somehow I think we're getting off track"

GIRLS SWIMMING

Lisa Coppa, Julia King, Jessica Goldman, Emily Raimes, Nancy Mervish, Coach James Desimone, Wendy Park, Grace Sullivan, Dara Moore, Josh Holden (MGR), Heidi Herman, Jessica "NECK" Mahlab, Monique Lehon, Cathy Hennessy, Meg Creedon, Natascha Schell, Nancy Griffin, Cindy Lee, Nichole Fluhr, Nellie Molano, Sharon Volkhausen, Kati-Fly Kovacs (Capt.), Bernardine Wu (Capt.), Illicia Silverman, Lisa Kable, Jenny Warsowe, Mimi Lee. Missing: Jenny Wolfson, Jenny Gilbert, THE DUCK

"This is another one of those "nickname" teams."

"Y'know, like the two captains, "Bernard" Wu and "Kati-fly" Kovacs. And they're always calling each other "wench" for some reason, especially Nancy Griffin. She's a big "wench".

"What does "wench" mean, Gina Marie?"

"Didn't you ever read fairy tales when you were little, Candy?"

"You mean like the Three Little Bears?"

"Never mind, Candy. Never mind. Hey! What in the world are you wearing?"

"Oh, this is my pink day-glo leopard print bikini. I got it special at the Mall. I wanted to look good when we covered the swim team."

"You don't see anyone on the team wearing bikinis, do you, Candy?"

"Nooo, but they are wearing funny little rubber caps. Personally, I think someone should hint to them that's those are really unattractive."

"Unattractive! These girls are athletes. Every second counts. Hair really screws up timing."

"It does? Oh. What about cellulite? Does cellulite screw up timing?"

"Shut-up, Candy."

BOYS TENNIS

"Oh God! I'm so grossed out. Do you know what this tennis racket is made out of?"

"Calm down, Candy. It couldn't be that bad."

"Oh yeah? Not so bad, huh? Well, how does 'cat string' sound to you?"

"Oh god! I'm so grossed out." "Would you two cut it out! We're supposed to pay attention to the team practicing."

"Do they have one of those funny machines that spit out hundreds and hundreds of little yellow balls?"

"What are you talking about?"

"I saw it on this Tab commercial or something. It's the chic way to practice tennis."

"I don't think you practice tennis Candy. You practice your back hand, you practice your stroke but I don't think you practice Tennis."

"Since when do you know so much about tennis, Gina Marie?"

"Well, there was this guy . . ." "There was this guy!"

"Yeah, y'know, there was this guy . . ."

"John McEnroe!"

"Oh god! I'm so grossed out!"

GIRLS TENNIS

Eveline Leon, Barbara Gordon; Won Bae, Rosanne Mock, Sohee Yoon; Coach Martha Singer, Andrew Glassberg, Tennis Mascot.

"Tennis sounds good to me. Makes me think of sunny resorts, spas and tanned gorgeous tennis instructors."

"Since the girls tennis team practices at the FDR Drive, I doubt it's going to resemble a resort spa, Candy."

"You mean, they practice on the FDR drive."

"Yeah right, Candy. They practiced on the FD — what'dy a think, stupid!?"

"Well, I don't know. Those seniors from the team, Eveline Leon and Roxanne Mock, we're talking about the potholes and bumps . . ."

"Give it up, Candy."

BOYS TRACK

"What, another one of those track teams? It's like day d'ja view or something."

"What does that mean?"

"I don't know but it sounds right."

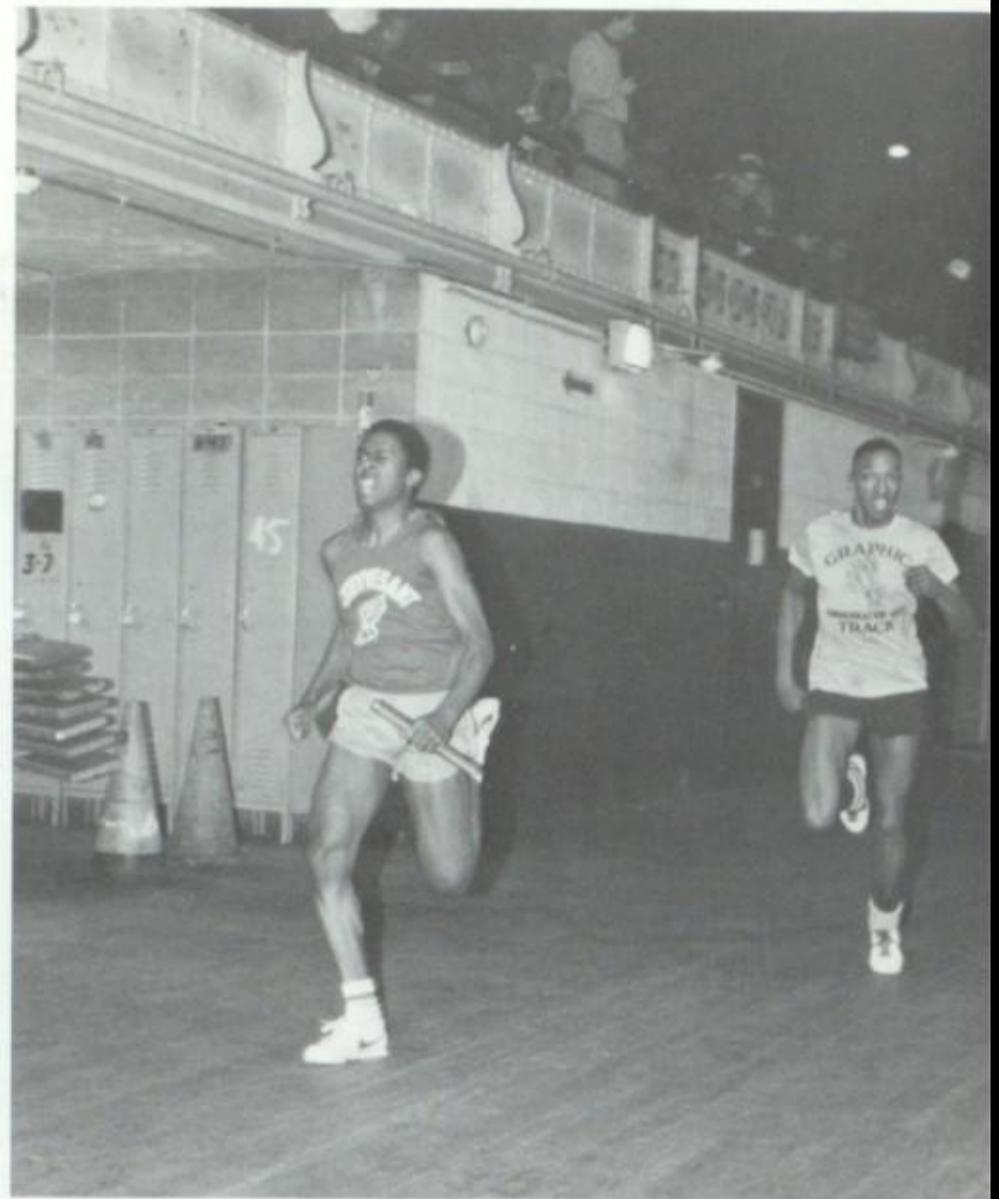

"Let's concentrate on the boy's indoor and outdoor track teams, guys. That is our job."

"I want to concentrate on captain Peter Argueta. They say he's very fast."

"But I'm still confused. Is it one team or two? And what's the difference between running around indoors or outdoors?"

"Maybe they run indoors when it rains and outdoors when they want to get a tan."

"I don't know but how 'bout we resolve these problems over girl's track?"

GIRLS TRACK

Jee Lian Yap, Doris Kwang, Captain Elizabeth Miketich, Regina Rawner, Chan Hee Song, Kier Peebles, Debbie Lee, Jean Shigemitsu, Margaret Chen, Laura Kong, Amy Ma, Justine Lee, Megan Yim, Karen Taeko Onishi, Seong Mi Oh, Rachel Egen, Moneeka Zaman, Lillian Kim, Jane Lee, Joohee Ha, Connie Chao, Tara Leung, Sabina Bhagwan, Khowong Phongsy, Grace Sun, Charlene Brown, Anita Kvan, Mo Young Lee, Cassandra Dillen, Leena Dutta, Irene Yu, Lubna Khan, Elizabeth Bettemaler, Erica Kim, Becky Margulies, Karin Goldmarls

"So I guess girl's track is just like boy's track which is just like boy's and girl's cross country."

"That's a real naive statement, Danielle."

"Why do you think you know everything Gina Marie? What's so different about them then?"

"On track, they run around in circles."

"Ah, ha! Gotcha! You said they run around in circles for cross country. I can show you right here."

"Don't bother. I mean they run around in circles on a circular track inside"

"But I thought it was indoor and outdoor track."

"Oh, yeah. Well, uh, I dunno. Maybe they run on a circular track inside and outside, maybe we should ask Doris Kwong, their captain, maybe they run in triangular circles inside and spherical circles outside, maybe they just run around in circles, plain circles, regular circles, maybe . . . I guess..."

"...I guess girl's track is just like boy's track which is just like boy's and girl's cross country."

VOLLEYBALL

"Danielle, get over here. Jennie Opp, the captain, is starting pre-game meditation."

"O.K. you guys, we've got 10 minutes 'til gametime. Just enough to get into that VOLLEYBALL state of mind. Now, close your eyes . . . and clear your head . . . ahh, here it comes . . . that big, white, gleaming volleyball!! And now you see it floating into a perfect sit —"

"Sit! What's a sit, Gina Marie? Y'mean you sit down to hit it?"

"— your hand meets the glistening white sphere and . . . SPLAT!"

"SPLAT!? What'd they hit . . . a tomato?"

"Now we will begin our chant . . . mmm . . . volleyball . . . volleyball . . ."

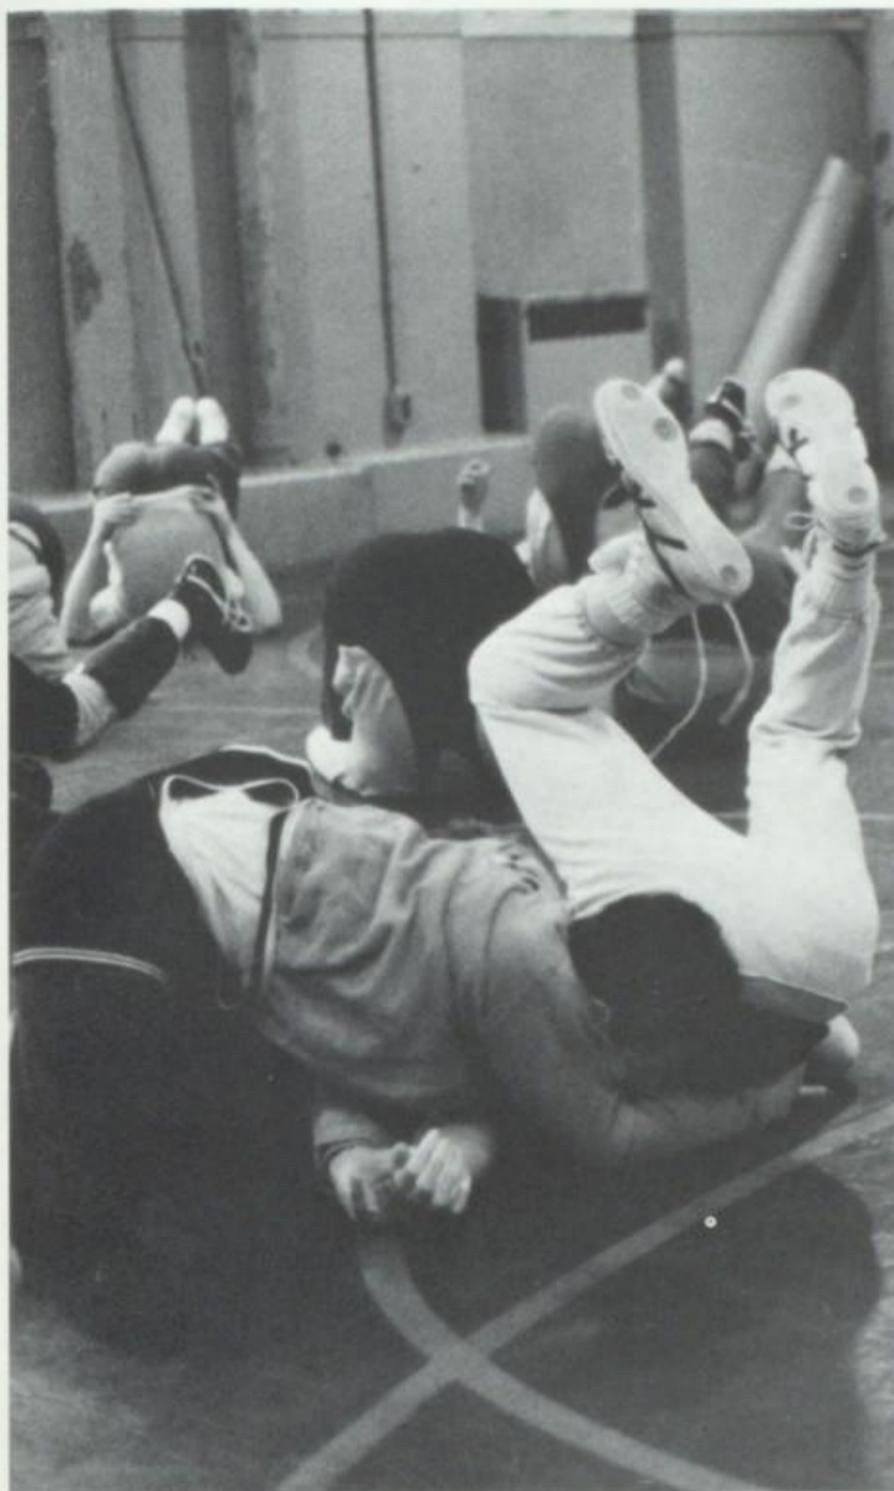

"What are those four girls doing?"

"Oh, that's Heidi, Chris and the two Jenny's doing the tango across the court."

"Tango? I'm so confused. I thought this was the volleyball team. Since when do we have a dance team?"

WRESTLING

"Danielle, Candy, how does this sound for the opening to our wrestling piece? 'With spotlights flashing and "Ironman" blasting, the Stuyvesant Warriors came out to meet their archrival DeWitt Clinton . . . ?'

"What kind of writing is that, Gina Marie?! That doesn't sound like you at all."

"It's, like, sports journalism style or something. Its, like, the way we were supposed to write the whole sports section."

"But it doesn't have any of us in it. No personality, no spark, no giggles."

"No stupid comments."

"Gina Marie, that's not nice. We're not stupid."

"Oh, I don't know. But if we were real sports writers we'd talk about factual things, like, list the players and their personal weights."

"Their weights! They want their weight to be published"

"Yeah, like captain David Leichtman (126), captain George Lee (132), captain Tim Murray (138), Nat Sharpe (155) —"

"Enough, enough! I can't stand it. It's so boring!"

"Enough, enough! I can't stand it! Look at what those guys are wearing. Look at those muscles —"

"Oh god! She fainted."

"And you wanted to try professional sports journalism, smart, Gina Marie, smart."

CHEERLEADERS BOOSTERS

"I think I'm going to be sick looking at all these cheerleaders and boosters. They've got such perfect bods."
"Well, they practice all the time and many of the girls are already on other teams. That's why they look so good."
"I knew it. There's never an easy way out."
"But what exactly do they do? Other than look so pretty with pom-poms."
"Just about everything. They go to all the games, cheer for our teams, lead pep rallies, and try to raise the school's spirit as a whole."
"All I can say is that they've lowered my spirit."

Cheerleaders

Robin Levi, Melanie Sy, Coney Cinco, Heather Lubov, Linda Baker, Inchi Chow, Armi Sevilla — Sec., Anna Fung, Rosin Kim, Mae Cheng, Erika Irish — Capt.

Boosters

Anike Branch, Jenny Lee, Trina Goodman, Nichole Bratcwaite (Cap't), Linda Dehart, Carolann Huggins, Anastasia Xenias, Lucy Leung, Tina Silvestri, Lisa Marie Benjamin (Co-Capt), Kate Feldman, Wen Wai Wang, Geinia Lynch, Temitayo Ajayi, Nora Bloch, Mariana Chan, Eva Jean-Jerome

HANDBALL

"Handball? Stuyvesant doesn't have a handball team."
"Then, genius, why are we here covering them if they don't exist?"
"All I know is that our school doesn't have a handball team."
"Danielle, sometimes you are so spaced out. Do you think this is some big joke Yearbook is playing on us? All those people over there hitting balls against a wall are just acting, and those jackets that say 'Handball Team' on them are fake, and . . ."
"I guess it could be true."
"Of course it's true. This team is made up of an extremely dedicated group of players who practice long hours and devote themselves completely to the sport."
"So, Danielle, do you have anything else to say?"
"Yeah, I sure hope they use moisturizer on their hands."

Freshman Year

Couldn't believe it. We were finally in high school. Not confined to a single neighborhood anymore as the subways and the buses gave us our first (somewhat less than perfect) stab at independence. Our first Stuyvesant Dances Friday nights and we never missed one. Our first Sing, our first Excursion Day . . . our first Everything. We had found ourselves in a crumbling building with overcrowded classrooms and outdated equipment — and we loved it. Hanging out in the auditorium before homeroom, experiencing Earth Science and gaping at seniors. We tossed our wings and survived our mistakes. Finally, at the end of the year, we prospective sophomores left for the summer, saying goodbye and thank you to Mr. Tewel.

First Impressions of Stuyvesant

Sophomore Year

We returned for the second time and met the Incomings and a different principal. Our class had doubled and had a new feeling. Introduction to Drafting and possibly cutting. Coffee at Ambrosia and exploration of Mariella's, DiBella's, and Chinese. Double science meant double labs and lots of lab book sharing. Programs were still negotiable and a little erasing worked wonders. People were remembered and our friendships were fortified. Excursion Day was rowdy and wild. Barron Books for many Regents. The beginning of Achievements for some and the onset of fear of Junior Year for everyone. Instead of infatuated freshmen, this time we were disillusioned sophomores.

Junior Year

As new Juniors, we returned to our school suntanned and confident. Upperclassmen now, halls were recognizable, teachers' names went with faces, and all of us knew the tricks. Except that the computers had taken over and programs were set in stone. Threats of computerized attendance and report cards loomed for the future. But for the moment we had to deal with the present dangers. Princeton Review and college folders were the first obstacles to face. So many letters played a role on our lives. SSR's, PSAT's and at last SAT's ended the hectic year that had begun so smoothly. We left for the summer relieved and tired.

Senior Year

A certain numbness fell over us. Places and faces were not familiar — just old. We wanted to get out of here so badly and start over. Coats, ties, and pretty dresses appeared in school marking the period of interviews. College essays were written, thrown away, and written again. The slow process of applying to colleges had begun and for the first half of the year we went around walking on eggshells. Then, a second term attitude took over of "I don't care anymore" and we all dropped into a steady slide. The wait for the envelopes came next, thick ones meant celebrating, thin ones tears. Finally all that was over and without that weight, we finished the year savoring final high school moments. Our last Sing, our last Excursion Day, ... our last Everything. And we say goodbye, signing these yearbooks, promising to write friends, and remembering the four years spent here.

Spectator

Yes, Virginia, there is a Spectator. It comes out once a month (more or less), provided the editors don't go completely bonkers beforehand. This year, The Spectator has established several traditions, the most auspicious being Spectator Appreciation Day (and there is still time to take an editor out to lunch!). In addition to reporting the news, features, editorials and sports, the editors have tried to inject a bit of humor into the paper. Whether it's been successful or not, is up to you. Nevertheless, Stuyvesant's official newspaper goes on as usual. Satisfied now Virginia?

Speech and Debate Team

The team "debate nerds" certainly does not apply to this funloving group. We spend our weekends traveling the country to compete at tournaments and meet all sorts of interesting people. The grocery list of trophies and honors is just an element of this team. Perhaps, you've seen us walking down the halls with strangely shaped "hardware" — that's only part of it. Our main objective is to hone our communication skills while enjoying ourselves.

Arista

A chapter of the National Honor Society, Arista is an organization which promotes leadership, scholarship, and excellence in character. Coordinated by outstanding students, Arista benefits both its members and non-members by providing book sales, tutoring and ushering services, and opportunities to visit various colleges. Furthermore, through its visitation program and Save the Children charity bake sales, the society extends its services to students of other schools and children of the other countries. Students involved in Arista are encouraged to discover their own potential as individuals. While helping others, they have the opportunity to develop personal strengths and self-confidence by contributing to the community.

Adopt-A-Patient

Last year, this student-run volunteer program consisted of students going over to Beth Israel Hospital where each was assigned an elderly patient to visit. Since those patients that are visited do not normally have friends or family who come regularly, we try to replace the feelings of loneliness with caring and compassion. This year, the program was expanded from the original ten students to the present fifty. After months of planning, telephone calls and meetings, the program stretched even farther into the community. Now with Adopt-A-Grandchild, students can visit the homebound elderly, help with shopping, errands and hassles, and still continue to work in another local hospital for Visit-A-Patient. The program is hoping to expand even more to include Adopt-A-Friend at a Veteran's Hospital in the neighborhood.

Blood Drive

The Blood Drive Team is a remarkable unit which sponsors major blood drives several times a year. Using sharp needles, dedicated students extract blood from those who are generous. Other members help publicize the group and its activities by means of posted bulletins, announcements, or banners.

The Volunteer Impact Program

The Volunteer Impact Program's members participate in community service by volunteering in various departments at Beth Israel Medical Center. The members of this program are the lucky few who have something to write in the "Community Service" section of college applications.

Westinghouse Semi-finalists

All those hours spent in the lab paid off for the 22 seniors who were semi-finalists in the Westinghouse science talent search. Their projects, dealing with everything from math to the maximum speed limit, earned them prestige as well as the chance to compete for finalist standing. Two students from Stuy, Mariann Wang and Carl Park, qualified for the five day trip to Washington during which the top ten winners were chosen. Congratulations!

Inspiration

Most high school artsy types have to wait for inspiration to hit them, an often painful and time consuming process. Most high school artsy types have to resort to eating macrobiotic food, visiting avant garde museums and dying their hair in day-glo colors. But Stuyvesant artsy types (and even non-artsy types) can buy inspiration as easily as they can buy grades or M&M's. And it only costs 50¢.

Caliper

Caliper's bout words 'n pictures.

Kaleidoscope

Kaleidoscope, Stuyvesant's award-winning foreign language publication, is composed of articles based on a central theme (This year's is OBSESSION). Articles range from poetry to prose, written in various languages and accompanied by illustrations and photographs.

Spectrum

Spectrum is a publication of the Industrial Arts Department. It covers all aspects of technology, from the latest computer advances, to the most recent revolutionary ideas in industrial arts. This publication is for all those Einsteins that give Stuyvesant a bad reputation.

Antares

Antares is the official publication of Planet Zoton — 7 and the only magazine understood by 5-dimensional aliens.

Athletae Maximi

Yes, you guessed it, a magazine written by the jocks, for the jocks, and of the jocks. This publication gives insights into the sports teams, including seasonal records and coach profiles. It shows a part of Stuyvesant that is often lost amongst the chemistry labs and calculus books.

Benadine Wu, John McCaffrey, David Leichtman, Peter Garland, Orly Samuely, Eveline Leon, Sam Shapiro, Stephanie Vroom, Jeff Schaeffer

"Bio-Med Times"

"Bio-Med Times" is Stuyvesant High School's biological science publication serving those unfortunate students who have not yet taken hygiene, and therefore need formal education in the matters of "the birds and the bees". Through the research done in writing these articles, greater knowledge of biology, and . . . other matters . . . is acquired.

Environment Times

What do the Russians have to do with acid rain? We have no idea, but they have everything to do with everything. If we can get to the bottom of this affair it won't do us any good! But that doesn't stop us from publishing . . . Environment Times!

Expressions

Expressions, the publication of the black students league, focuses on the experiences of the black students at Stuyvesant expressed through articles, short stories and poetry.

Forum

Forum is a forum for wide-ranging opinions and insightful observations as to the past, present, and future state of the national and international socio-political arena. We salute the rulers of tomorrow and wish the class of 1986 a successful and fulfilling future.

Jeremy Pam, Ira Brody — Editors
Tanya Miller, Andrew Cranis, Ozan Gurel, Jonathan Rabinowitz

Tarbut Irvit (The Hebrew Culture Magazine)

All too often, when people think about Hebrew Culture, all that appears in their minds is a matzoh-ball. Well, you're right!!

First row: Mark Albom, Melinda Peretson, Danna Kalkstein, Karin Kalkstein, Nanette Silverberg — Editor, Dorene Kahn, Matthew Fassler, Jodi Pulver — Editor, Monique Lehon, Daniel Menes, John Kim, Adam Davidson, Julie Tu, Felice Bunker, Susan A. Suh.

Straphanger

Straphangers are those of us who hang on to straps on subways or buses (you know, those metal bars). The club deals with mass transit issues, and annually publishes a magazine to keep students up-to-date on the latest subway happenings.

Voice

the picture, the name, and many more.

Adventurers' Society

We, the descendants of this club, shall be known as The Adventurers' Society do hereby establish this organization for three purposes: a) to bring unification and order to the "gamers" b) the provision of entertainment & enjoyment to all "gamers"; and c) to give the awareness to "gamers" concerning the universe of games.

First row: Tak Wong — V. Pres., Johann Lynch, Gary Moy — Pres., Robert Brandwein, G. A. Rosenstein; Second row: Neil Vranic, Thomas Wu, Corin See, James Wu.

First row: Wing Tang — Vice President, Elizabeth Hong — President, Michelle Fishman, Susy Tsang;
Second row: Harshan Jayaraman, Kevin Chiu, Lee Behlman, Zinovia Spezakis; Third row: Jimmy Yee, Albert Lin, Liezl Gonzales, Fourth row: Jason Israel. Absent: Jerry Katz, Dorene Kahn.

Astronomy Club

Space . . . the final frontier. Our mission — to discover new life forms and civilizations. To boldly know what no person has known before. As loyal Halley's Comet watchers and Hayden Planetarium-goers, we discuss everything from red dwarves, white dwarves and the seven dwarfs, to blue giants, white giants and jolly green giants.

Backgammon Club

The Backgammon Club, which doubles as the Satanic Ritual Society, has two main objectives. First obviously, is to backgammon. The second is to worship Lucifer. Fun trips to visit the Darklord are frequent. Remember, Satan says, "Play Backgammon!"

First row: Mr. Philips, Alexandre B. Sugiyama, David Pyun Second row: Ivan Cohne, J. Peter Adler — Pres.,
Leon Rozenblitz, David Goldsmith, Third row: Richard McKay, Vernon Silver

Breakfast Club

This club was created for the kind of students who can't seem to make it through early classes without first stopping off for some coffee and a cigarette. In fact, the club accommodates those people who can't handle classes in the late morning, early afternoon, late afternoon . . . etc. "Breakfast" is a word interpreted very loosely among club members with meetings held throughout the day, alternating between Stavy's and Ambrosia.

Gregg A. Rosenstein, Gary K. Moy, Robert Brandwiis, Tak Wong

Champions

Champions, the superhero role playing game club, casters to all those people with inferiority complexes that need to live in a world of fantasy . . . of champions.

Chess Team

The chess team is noted for being the only team in recent history to win the National Championships two years in a row, in 1984 and 1985. The city and state championship tournaments have never presented a problem for stuyvesant, and we have won all of them for the past three years (except for a lackluster performance at the 1985 State Championships which saw the chess team take a disappointing second place). Captains Miro Reverby and David Lerner look forward to possibly winning the National Championships for a third consecutive year as well as a possible match via-satellite with the British High School Champions.

Jin Song (fourth board), Miro Reverby (first board), David Lerner (second board), Joaquim Guedes (alternate); Missing; Andrew Chan (third board).

C.L.A.S.S. (Coalition of liberals at Stuyvesant)

We're not sure what we do, but at least it's liberal.

Stephanie Willman — co-pres., Jesica Bornimen — co-pres., Robert Ascenzi, Eddie Hai, Q. Lovelady — pres., India "Wucius" Amos — treas., Eric Chin, Unky Fresh, Henry Chung;

Comic Book Club

The comic book club is every comic collector's dream come true. Hundreds of comics have been bought, sold, and traded here, there's nothing you can't get. Actually, to be honest, the comic book club was created for those people who dislike reading and who would rather substitute classic literature with colored pictures.

Bennet Cobliner, Jason Chu, Conrad Strabone, Jason Tam, Michael Center, Gary K. Moy — Pres., Vincent Dang, Jeff Stabone, Frederick Hsu — v. pres., Vinny Recca, Adem Dino, Gregg Capisito;

The Cotton Club

The Cotton Club is an organization dedicated to the promotion of all cotton products. They have held numerous demonstrations denouncing synthetic fibers and several heated debates over the advantages cotton swabs have over the average leading brand. Finally, they have recently written a report to the New England Journal of Medicine denouncing the rumor that sterility can be caused by cotton balls.

Country Club

Are you ever in the mood to JUST READ and almanac? Ever ask your friends if they "Want to talk geography?" Then the country club is for you! Members spend their time reading maps of their favorite countries, staring at globes, and as one of them put it "Hanging around the U.N. building." P.S. — The club says that Paraguay is the country of the week.

The Dance Committee

The Dance Committee works hard for the benefit of others. They sacrificed their own time to organize, fund, and publicize the major Stuyvesant dances, as well as design the silly banners. Their decoration of the gym is so elaborate that it becomes difficult to distinguish it from a real dance floor.

Films Committee

Hey! Is someone bringing the tape? We're supposed to start in five minutes, guys. Somebody go get Ira! (The Films Committee shows movies in Room 321 on Friday afternoons) From us to you! "So long and thanks for all the fish!"

Club Foot

Club Foot, Stuyvesant's lowest institution, was created for the sole purpose of promoting foot care. The club's many activities include pedicures and the ever-popular Sock-Hop at which they show their favorite movies Footloose and Footsie. As exciting as it all sounds, club members have reputations as being callous heels, as shown by the recent flop of their annually held Foot Ball.

Members: Tony Ales, "Fun" Gus Tweentoes, "Cutie" Kulls, Ann Kulls, Shusan Tied. Faculty Advisors: Mrs. O'doris & Mr. S. Melly

Frontlash

At Frontlash, a student learns more outside of the classroom than in. Only by taking an active part in society can our education be complete. Non-partisan Frontlash is devoted to increasing student's social and political awareness.

Model UN

Model UN is a yearly convention which resembles the practices and goals of the United Nations. It meets for three days during the Easter vacation and is attended by schools from all over the country. Stuyvesant has a prestigious reputation at the Model UN and almost always gets awards for her fine participation.

The High Council Dr. Who Fan Club

The High Council celebrates science fiction T.V. at its best: Dr. Who fans from all over Stuyvesant get together to watch videos, play games, trade books and magazines, and generally have their version of a good time. While consuming massive amounts of Combos and Pepsi, stories are told, ideas are shared, and explicit pictures are drawn on the blackboard. All of this leads to the club motto: "dure we're doofy, but hell, we're O.K."

Michael Guitchfield, Jon Malamy, Delon Abrams, Benjie Shapiro, Daniel Katosh, Barry Isralewitz, Chris Pywait, David Moon, William Yang, Lee Arrington, Jesse Kalb, Vijay Shah, Alex Pinley

Sobham Basu, Allen Knutson, Daniel Menes — President, Richard Chen. Missing: Alexander Chen, Elizabeth Menes, Patrick Smith

Investment and Money Management Club

This club seeks to increase students awareness and interest in finance, financial institutions and capital markets, weekly discussions cover topics such as stocks, bonds, commodity trading, stock exchanges and other methods of investment. Stock selection games take place throughout the year.

JETS (Junior Engineering Technical Society)

Our school's chapter of Jets, which is a national organization, promotes engineering as an interest and a hobby for high school students, here at Stuyvesant. We do this by publishing an engineering periodical and by participating in various fairs. Last year, Stuyvesant Jets members won in almost all categories in the teams competition, while this year we hope to add to our victories by winning the Brookhaven Labs Bridge Building contest and other engineering fairs which are designed to test students' engineering skills as well as their ingenuity.

Night Club

OW! Who turned off the lights!?

Math Team

Stuyvesant's Math team is one of the school's oldest institutions. Stuyvesant is undefeated in interscholastic competitions on the city, state and national levels this year. In addition, many of our students have distinguished themselves as individual high scorers in these competitions. The math team practices problem-solving in advanced high school mathematics every morning at 8:00 in room 512. It has benefitted this year from the able leadership of coaches R. Geller and K. Ritterman. If you can add it or subtract it, call us!

Musical Expressions

Contrary to belief, the members of this club are not hell-raising, devil-worshipping, burnt out, noise-making fruit-loops. Nor do we sell mind-altering substances during club meetings. What we actually do, is trade playing techniques and styles. Musical Expressions has already started to perform for people, and is expected to stage a full stadium tour soon.

Nuclear Winter

Nuclear Winter is the student activist club at Stuyvesant. We are concerned with all progressive causes including environmental problems and women's rights.

Society for the Prevention of Bruised Fruit

In recent weeks, an alarming trend has been brought to the public's attention. More and more, people are showing absolutely no regard for the health and welfare of their fruit. That's right, you heard me Fruit! Police reports for the past year show dramatic increases in the reported cases of abused apples, oranges, peaches, and grapes and say many more cases go unreported. To combat this problem, the society for the prevention of bruised fruit was formed, pledging as their president states "to stop these murderers"

Club Med

If you also have problems with nagging older relatives or need to find yet another prestigious sounding club for college applications, you'll fit right in with the members of Club Med: those would-be, as well as never-to-be, aspiring pre-Medical college majors. Club activities include dabbling in afternoon adventures in the Beth Israel operation room and shopping at Benetton's for new white sweaters; pre-Med students always wear white.

Mindy Lee, Pamela Chan, Winfield Eng, G. A. Rosenstein, Billy Hum, Howie Fishman, Gary Moy, John Lee, Robert Brandwein, David Felcan, Tak Wong, Johann Lynch.

Mindbenders

Mindbenders, an organization aiming to keep the sanity of its psychologically deranged members, journeys into a dimension of mental warfare . . . We pride ourselves in attempting to solve the puzzle of life and the mystery that surrounds us all. People often wonder, "Are they made?" They answer "No, just the rest of the world."

Military Studies Group

This group is for those who are interested in U.S., NATO and Warsaw Pact weaponry, tactics and policies. We believe in a strong national defense and discuss the difference between U.S. and Soviet weaponry, tactics and goals and how these affect us all.

Flavio Bastiani — President, Jean, Chan, Jason, and Graham.

Pen Station

Our club concentrates upon the development of one's artistic abilities in the commercial, graphic, classical, and especially comic book field. Let's have fun as we learn to plot, pencil, art (from Picasso to John Byrne), and to apply our skills and ideas to the fullest. There is a possibility of having a publication.

Emily Garabedian, Jody Sperhig, Raymond Leung, Chris Flaherty, Norman Finkelstein.

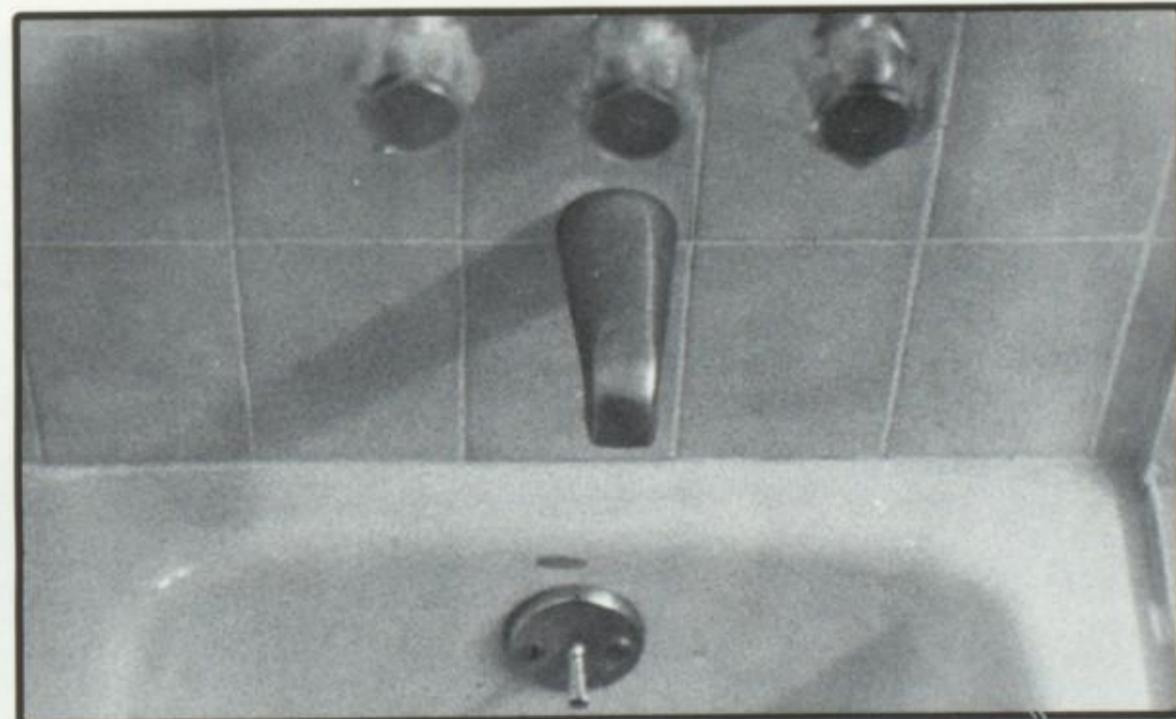

Amy Martin, Alexis Sears — Co-Presidents, Mary Beth Curley, Karen Abrams, Saul Anton, Caroline Cuevas, Katherine Sorel, Sekka Scher.

Poetry Club

The purpose of the Poetry Club is for those interested in writing poetry to come to a comfortable setting to share and to get advice on their work. We hope to use member's poetry in the third annual Stuyvesant Poetry Reading. This is really simply a workshop for amateur or experience poets.

Club Tub

People with a consuming passion for bathroom fixtures started this organization to share their common interest. The club divides itself into many specialty section (e.g. toilets, sinks) though the bathtub crowd dominates the scene. Upcoming meeting will discuss such relevant topics as "The Bidet: Can it make it in America?" and "Porcelain or Plastic — The Ultimate Conflict."

Seekers

Seekers is a nationwide organization for college and high school students which is based on fellowship and discusses the virtues of Christianity and the problems the Christian student might face. There are groups like this stationed in schools across the country, and we just happen to be Stuyvesant's own. We meet to learn from and with each other.

Jiu Kim, Dana Wu, Ernest Ta, John Kim, Chan Hee Song, Jean Shigemitsu, Sun Yeon Son, Benjamin Lin, Ronald La Boy, Tony Kim, Chris Loud, Sufinsa Ta, Esther Sung, Chung Park, Andrew Yick, Stephen Wilson. Absent: Susan Lee — President, Karen Sauer, Kara Chung, Grace Karin, Joo Hee Lee, Myra Choi, Hung Ching, Ruth Yun, John Cienki.

S.C.R.A.P.

The Society of Role Playing and Adventure Players was designed to exercise and improve diplomatic and strategic skills. At the same time, it tries to expand the mind through role playing.

Club Soda

Club Soda deals with the complex and fascinating issues found in the world of carbonated soft drinks. People in the club can voice their opinions about many challenging and controversial matters including: "The Cola Wars: Who's better, Coke or Pepsi?", "The Danger of 'Natural' Sodas", and "Why did anyone ever invent Dr. Pepper?" Most of the time, however, the club members just end up giving each other taste tests and burping a lot.

Stage Band

"Sex, drugs, and Big Bands music."

First row: Peter "Special K" Knerr, Paul "Iceman" Eiss, Josh "Mr. Cool" Murray, Chris "Mad-Dog" Byars, Jiu "Rhapsody in Blue" Kim, Ammon "Hippie" Shea; Second row: Janet "Bubbles" Fordunski, J. Peter "Homeboy" Adler, Nadine "Demon" Freeman, Danny "Lovebutt" Peisach; Third row: Andy "Animal" Gordon, Jordan "Funky Pants" Sonnenblick, Damon "Kiss-me" Osgood, Dave "Mu-mu" Murrell, Johann "Echo" Lynch, Eric "In the mood" Walsh, Annette "Harpo" Jolles, Tim "Slowhand" Mapes, William "Willie" Yang, Henry "Hanky" Grant.

First row: R. McKay — V. President, J. Kushner — Pres.; V. Wong, J. Chee; Second row: M. Markowitz, I. Fox, S. Jacoby, N. Shapiro, G. Samrock. Missing: S. Adler, Fred & Julio, D. Bernstein, V. Lewis, G. Price, J. Fischer, J. Kaufman, G. Golbhauner, O. Sarayli.

Strat-O-Matic Baseball Society

Not satisfied with the Cleveland Indians or the Houston Astros, the Strat-O-Matic Baseball Society goes beyond reality with such teams as the Miami Speed, the Seoul Brothers and the Fort Wayne Gretzkys. Highlights of the season include John Denny's no-hitter, Greg Brock's outstanding hot streak and a killing of the Seoul Brothers of 43 to 5.

The Teenage Republican Club

The teenage republicans (TARS) of Stuyvesant High School prefer to be known as RATS — republicans of american teens.

Tom-Tom Club

Although this club has a very limited membership, its two active participants are very enthusiastic. When asked why they are in the club, both answer "It's the pleasure of Love."

Voyagers

Voyagers, a.k.a the Stuy travel club, marks its second year with another ambitious travel program. With the dynamic leadership of Mr. Phillips, Ms. DeBellis and Robert Aftel, Voyager's mission is to provide Stuyvesant students with the most exciting trips available at the lowest cost possible. This year, Voyager is planning for a six-week romp through the capitals of Europe. Bon voyage!!

World Affairs

Interested in taking over the world? The World Affairs club provides an outlet for even the most extreme political viewpoints. The club meets weekly (though attendance is scarce) to discuss issues at hand and to practice military maneuvers (?). Members plan strategies concerning U.S. dominance, and pass resolutions recommending possible first strike areas.

Jeff Katz, Ira Brody, Ozan Gurel, Peter Litstein, David Goldsmith, Alonso Ochoa. Absent — John Roberts, J. Peter Adler, Asif Qazi, Richie McKay, Johnnie Marks.

Asian Society

The Asian Society organizes various activities from parties to trips. The success of the club is due to its large membership. The Asian Society is open not only to the Asians in the school, but to students of any ethnic background.

Black Students League

The Black Students' League was organized to expand social awareness during the sixties and seventies. B.S.L.'s purpose is to explore the richness of Black History, to identify the forces that bear down upon Black society, and most importantly to create a positive social understanding and cultural identity. Activities this year have included distribution of petitions for N.Y. State's divestment of holdings in South Africa, participation in the Food Fair, membership in a citywide Black high school coalition, reception of several speakers and the second annual B.S.L. Talent Show.

Indian Culture Club

Our goal is to spice up life, and the spicier the better.

Korean Culture Club

"We look alike, we walk alike, we dress alike, we talk alike."

The Brazilian Culture Club

And you may find yourself in a Brazilian restaurant in Soho.

And you may find yourself sitting on the beach in Rio.

and you may fine yourself humming "The Girl from Ipanema".

And you may ask yourself. "Brasileiro, how did I get here?!"

As the days go by the Brazilian Club gets down. Once in the night time batidas go flowing down. Everything's tudo bien in the Brazilian Culture Club.

Marcelo e galinha Cuanto e, Obrigado
Same as it ever was.

Same as it ever was.

Same as it ever was.

Chinese Culture Club

Possibly the most famous of the culture clubs is the Chinese Culture Club. They have established a unique tradition, exploring the various facets of Chinese art, music, theatre, and food. Major emphasis is placed upon Chinese reading, writing and board games.

International Club

The purpose of the "International Club" simply put is to get service credit. Members almost never meet and those who do show up to the club have no idea what they're supposed to be doing. But Hey 10 service credits are 10 service credits.

Culture Club

The parthenogenesis of microbiotic living communities has long fascinated the public eye. The Culture Club was founded after a specimen from an incoming sophomore's lunchbag was extracted from the East Cafeteria. Utilizing the resources of Room 521, the club members meet on Wednesday afternoons to research the long term effects of cafeteria food on the ecological systems of Stuyvesant.

German Club

In the beginning, God said, "Let there be light . . . and the German Club." And so there was.

Later on, the club created gingerbread houses, visited a German restaurant, sang German songs, played German games, danced German dances, and breathed German air.

"Please do not change a word!"

Hebrew Culture Club.

The Hebrew Culture Club is designed to stress both Jewish identity, as well as awareness in a friendly social atmosphere. This club, through its speakers, presentations, trips and group sessions attempts to provide an opportunity for Jewish students to learn together about their culture, history and customs.

Eugene Ostashevsky, Phil Sacks, Jeff Schaeffer — President, Melinda Peretson — President, Danna Kalkstein, Harvey Stark, David Weller, Michael Rivilis, Mathew Fasler, Anna Brailovsky, Leon Rosenblit, Tony Yankovsky, Karin Kalkstein, Rachel Preiser, Gabrielle Preiser, Holly Engelman, Sabrina Hillson, Casandra Dillenberger, Lilit Suffet, Charles Yeagel, Debbie Okun, Matthew Levy, Michael Whitman, David Zatvzhni, Regina Rawner, David Goldsmith, Jessicad Maybar, Galit P. Elkies

Hellenic Culture Club

Surprisingly enough, the Hellenic club often deals with activities of Greek nature. The major activity centers around the school's International Food Festival, when Greek students bring in Hellenic food such as Souvlaki, chewbaka, and gyros. American society has been greatly affected by Greek contributions in the areas of architecture, literature, drama, art and (as all of Stuyvesant can verify) dining.

Italian Culture Club

Stuyvesant's Italians have really been cultured. They're proud of their heritage and have attempted to make many contributions to society (among them, the recent creation of Prince Spaghetti Day). Field trips are held regularly to museums, Little Italy, the Opera, and Mariellas.

Japan Club

Ever wonder what the strange scrawling on Mr. Lugo's blackboard was? Cryptic love messages for Mr. Baumel? or maybe a symphony written by Stuy's own resident cockroaches? But no! It's Japanese, and in the Japan Club students delve into every aspect of Japanese culture. TRY IT, YOU'LL LIKE IT!

Dance Club

We couldn't act, we couldn't sing, and we definitely couldn't do chemistry. So we Danced! We danced together, alone for anyone, and everyone who was willing. We tripped, sprained our ankles and helped each other up. It's been fun and tiring but we asked for it.

First row: Krisiten McNugget, Courteney Licherman, Roberta Newman, Melisa Levitt, Heather Luboy; Second row: Carise Mitch, Jennifer Wasserman, Rachel Bluestein, James Bohanic, Henry Grant, Grace Chung, Lisa Cable

The Golf Team

The Golf Team is a fun-loving and adventurous group of golfers good and not so good. The club meets Fridays in the S.U. office and plays at courses either on Fridays or Saturdays. Anyone can join — no experience is necessary. See why we're not just an ordinary golf team!

Martial Arts Club

These guys never fool around. Their afternoons are spent in serious body training. You may have seen them sweating it out on the third floor after eighth. Funny, but they always seem practice outside of the Math Office . . .

Ski Club

Table Tennis Club

In the beginning, there were athletes, big athletes, dedicated to the proposition that all sports must involve bloodshed. Then one morning, God created ping-pong, and in this game, people found a way to practice agility, dexterity, and the ability to concentrate on a little white ball, all the while avoiding the breaking of their bones and the unmerciful tearing of their flesh. Followers of this great new sport vowed that the first five days would be spent in tournament, but the sixth and seventh days, they would put aside the little white bouncy sphere and give thanks for the noise made by it while winding its way from one side to the other.

Chung Park, "Bud" Yoon, Sandy Ganzell, Benjy Usadi, Spike Friedman (Chairman), Wing Tang, Whirlwing Ma.

The Ultimate Team

We, the frisbee team, would like to propose a toast . . .

James, Suji, Ajoy, Ben, Adam, Sekka, Eli, Peter, Paul, Shubaum, Zeph, Ben Eugene, Sasha, Jessie, Tobi, and the rest of the Ultimate Team.

High S.A.T. Scores: Don't Leave High School Without Them.

The S.A.T. is not an I.Q. test. Those who prepare well will perform better than those who don't, and nobody is better prepared than a Princeton Review student.

Last term, 50% of our students raised their scores 170 points or more from their previous PSAT or SAT, by far the best course results in New York.

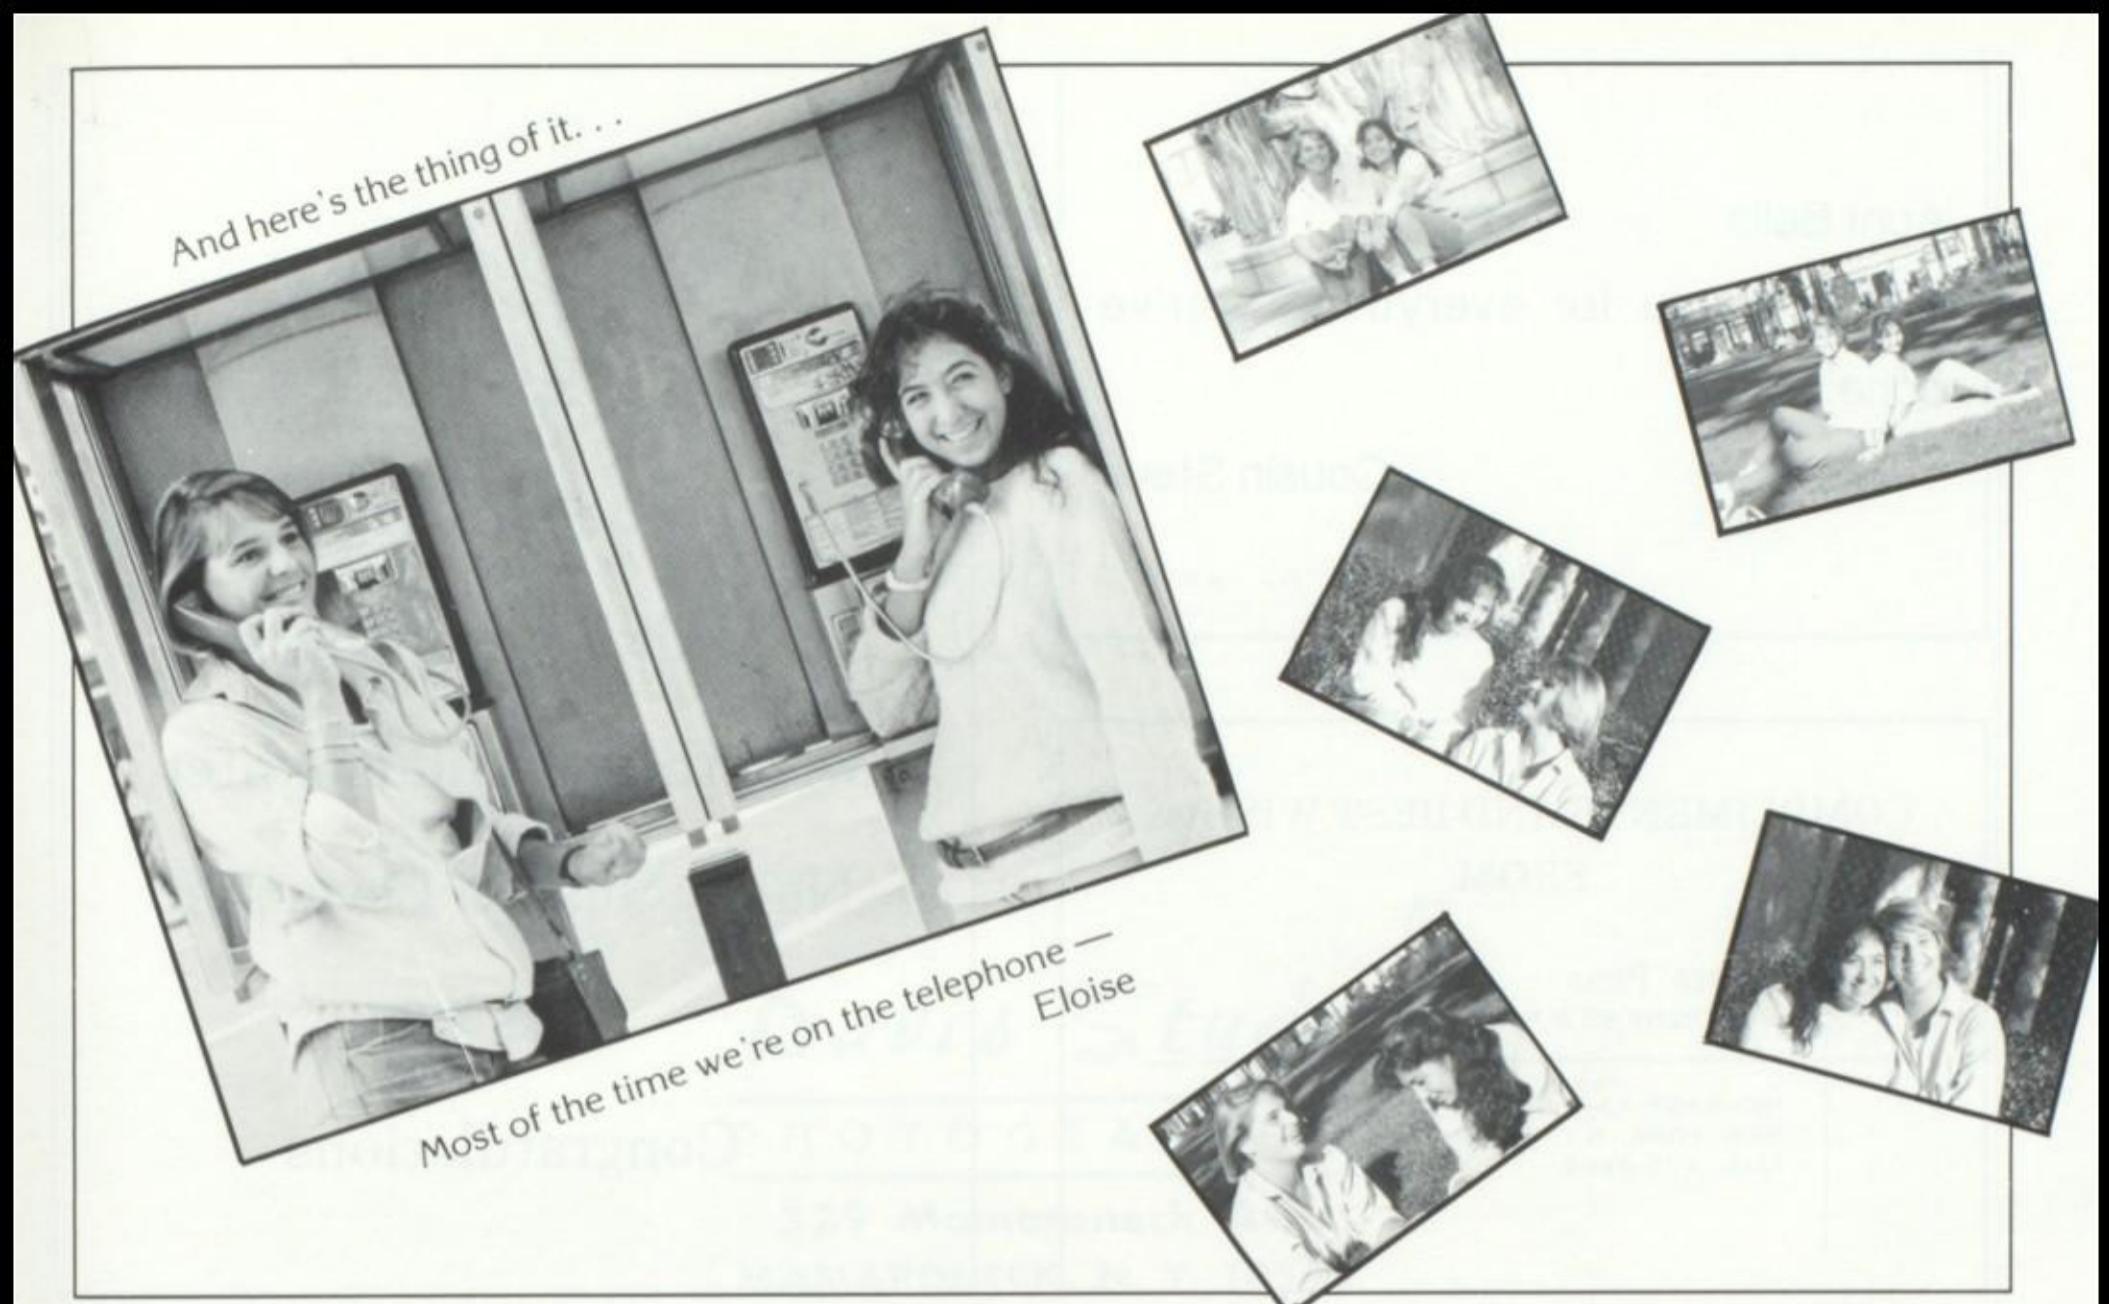

Princeton Review students don't waste their time with lengthy word lists and endless assignments. Our extensive computer analysis pinpoints areas of largest potential improvement. Small classes enable instructors to focus attention on individual weaknesses.

Do your SAT scores accurately reflect your ability? We know you can do better. Call us today for more information.

Chillo. What now? I was going to say that! Really? Mmmm, you smell nice. It's different! Yum, I smell Chinese food. Grilled cheese and B.L.T's forever. Gee, what movie are we going to say we went to? It's a Vision Quest. Remember the blackout in Spain and the exciting Mattel electronic football. 3 tourists in an empty bus . . . Are you sure you never ice-skated before? Do you think we'll ever go skiing? I have nothing to wear! When are your parents leaving? What do you want to bet? Can I watch? Come here. You're gonna get it! I'm sorry. How do I look? Gorgeous! You hunk! Smooch attack! Wanna hear a joke? Purse, I mean bag! I'm in heaven. Look at the stars. Can I have a hug? You're my best friend

I love you.

We would like to say thanks to all our friends who we have shared special times with. It really has been the best time of our lives and we're going to miss you.

To Matt: Hornhead, Jughead, What's the dif. we're better.

To Misty: Did you mail my recs out yet?

To L.J.P.: Now can I call you Lee?

To Debbie: L'chaim

To Julia T.: Maybe we could still go to a movie.

To Luke and Dug: Calm down guys!

To Dave and Damon: Stop blasting in my ear!

To Janet: (and all the other girls I had crushes on): Thanks!

To Rob: Love that car, can I borrow it while you're in Europe?

To Sean: You're still my favorite penguin.

To Karen: In your case, short people do have a reason.

To Julie: I never dated a girl more than two weeks, nuff said!
(Even if it is said LATE on this ad.)

To All my other friends, I'm sorry, I care about all of you too!
Bye Now!

GUESS

ME

Dear Wendy and Val,

It was once said, "If Fran ever tries to tell you a story, have her tell you the end first, or else you'll never hear it." . . . Well, here it is from A to Z:

Answering machines, "around with whom did you fool?" — Amos, "Baby, It's You", Brian, Bruce — Bo, Boone, break room, cat people, clocks, cheerleading, Central Park, Da-da-vid, Deutsch, egg show, eye-shadow!? Fred, film, the Fat Whale, gum! Great Adventure, Greg-Fred, Glancy's, homeroom, Happy Birthday Steve, "Hi, I'm Ron, and these are my two squeezes." in my bus, idiot girl, just-Joan, jeg elsker Danmark, Jack, Kukla, Fran, & Ollie, Kenny's curly eyeheads, Lance Blank — I'm sorry, lith, love napkins, mit navn er John Brown, Moo! "Move your B.T.'s!" no hunting, "Nice manners, Babe!"

" . . . we might be laughing a bit too loud — but that never hurt no one . . . "

orange everything, the other girl, (the) prom, Pizza Sam, Paragon, pretzel throwing, pajamas, quarters in your ears, Rat Head, rashers, sloe gin fizz, staples, surprise parties, Sixteen Candles, two dollars, This, Trivial Pursuit, Twenty Four U, turtlenecks, The Game, the Underground, underpants, Vishnu, Valley Girl, What!? X-mas, xylophone, Y-squared, Yoko Ono, and of course, the whole Zipper family!!!!!!! Look at that, I made it to the end . . . it's been such fun. . . Oh, wait, did I ever tell you what happened after graduation? . . .

Love always,
Fran

And if you ever find yourself in a corner, remember I'm your friend

Melanie and Jimmy

We may be too young
But we've seen and done
Anything they say is fun
We've got to find out for ourselves
In the end there's no one else
We've waited a lifetime
Now we're gonna make our own rules

Who knows what tomorrow brings
In a world few hearts survive
Some hang on to used to be
Live their lives looking behind
All we have is here and now
All our lives out there to find
Time goes by, no time to cry
There's always you and I

*Friends like this are hard to find
With time to talk and to confide*

too much of a good thing can be... wonderful

And this is the only immortality you and I may share.

We started out as _____ freshmen; discovering sodium, carbon, neon, helium, and all the wonders of Chemistry. Amy and Elizabeth w/Joey behind newspapers, Annie and Elizabeth w/Mayorkas & French, Elizabeth and Nancy in Rabinowitz w/Brillo Head — the notes, the looks, the feelings... Excursion Day — the start of a tradition... raunchy rowing, Great Adventure (Liz's weekend cast), Red X, dances, talent night, shows, Sing, and Serendipity's... Elizabeth and Amy — sisters??!! yeah sure... 6 inch haircut for E, juniors who write on desks, always Woodstock, AB & EH talks forever... GRRRR, meeting by the lockers, stealing Annie's pants, hunga-hunga, bus rides home, feeling for our space, finding we may fit, fit together with each other, Kissie-Kissie and laughing, laughing, always laughing...

Then in sophomore year: Pizza Man — "Does he deliver?" Dead Zone, Halloween Nights, doodlebugging, Aires Guys, Willy Wonka — remember? jumping in fountains, 15 minute lunches for N. Paul at football practice, John Book, "Eyeliner," sewing pants, cutting shirts, lockers in the East Cafe, cooking up a storm at Amy's, the Ritz — Dominatrix, limos, collages, and the birth of Bubbles and MMD, finding nickles in ice cream & Tight Ass 'on the bus, that's where we met', "call from the corner", getting into a car w/a guy from GQ — "I spit on Pierre Cardin", ED and GA in the rain — never dampening our spirits...

Junior year, this was it, party time, Superman Stripper at Sweet sixteens, Steve in N.Y. and Boston, growing closer, knowing we can have it all... then SODIUM WITHDRAWAL... Experiencing Studio, Stuy grads, and Nancy's Beach House, ½ inch left for Amy, TNT for Bunnie — "I wouldn't mind adjusting his lens...", Mr. Magoo, Gymnastic disasters, Century 21, SAT's at PR AM's w/N & E, Physics, Bellush Babes and U2, Mikey's such a _____ Rob — what a _____ and Lester (?). Mr. Wonderful — more notes, more feelings, heartbreak. Zipperneck — yup. Dilly Deli, Stick, Frankie rides home and Timmy too. Singing after Sing, "I was nude sunbathing on my patio..." ED: lost brownies, swimming w/o suits, rowing, JM — I want him NOW! Howard Jones "Things can only get better", Louie Louie, Blatz, (Oklahoma) Walt Whitman on stage, AB will live in our hearts forever...

*Open Wide and Say AHHH!! . . . There's a first time for EVERYTHING; Tell me about it... "I just can't get enough" — right Nance!! "I wanna make love to you under the Strobe Light" uh-huh, Amy. "Earth Girls are Easy" — oh really Annie... "I eat cannibal..." try it you'll like it Party Girl, MMD. . . A Teacher, A Student... Tempted by the fruit of another... Like to get to know you well *JM*DK* — we did... so we can be one together — sorta?... "I've seen sex and I think it's alright, makes those little creatures come to life — Woodstock EAD85 — . . . beams over to me starts licking his lips, stroking his antenna and waving his hips. . . Desperate but not Serious. . . I want somebody to share... All Of My Love and All Of My Kisses. . . What is Love?... Always something there to remind me... Don't put another dime in the jukebox, I don't want to hear that song no more... All I needed was the love you gave, All I needed for another day, All I ever knew... ONLY YOU. . . Don't you forget About Me... Tell me why I don't like Mondays?? Don't try to live your life in one day... Try and enjoy the Here and Now — the future will take care of itself somehow. . . Dearly beloved, we are gathered here today to get through this thing called Life... LET'S GO CRAZY!!*

Senior year (whew) — can you believe it? applications, applications, college this, college that... R-we ourselves?... Nancy No Nose, Pudgy Bunny, Squad (burp!), Cutie of the Month... Passion Calvin Coolers... Sting: oh how it hurts — the hoping, the waiting, the memories, and the letting go, sucked into the Black Hole, Amy and ming are not cute — TIGER, A Gradual Awakening, Magique — "Yes Liz, he is taller than you." Bubbles and E discovering school lunch, Sing — "Sing??!" "I can't sing!" Two whole lines!! Adventures at Albany — we finally learned there is a time and a place for everything, and it was definitely not the time or the place!! Dr. Steff, "In the days of old, when knights were bold, women were bolder, and you should have seen the teenagers... you'd think sex was only above the waist." "Will we make it thru the eighties, I-I-I don't know" well we did, and it was @#$%&!! AMAZING!!!

...Say 'em Together Naturally

These are the things that dreams are made of...

flour (on V-days, b-days, and x-mas's),
affectionary sugar,
soda (in cooler),
Lizzie's sodium,
half 'n half (for better or worse),
dash of Central Park.

Blend 2 innocent freshmen with music appreciation, adjacent lockers, crazy glue, and lots of goggles. For fullness add a cup of 34B Nancy and a pint of Anne to improve consistency, then stir until smooth or until senioritis sets in, whichever comes first. Put white mouse in locker and chill. Mix days at Lizzie's house with afternoons at Serendipity's and don't forget to add one day at Jin's pool. Preheat life to 1,986 and let stand in homeroom until bell rings. Then bake for four years or until golden...

CAUTION: avoid bites, scratches and bruised shins

THE ADVENTURE CONTINUES...

"Are you Bill Buetel's daughter?" . . . "Do you have my batteries?" "Want to go to lunch?" . . . They glued the lock!!!! . . . With memories like these your darkest days will always be bright. . . Some say you'll look back on all of this and laugh. . . Time will never erase what we've shared, THE BEST OF TIMES. . . We love you, don't ever forget that. . .

To the two girls who stole our hearts: Give them back! But seriously, we love you and we'll be your friends forever.
Jin & Joe

sisters? . . no, cousins!!?

Jin: recently designated diplomatic status with International Trade... and whose vein is kept poppin', with a little help from his friends. His latest venture is nude skydiving — "It's a thrill!" He owns two Ferrari's and an old beat-up white TR-7 named Vicki.

Joe: is happily married, currently a Portuguese importer... whose charming smile still covers for his devilish mind. He recently has won the lottery using the number 127. When asked about the teethmarks on his hand he replies, "I picked them up in High School..." At age 35, Amy E. Buetel, after having spent ten years with the Peace Corps in Nicaragua, now owns the largest wild rice and watercress plantation in Central America.

Elizabeth A. Harvey, age 30, now runs the world's largest penguin orphanage in Antarctica. Hundreds of penguins each year are given a home as a result of Elizabeth's compassionate work.

Dastardly Duo

Joe: OK, Jin, I want this one!

Jin: Wait a minute, Joe. The first one to become a millionaire buys the other a Lamborghini?

Joe: Yeh, that's right.

Jin: That's not fair! You'll get it first.

Joe: We'll see!

IT'S TEA TIME . . .

You say I am repeating
Something I have said before. I shall try it again.
Shall I say it again? In order to arrive there,
To arrive where you are, to get from where you are not,
You must go by a way wherein there is no ecstasy.
In order to arrive at what you do not know
You must go by a way which is the way of ignorance.
In order to possess what you do not possess
You must go by the way of dispossession.
In order to arrive at what you are not
You must go through the way in which you are not.
And what you do not know is the only thing you know
And what you own is what you do not own
And where you are is where you are not . . .
. . . Home is where one starts from. As we grow older
The world becomes stranger, the pattern more complicated
Of dead and living. Not the intense moment
Isolated, with no before and after,
But a lifetime burning in every moment
And not the lifetime of one man only
But of old stones that cannot be deciphered.
There is a time for the evening under starlight,
A time for the evening under lamplight
(The evening with the photograph album).
Love is most nearly itself
When here and now cease to matter.
Old men ought to be explorers
Here and there does not matter
We must be still and still moving
Into another intensity
For a further union, a deeper communion
Through the dark cold and the empty desolation,
The wave cry, the wind cry, the vast waters
Of the petrel and the porpoise. In my end is my beginning.

T.S. Eliot

I wish that my Room had a Floor,
I don't so much care for a Door,
But this walking around
Without touching the ground,
Is getting to be quite a bore!

Quickly camera, past the doors,
the classrooms and the halls.
Speed, make my eyes weak.
Tired night, late night, all night.
Learned the class in one night.
Never went to sleep.
Woke up and went to that little world.
Trying not to be the typical types.
Quickly camera, past the doors.
Stop there, wave your arms,
your friend still doesn't notice you,
teacher does. run camera run.
Slower now, art on the walls
Surprised? they put it up after all.
Freeze, camera quickly.

12:30 AM

Finally turn off TV show you shouldn't have watched. Promise to wake up early to study for that math test. Set alarm for 5:30

5:30 AM

Alarm goes off. Hit snooze.

5:35 AM

Alarm goes off. Unplug and fall back to sleep.

6:30 AM

Mom wakes you up.

6:40 AM

Mom wakes you up.

6:50 AM

Mom wakes you up. Mighty annoyed.

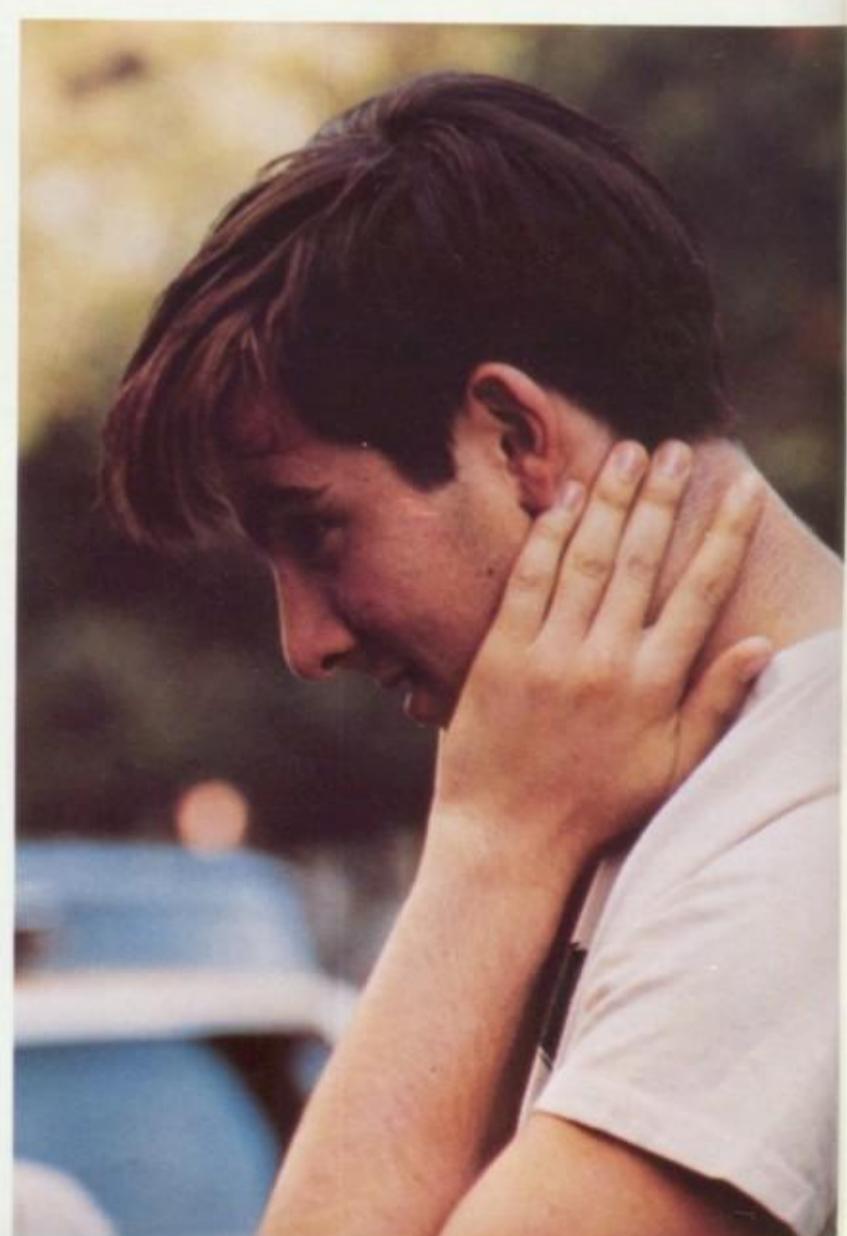

This is your last chance.

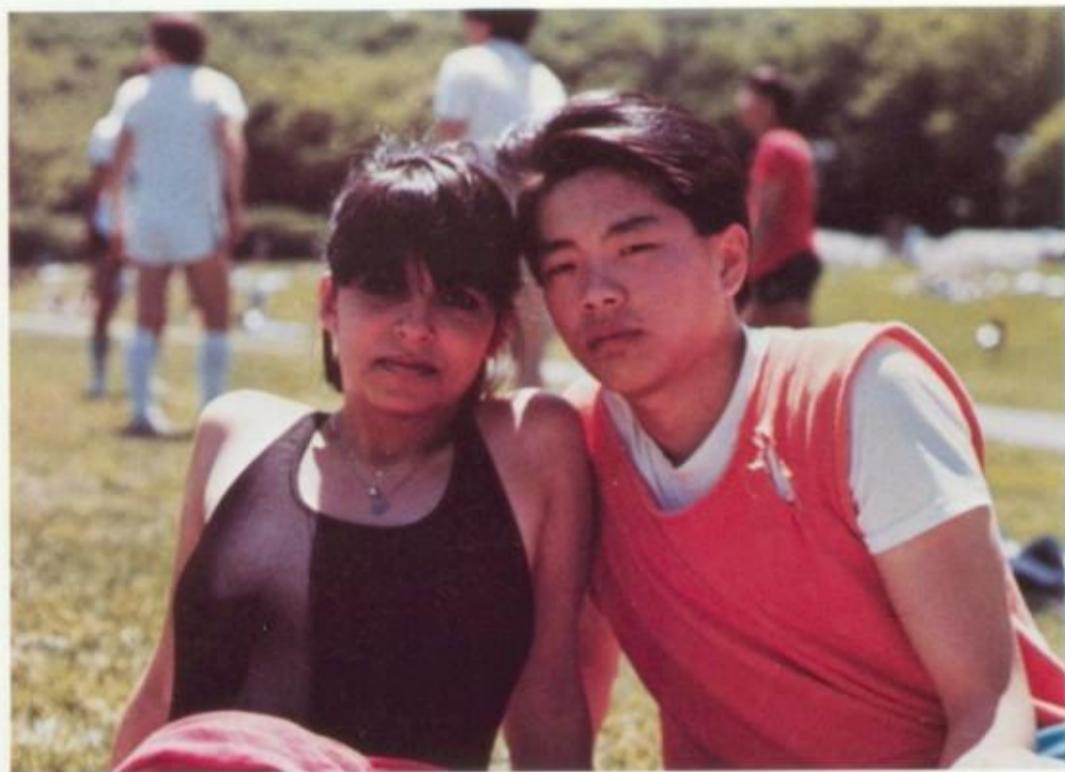

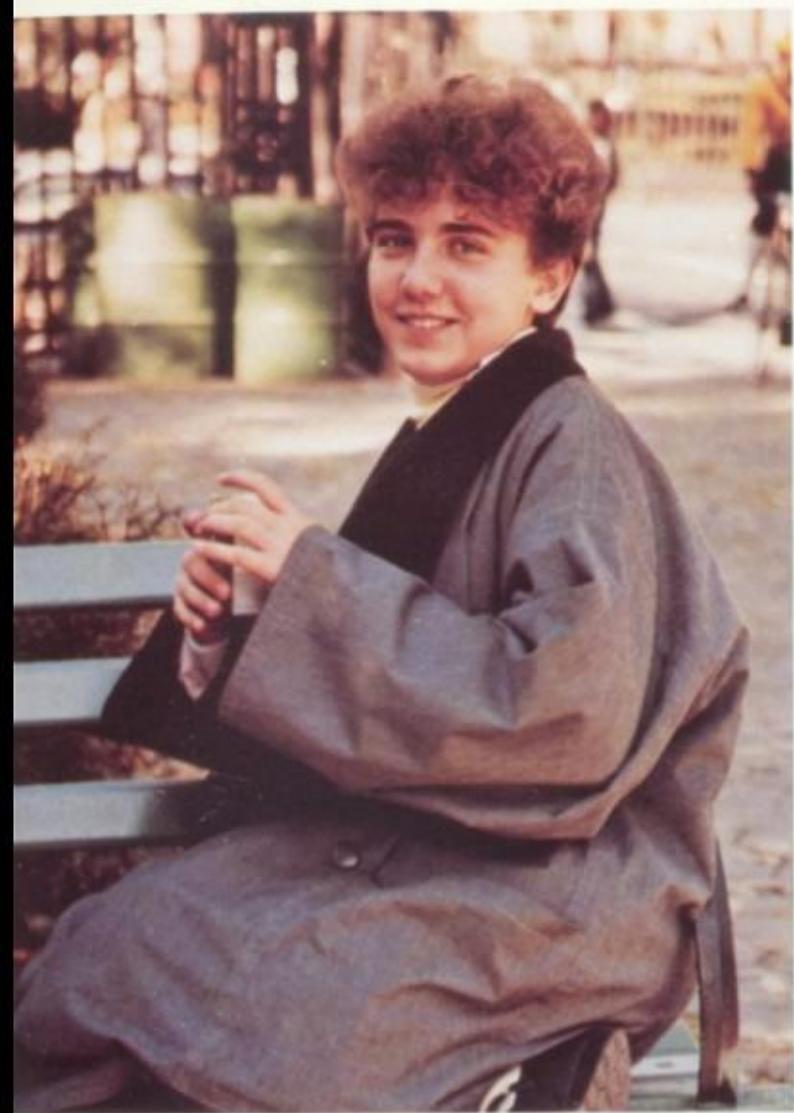

7:00 AM

Younger sister wakes you up by pulling back right eyelid and yelling out Wham! lyrics

7:00–7:05 AM

Hit sister. Hit her a lot.

7:05 AM

Realize that you are LATE. Panic.
Stop beating on sister.

7:10-7:25 AM

Shower. Dress. Change.
Change again. Brush teeth.
Try to find homework.
Remember you didn't do it.

7:25-7:30 AM

Lecture from mom on why you never have breakfast at home. Leave mom, still talking, and run out of the house.

7:30-7:40 AM

Wait for train (hoping)

7:40-7:50 AM

Wait for train (Begging)

7:50-8:00 AM

Wait for train (Doesn't matter,
there's no way
you're getting to school on time)

8:01 AM

Train comes. There's no way you're going to get in, get in.

9:45 AM

Get to school. Walk past Stavy's. Smell food.

10:26 AM

Finish breakfast. Run to homeroom.

10:31 AM

Walk to class. A different route. Avoid 1st period teacher. Avoid 2nd period teacher. Avoid friend you didn't call back last night. Avoid yearbook editor. Deadline was yesterday.

10:40 AM

Get to class late.

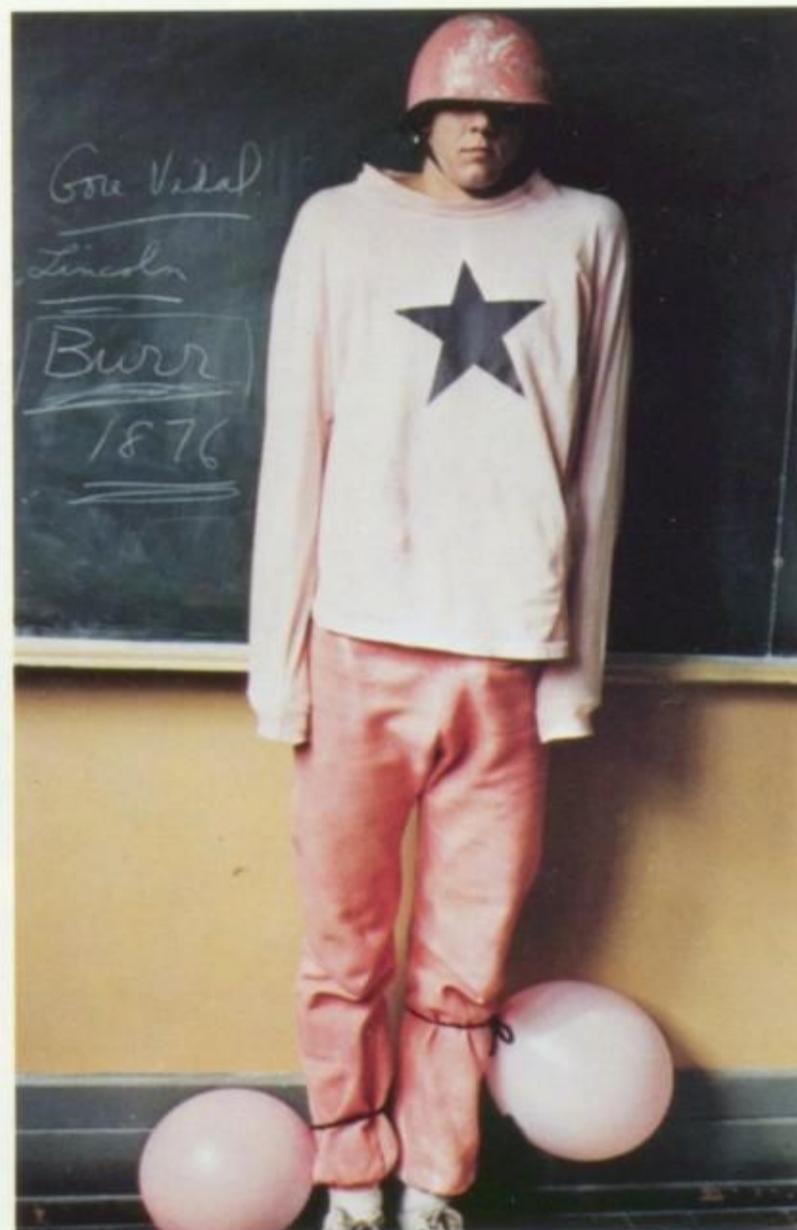

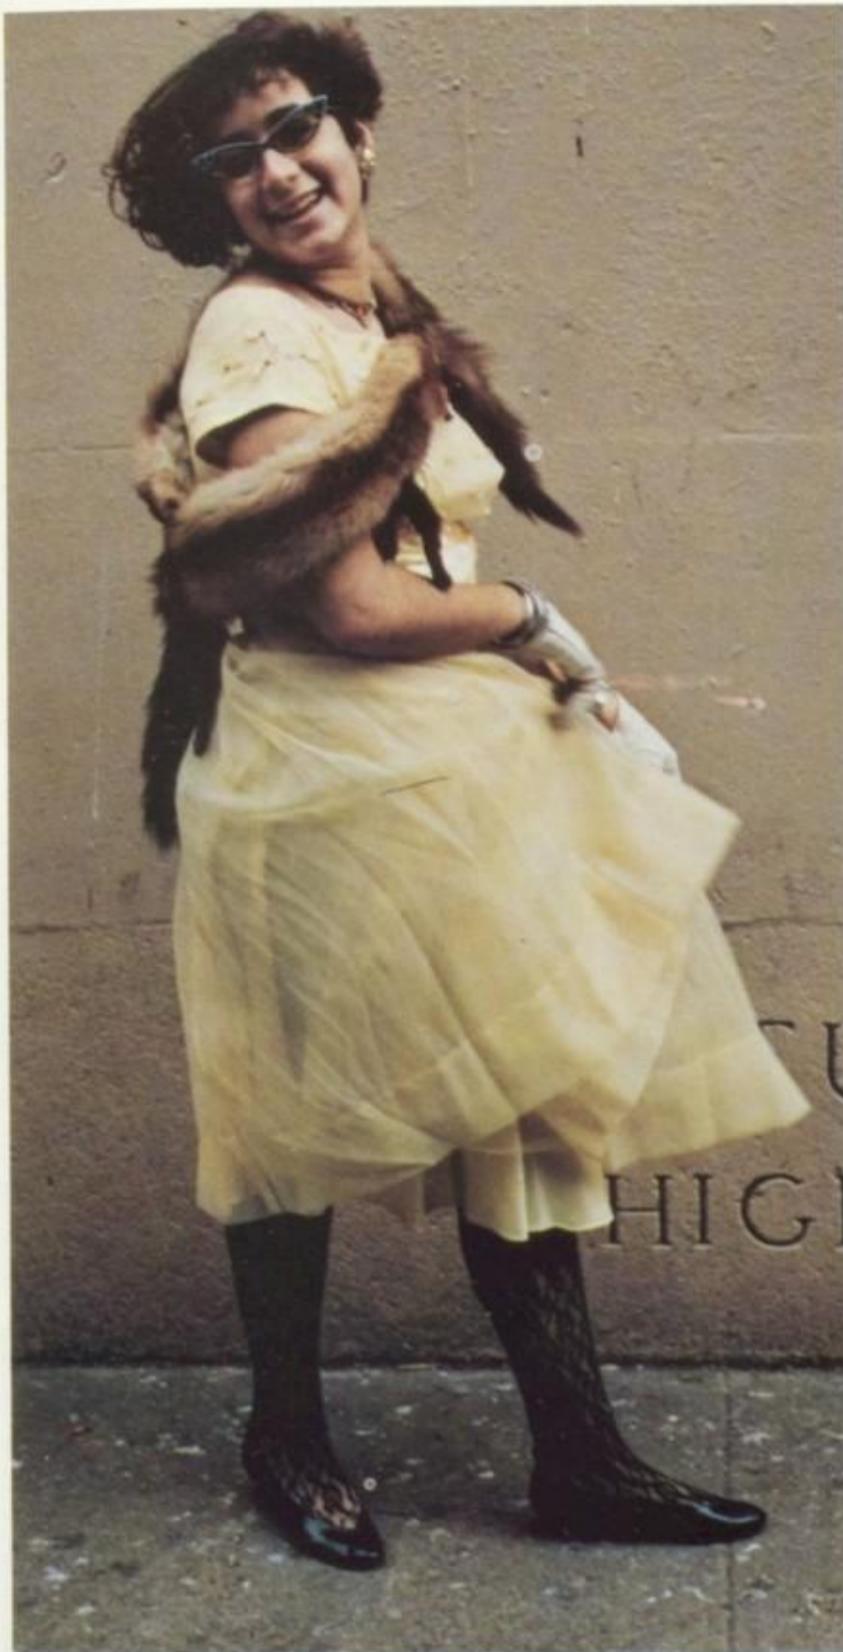

11:10 AM

Bell rings. Head jerks up from desk. You wake.

11:15 AM

Lunchtime (Actually it's time for that test you never studied for. It's the same thing.)

11:15 AM — 12:00 PM

See 1st period teacher. See 2nd period teacher,
"No really, I had a doctor's appointment."
See friend you didn't call,
"I . . . I forgot (that's sort of obvious)."
See yearbook editor,
"Everything is done. I'll have it after 8th (That's a joke)."

12:01 PM

Realize your life is over.

12:02 PM

Consider going to your double period shop.
Decide against it. You're three weeks behind everyone else.

12:03 PM

Consider going home.
Decide for it. What the hell, you're a Senior

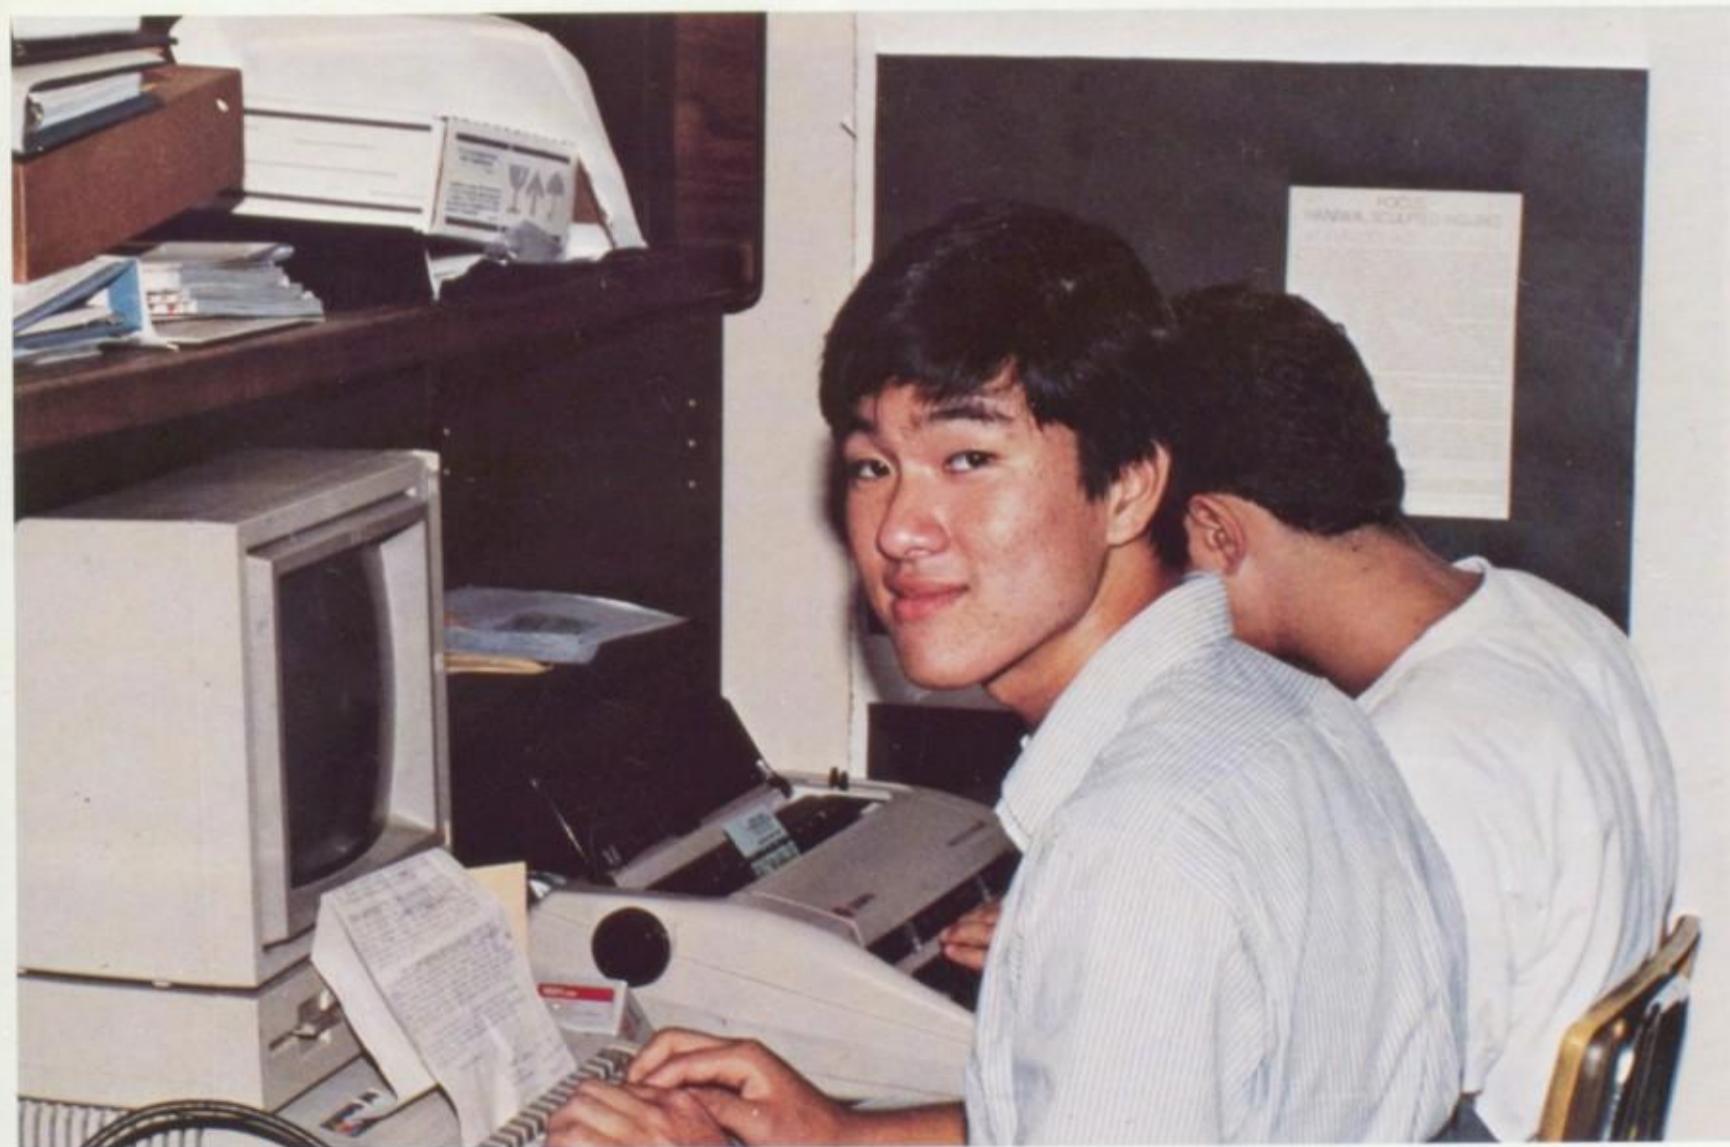

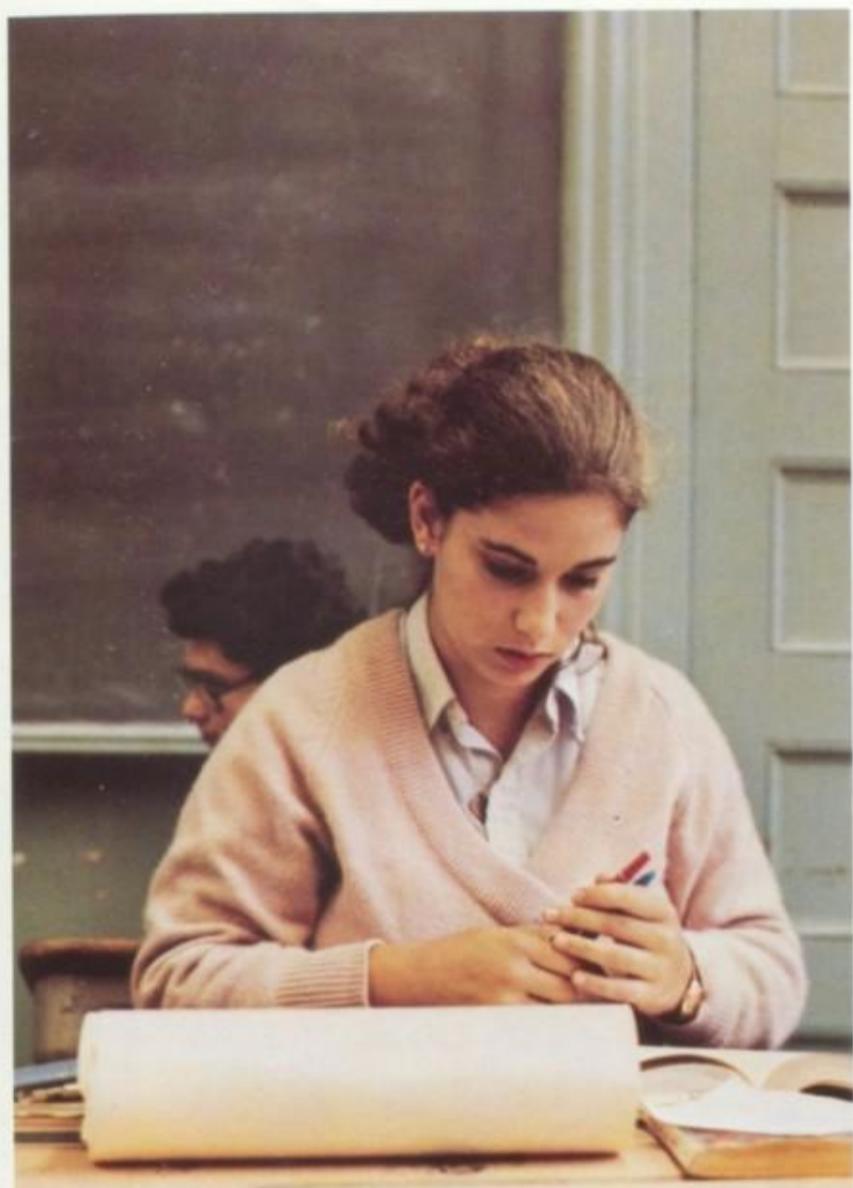

Look mom! I didn't wet!

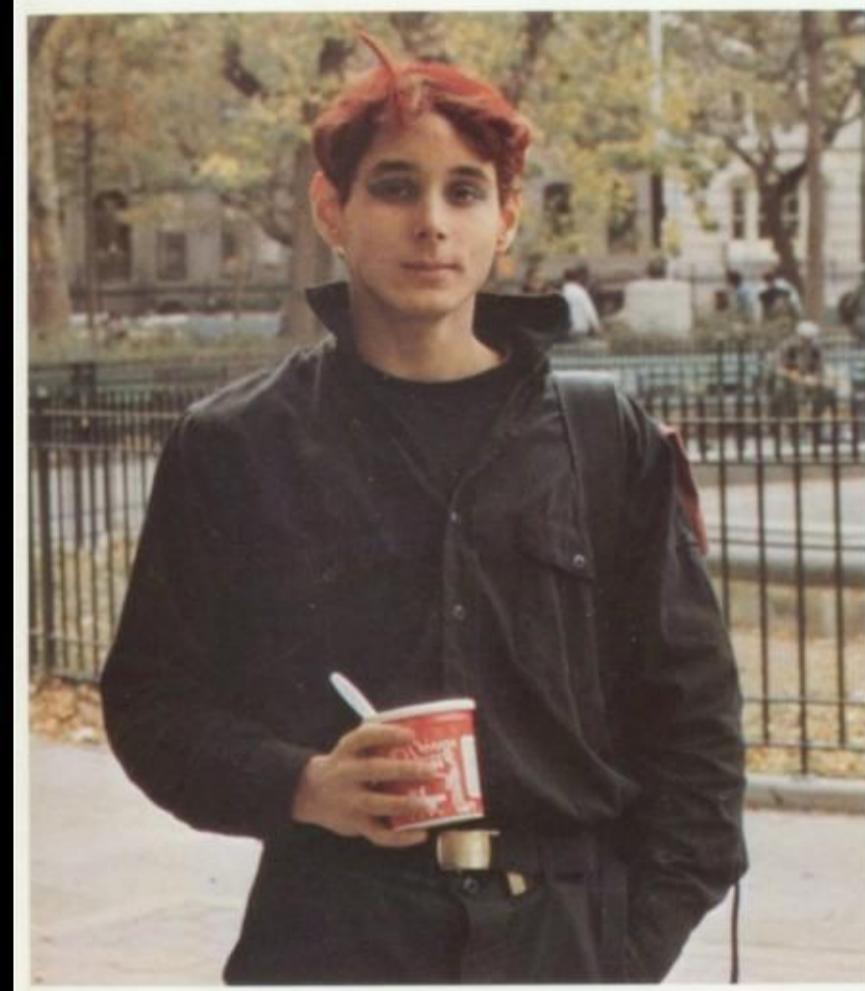

Be like the bird, who
Halting in his flight
On limb too slight
Feels it give way beneath him,
Yet sings
Knowing he hath wings

—Be like the Bird

Victor Hugo

What's up doc?
—Bugs Bunny

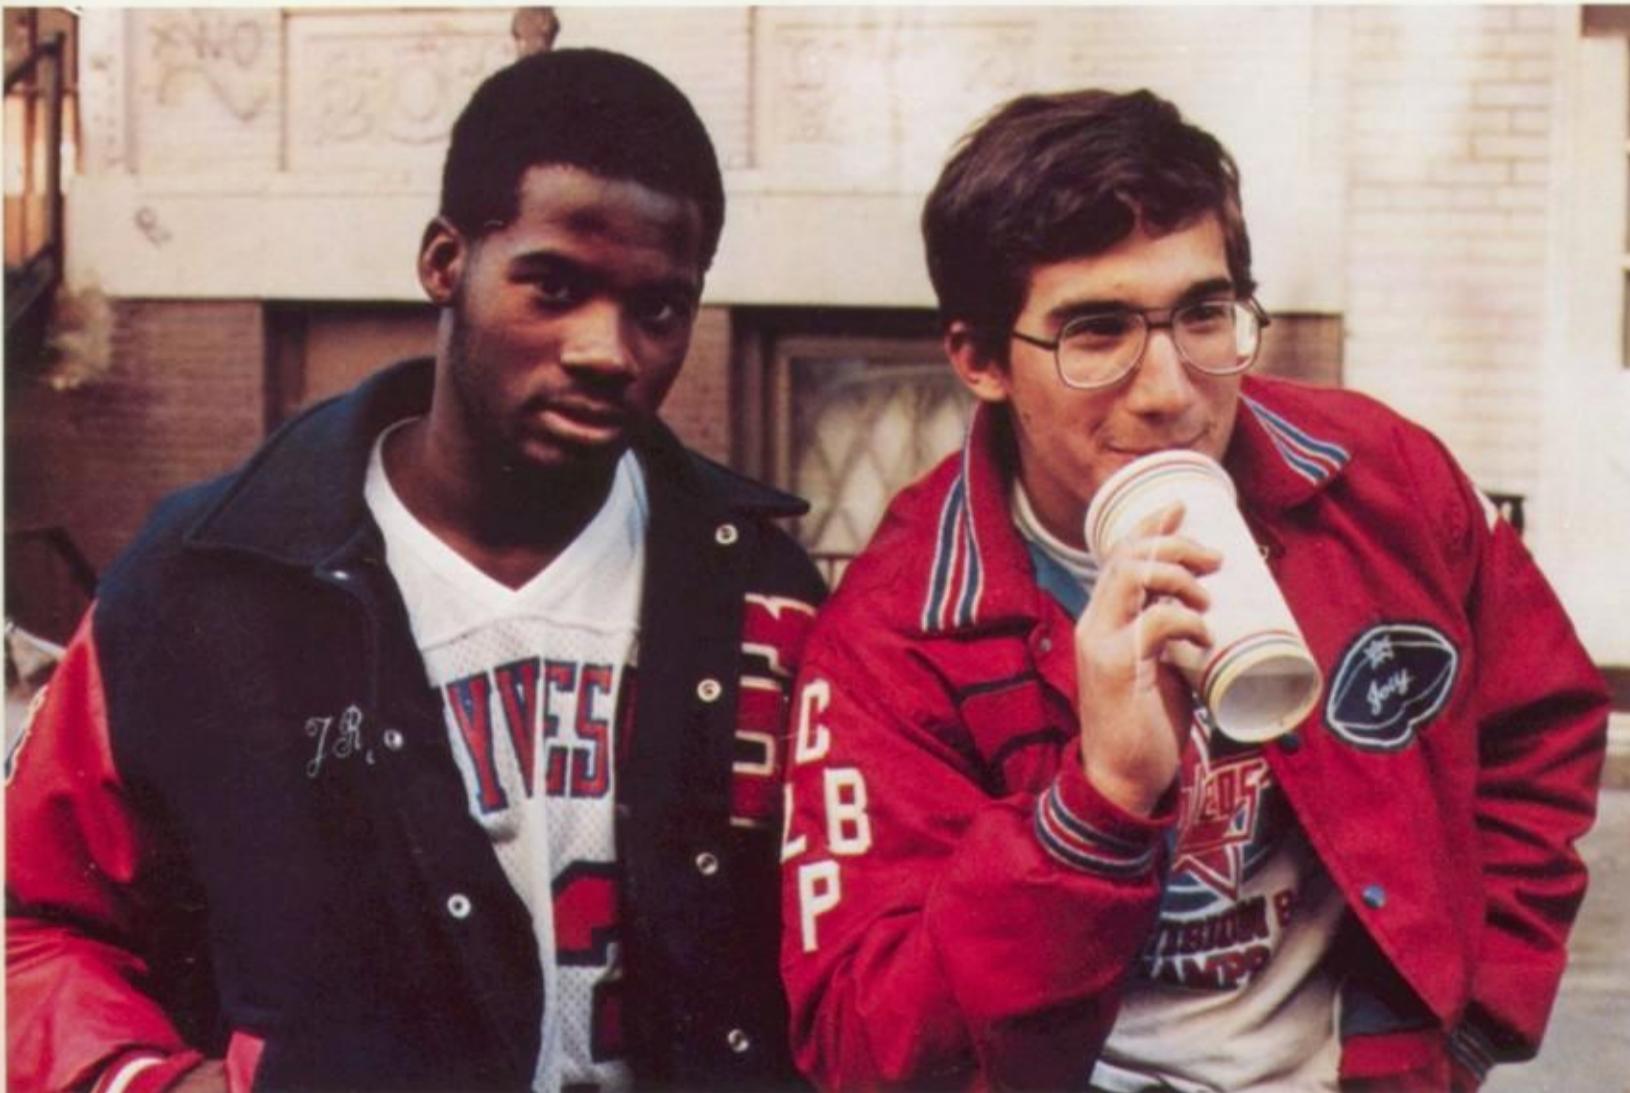

I used to be Snow White but I drifted.

—Mae West

Done with indoor complaints, libraries, querulous criticisms,
Strong and content, I travel the open road.

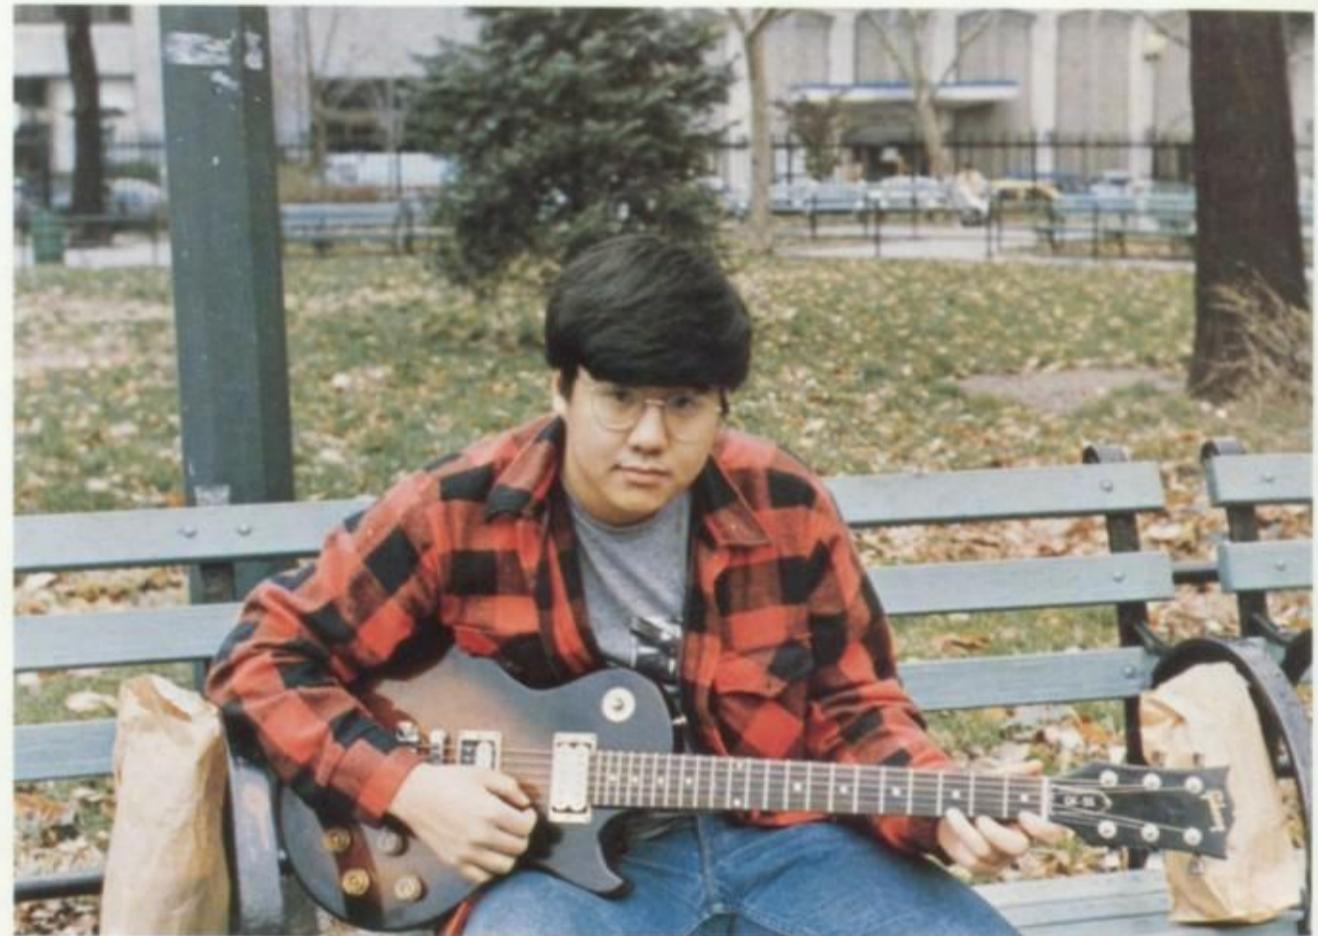

The Open Road — Walt Whitman

Beneath the cool exterior of a huddle lurk the subtle dynamics of a nursery school recess.

B.D. (Doonesbury)

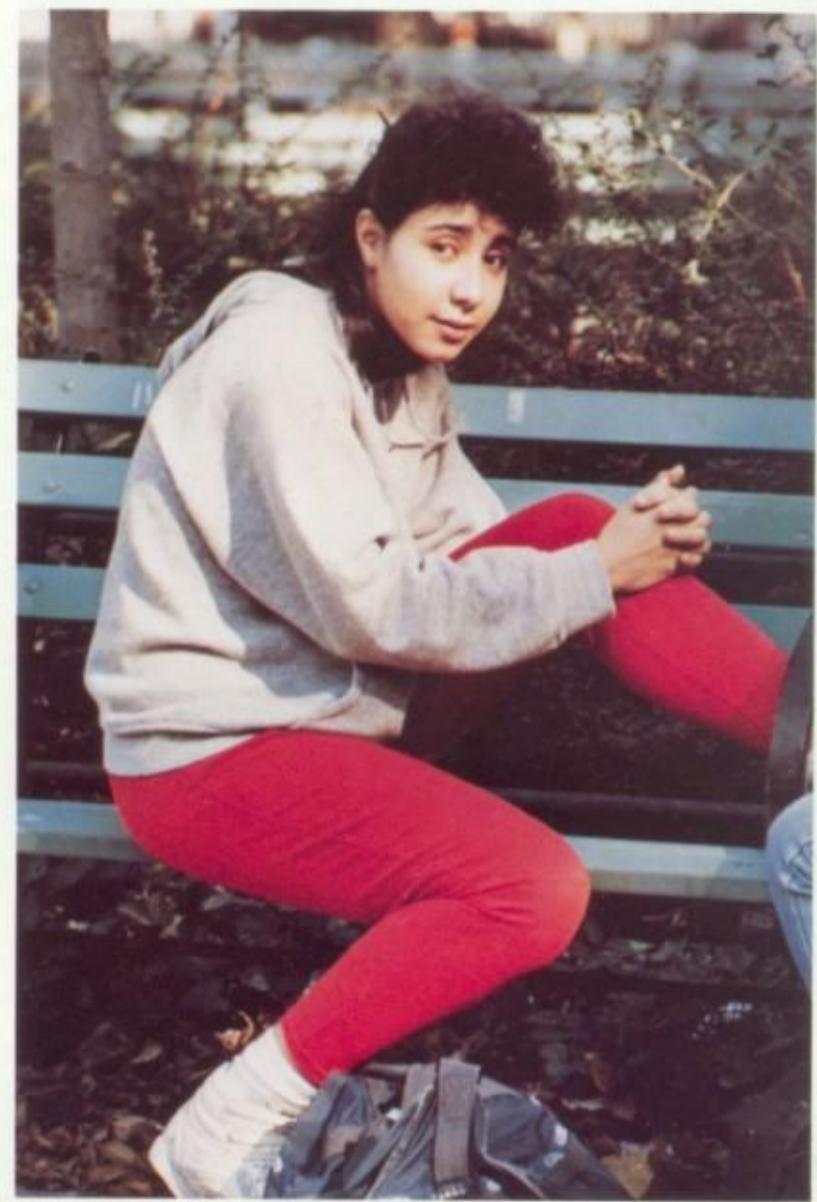

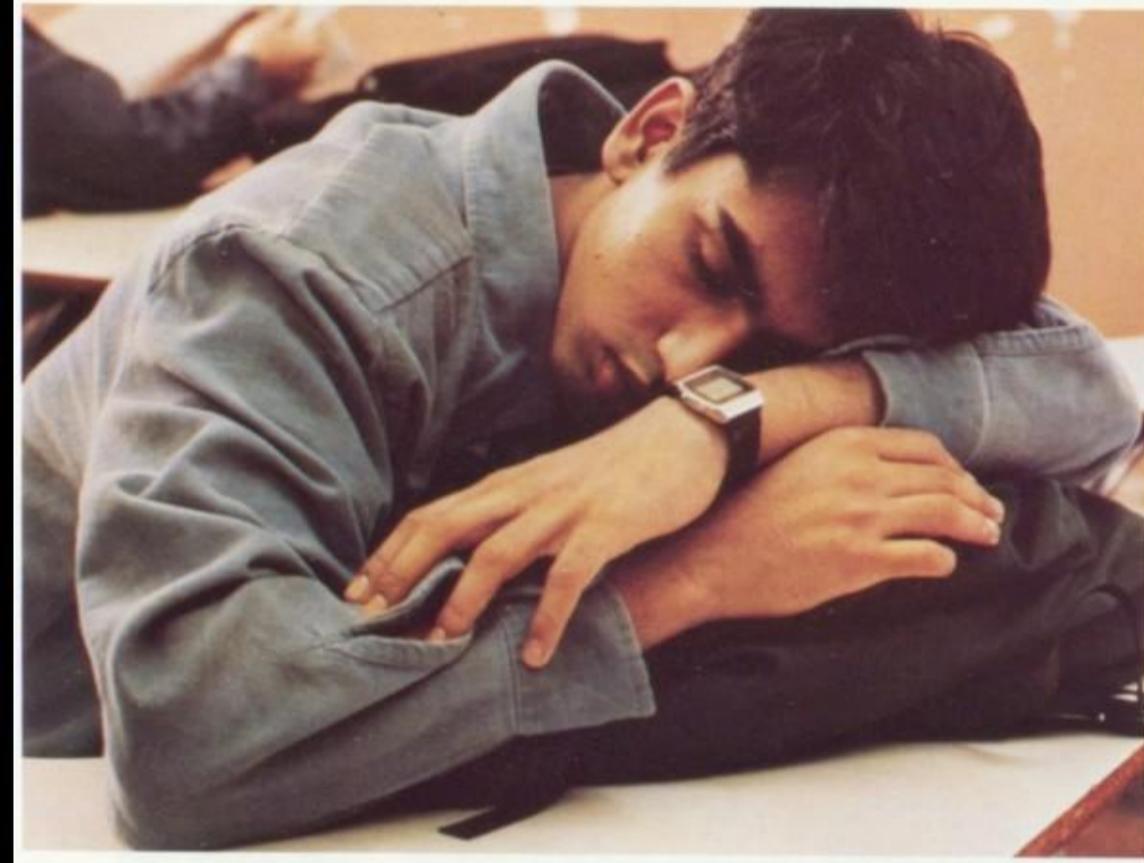

Kids "taking a break"
from their monotonous routine
into the social scene.
Bums, booze and bottles
arranged in a collage
with the grass and our memories.
(STUY PARK); Stuy dances,
dancing in the dark of the park.
A fountain with no water.
Spring term (to work on tans).
This one bench I always went to.
(Green) still within Stuy walls.

"I mean," she said, "that one can't help growing older."
"One can't, perhaps," said Humpty Dumpty, "but two can."

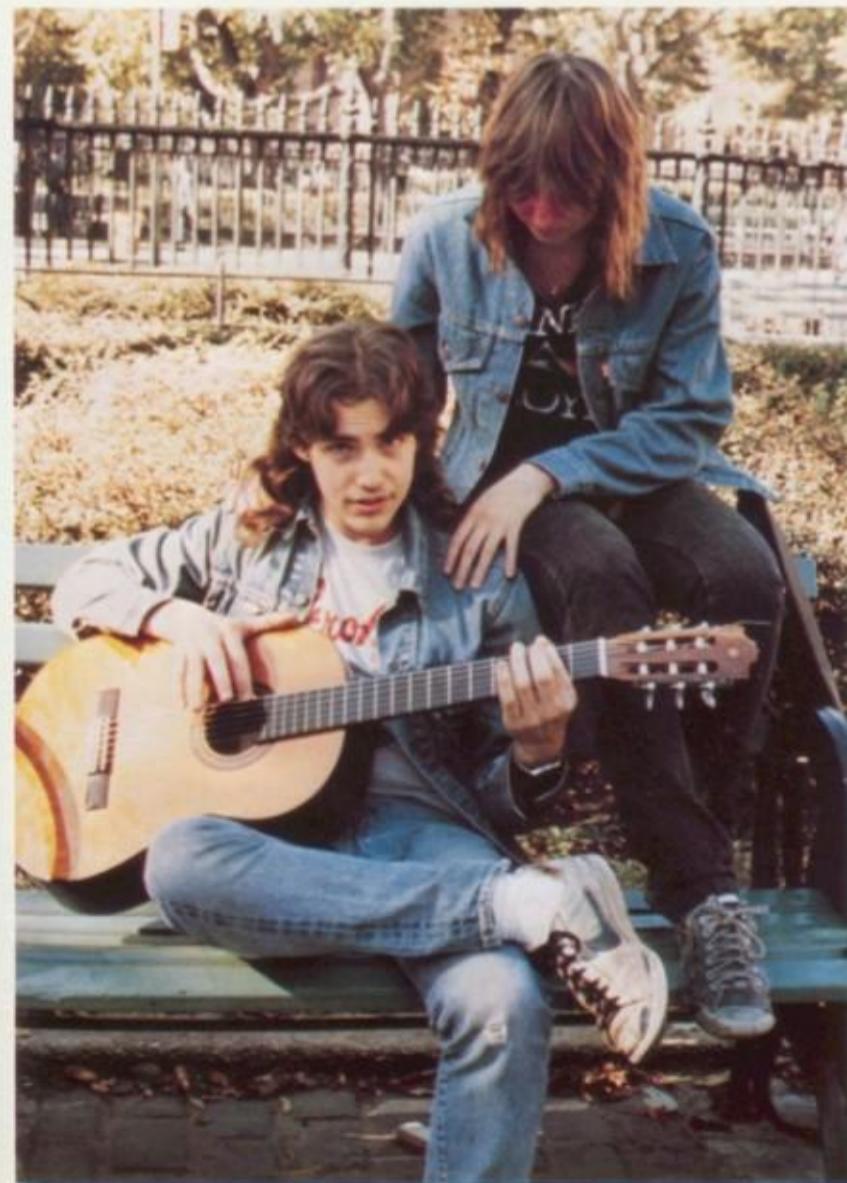

All of a sudden,
the heavy doors open
and they charge out,
invading the space.

Lingering till late
so everyone knows
it's Friday.

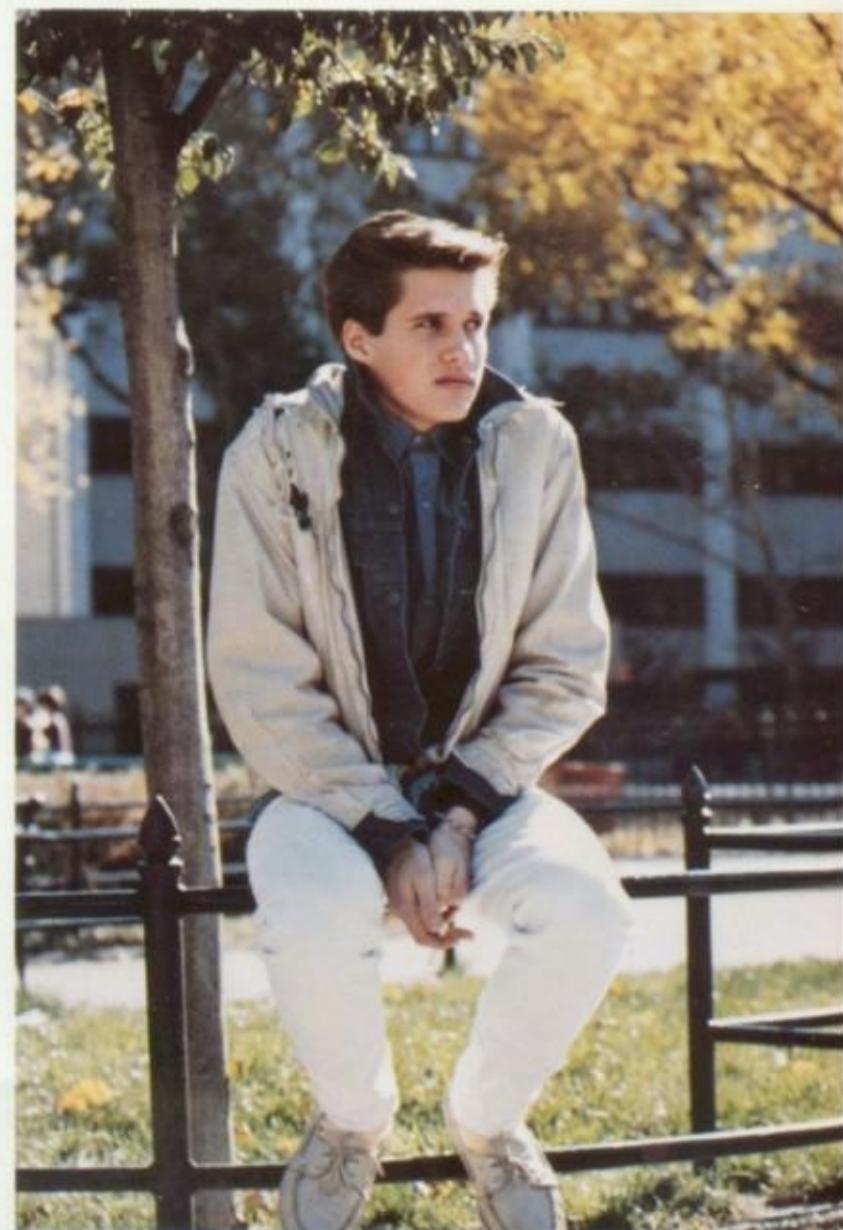

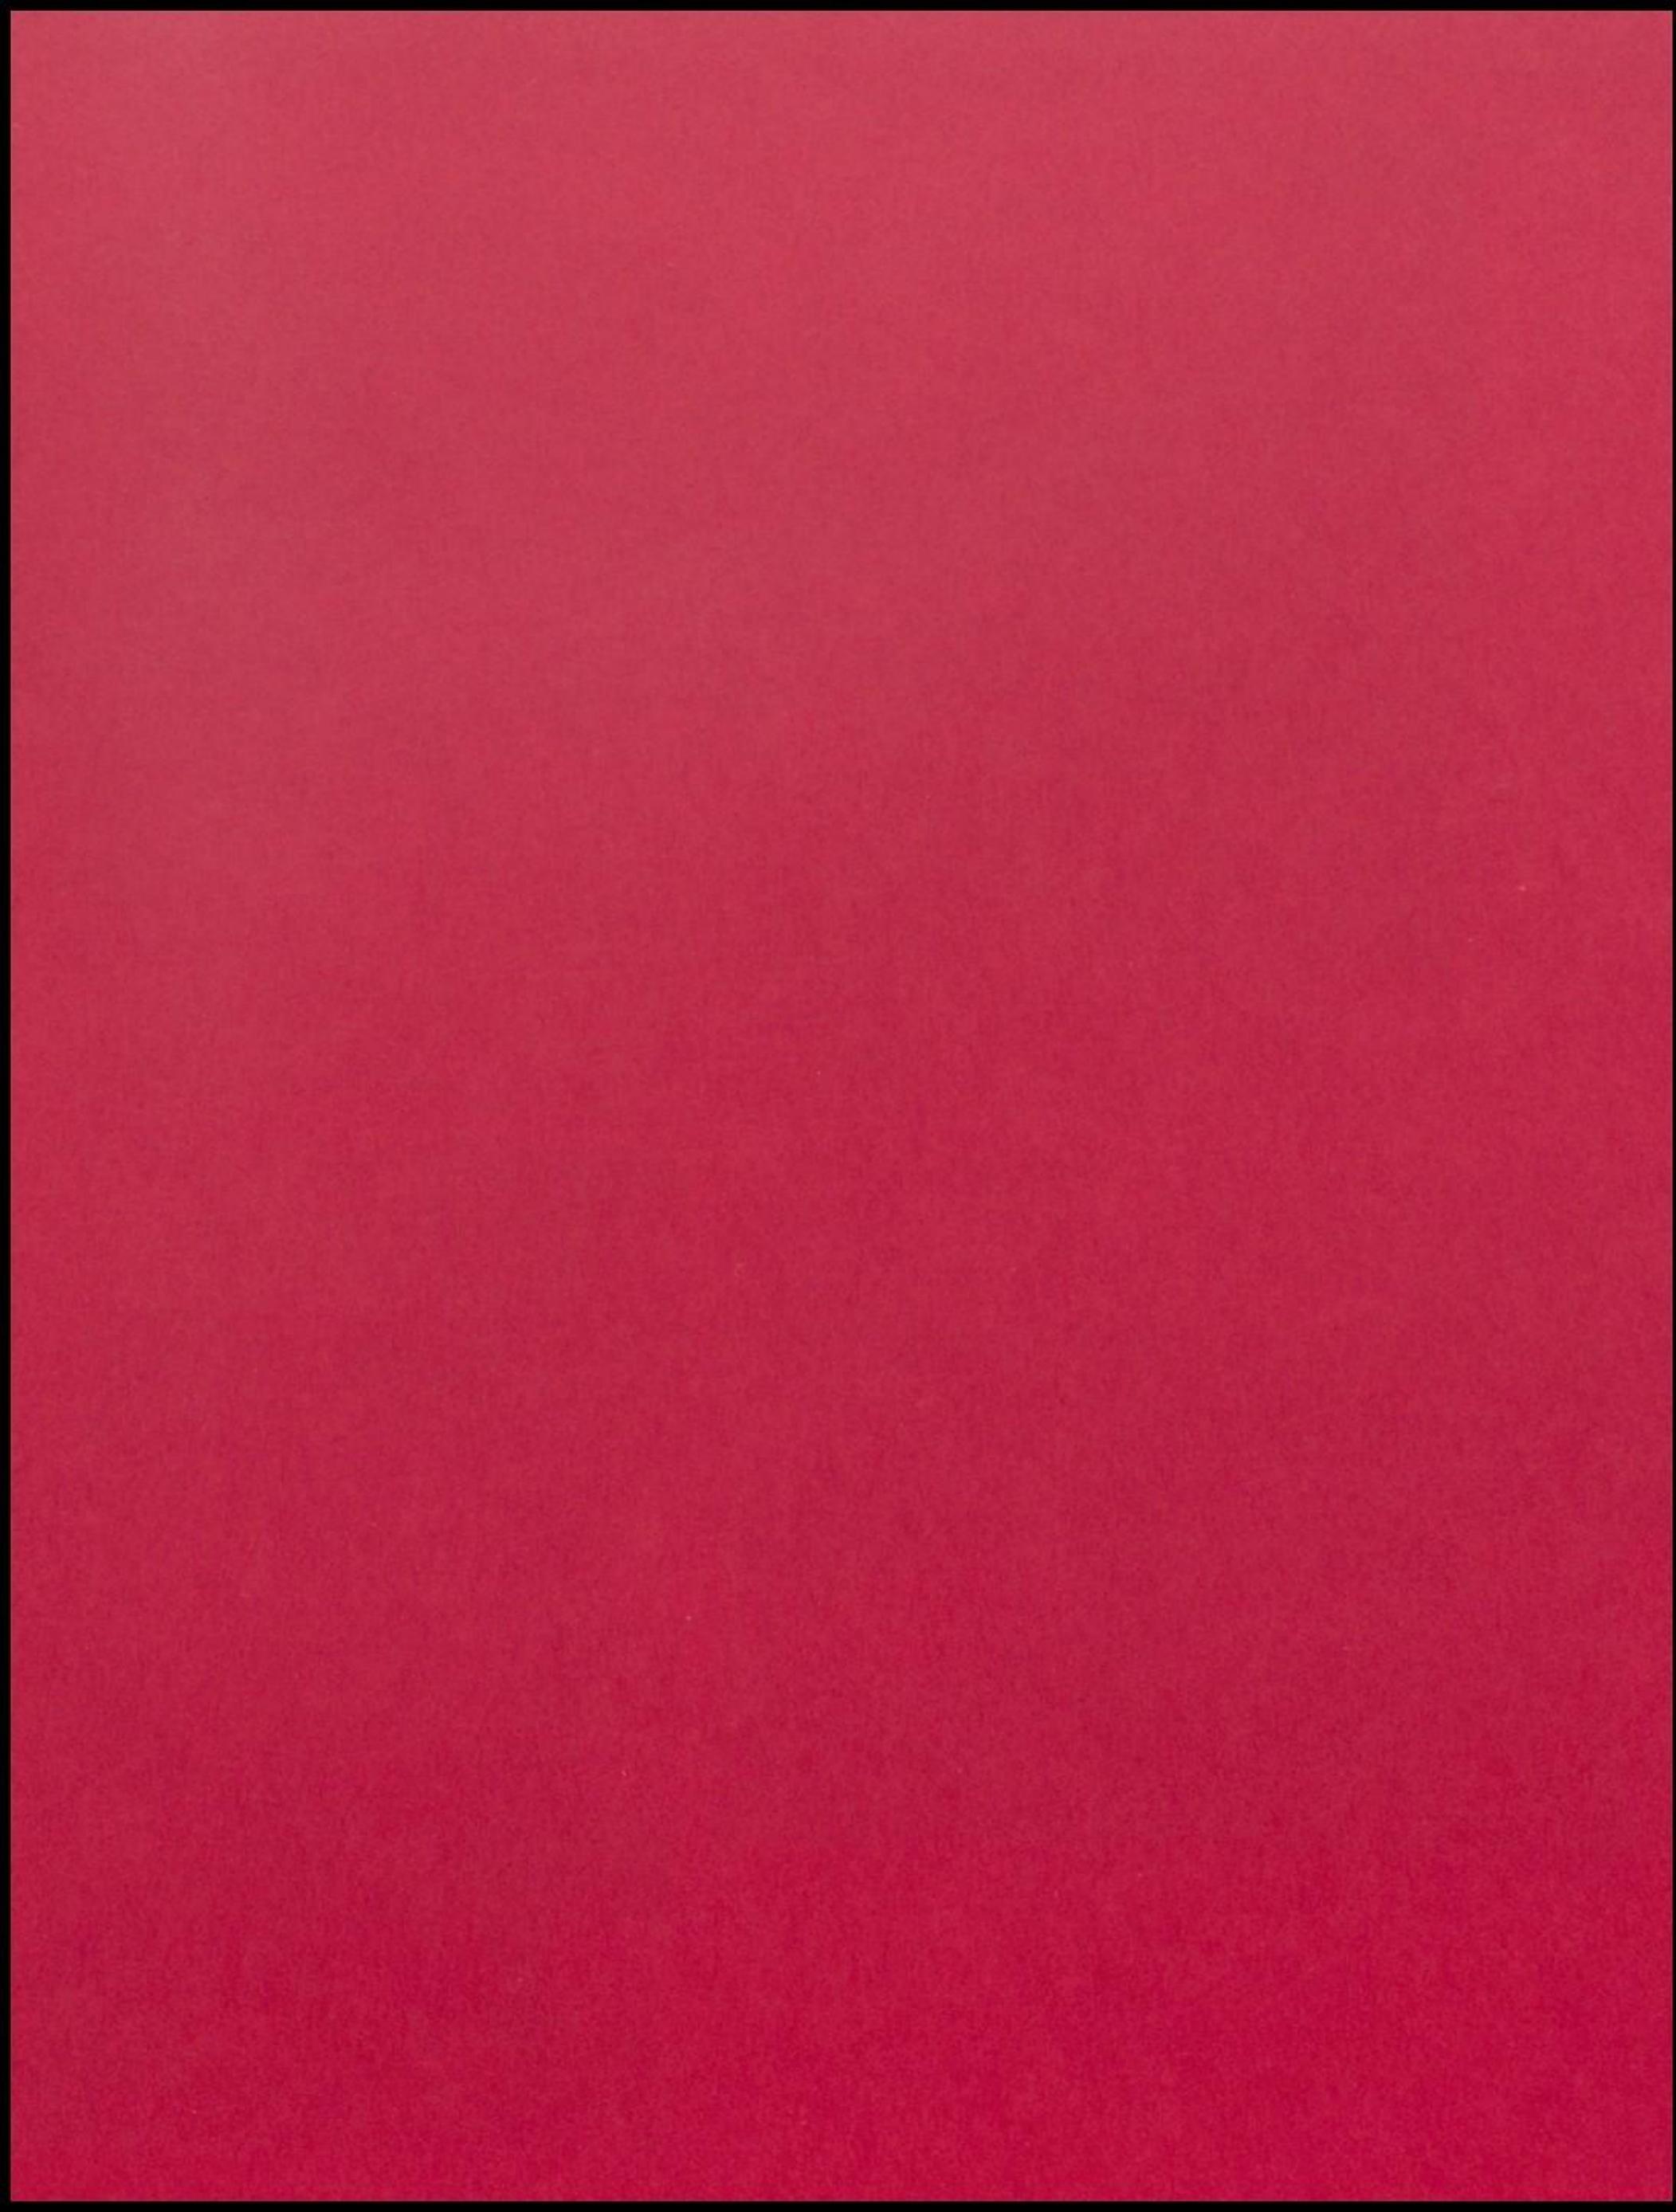

Some hate broccoli; some hate bacon, I hate having my picture taken.

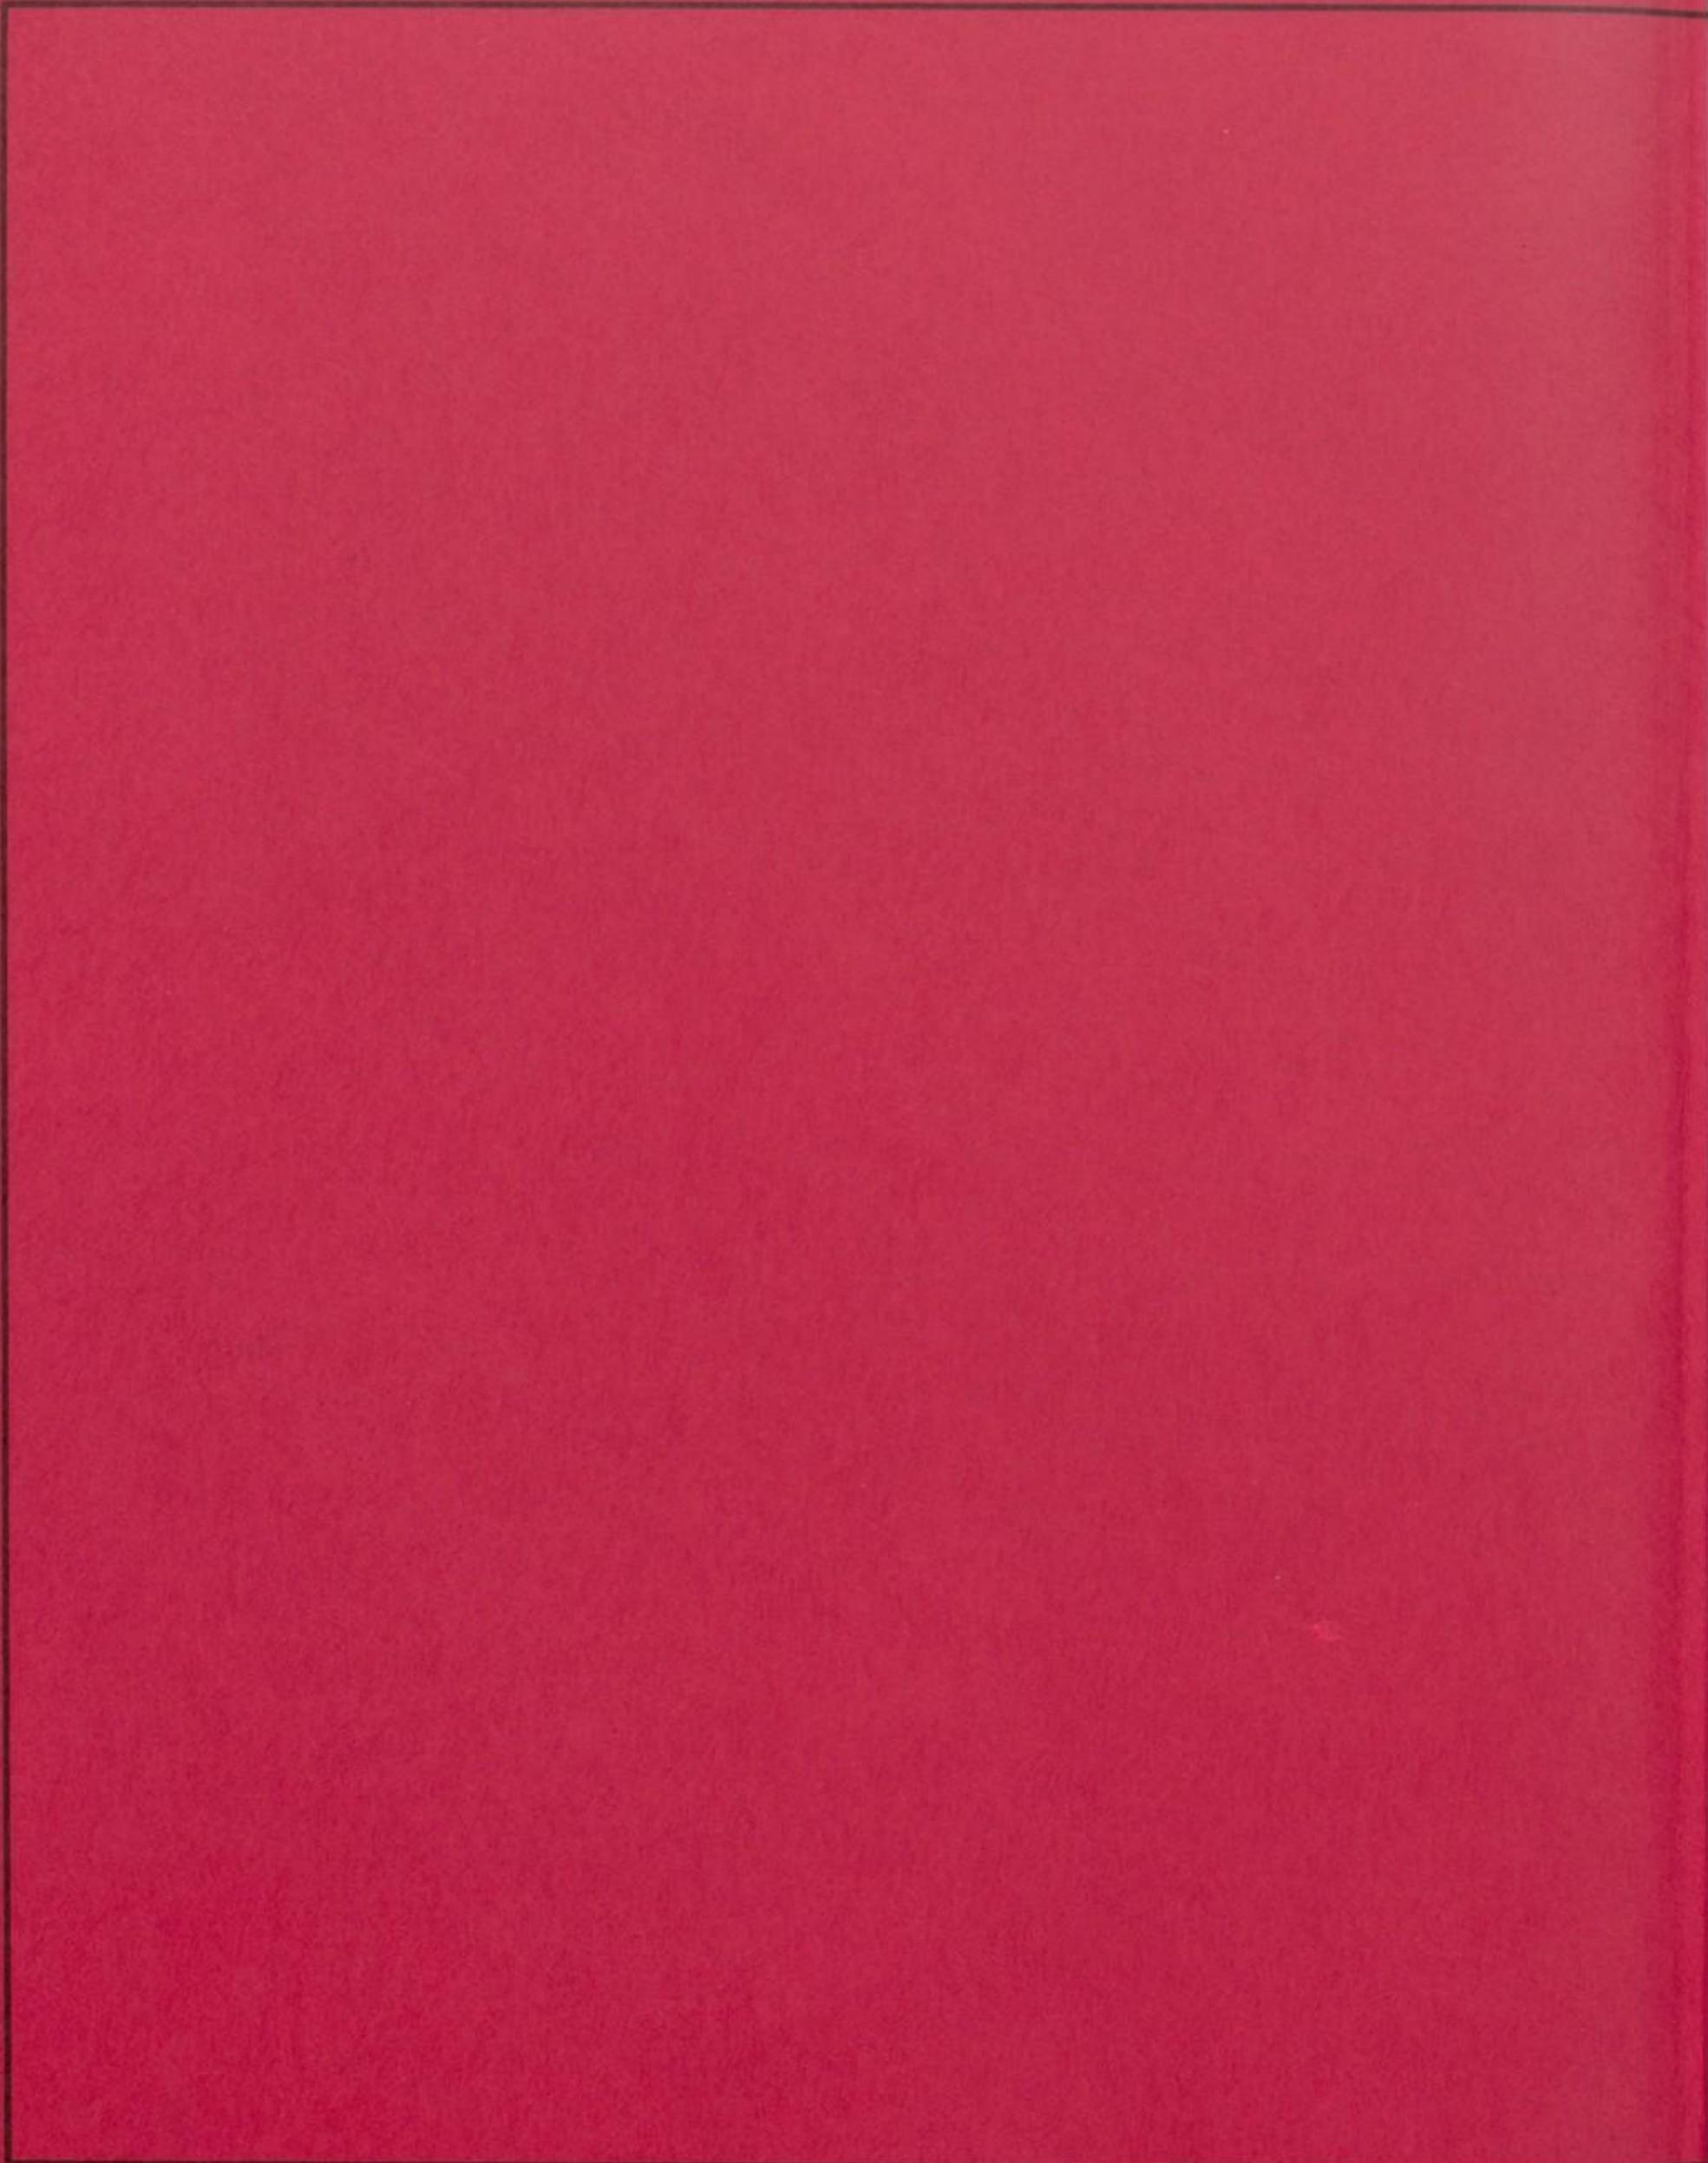

Ogden Nash

Days behind closed doors
wind down,
and now the doors
Open.
